AT IT AGAIN

The Portland Telegram, in the of its recent issues, commented editorially on the measure brought up at the present session of the legislature whereby the adjutant general of the state could be removed from office at the option of the governor. In 1921 the state law was changed so that the adjutant general could only be removed by court martial.

NOTICE OF DRAINAGE HEARING

To the Owners and All persons interested in the lands corporate and other property in and adjacent to Tillamook Drainage District:

USING WASTE WOOD.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Feb. 1—So successful has been the process discovered and perfected by Prof. O. F. Stafford, head of the chemistry department, for the utilization of waste wood in the production of charcoal and wood distillation products, that one of the two big corporations utilizing this method on a commercial scale will soon increase the capacity of its plant.

"COLD TEST" OIL.

"What is meant by the 'cold test' of an oil?" This is a question which seems to baffle the average motorist, and yet the explanation is comparatively simple.
All lubricating oils are directly affected by changes in temperature. As the temperature is lowered, a point is reached at which the oil ceases to flow. The temperature at which this change takes place is known as the cold test of the oil.
After the car has been left standing for some time in a temperature below the "cold test" of its oil, the oil congeals to the consistency of grease. And because of this congealed oil film on the bearings and cylinder walls, the engine is hard to start on cold mornings.
Also, the chilled and sluggish oil in the crankcase is too heavy to be circulated by the oil pump, or splashed by the revolving crankshaft. As a result, the engine fails to receive proper lubrication. This may cause scord cylinders and burnt-out bearings, and will certainly result in excessive wear on bearing surfaces.
So, during the cold weather season now commencing, it will pay the motorist to adopt a good cold-test oil. The Standard Oil Company claims that Zerolene Nos. 1, 3 and 5, true to its name, has one of the lowest cold tests obtainable, and is ideally suited for even zero weather requirements of the motorist.

The American Legion finished the year 1922 with a membership of 745, 263 ex-service men enrolled in 11, 057 posts according to Lemuel Bolles Legion national adjutant, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Massachusetts, in relative order, have the greatest number of Legionnaires.
The Legion is now organized in all states, Alaska, Canal Zone, Hawaii, Philippines and in the following foreign countries: Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, British Isles, Canada, Chile, China, Cuba, France, Germany, Guatemala, India, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Peru, Poland, Porto Rico, Portuguese West Africa, Santo Domingo, Spanish Honduras, Turkey, and Venezuela.

Abulletin issued by the national legislative committee of the American Legion, in explanation of the new adjusted compensation bill introduced by Congressman Fear of Wisconsin, declares that it is the duty of congress to determine the means of raising the funds.

Many concerted attempts have been made to induce the legion to endorse some particular method of raising government funds with which to meet adjusted compensation payment but the national legislative committee have consistently refused to do this, although representatives of two other veteran organizations have done so recently. The legion's policy has been that it is the duty of congress to determine the means of raising the funds and that this function does not come within the province of our organization.

The first foreign department of the American Legion Auxiliary has been chartered in Mexico. Auxiliary national headquarters has announced, Mexico is the first Auxiliary organization to be formed outside of the United States, although units have been consolidated into departments in Hawaii, the Canal Zone, and the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lee W. Elstetter, of Tampico, who has been elected president of the Department of Mexico, will sign the charter which has been forwarded from Indianapolis with the pen used by President Wilson, when he signed the postal treaty between Spain and America and twenty one other nations represented at the seventh annual International Postal Congress, which met in Spain, in December 1920.
Mrs. Elstetter, who was one of the representatives of the United States at the conference, was the only woman delegate. Spain presented Mrs. Elstetter with the pen used in signing the treaty. In ratifying the treaty afterwards, President Wilson used the same pen and later sent it to Mrs. Elstetter with both dates engraved upon it.

When Alvin Owsley, American Legion national commander visited the movie colony at Hollywood, the film city's reception committee was headed by Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks. In addition to welcoming the Legion head to Hollywood and showing him the studios "Mary and Doug" enacted a short movie in which Mr Owsley was a co-star, with other important Legion officials appearing as the supporting cast. This film will be presented to the Legion and will be released to all posts through their own exchange.
Following a luncheon at Levy's one of the famous cafes of Filmland Mr. Owsley was taken to the American Legion Stadium, where he was welcomed by Legion officials and by Mayor Cryer of Los Angeles, following the ceremonies there was a concert by the Hollywood American Legion post band.
