

GEM THEATRE

Sunday-Monday, February 4-5—
Richard Bagthelmiss and Dorothy Gish in "FURY"

9 reels of action you won't forget. Ships and storms and sea—a story of rolling decks—a romance of roaring limousines. It's the greatest picture Bagthelmiss has ever made.

FOX NEWS

Tuesday-Wednesday, February 6-7—
"BRAVN OF THE NORTH"

featuring "STRONHEART" (the whaler dog of the screen). You'll remember "THE SILENT CALL" in which Strongheart played such a wonderful part—in this production he excels all past performances. You've had no chance to see a greater NORTHERN picture than "BRAVN OF THE NORTH." Don't miss it.

FOX NEWS

Thursday-Friday, February 8-9—
The Cup of Life

featuring a strong cast including, Hobart Bosworth, Madge Bellamy, Tully Marshall and Miles Welch. This production was produced and personally supervised in the making by Thomas H. Ince. It's a thrilling story of pearl smugglers of Old Singapore.

"THE TIMBER QUEEN" EPISODE 11

Saturday, February 10—
ABOVE THE LAW

In this picture you'll see—Love scenes within the boudoir of a royal Indian Prince—daring adventures in the Punjab jungle and some of the most elaborate settings ever screened. A story of forbidden love and thrilling revenge.

"THE ESKIMO" A TWO REEL COMEDY
 FEATURING CLYDE COOK

Le Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lyster of Hemlock were in town Tuesday.

Jack Sohler, of Forest Grove, visited friends in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Forest Ayres, of Cloverdale, was shopping in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norberg left Thursday morning for a trip to Portland.

Mrs. R O Richards and daughter were in the city the first of the week from Beaver.

B. E. King, of the King-Crenshaw hardware company, was in Portland a few days on business last week.

Mrs. H. H. Crane and Miss Cook of Garibaldi were in town Monday, visiting at the Hubert O'Dell home.

Mrs. G. L. Hoar, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Miss Una Emerson, a few days this week.

Miss Nellie Warnick, of Portland, spent the week-end in the city visiting with her brother, Irving Warnick.

Mrs. Ohn Riggs, who has been employed as a cook at the Stone logging camp returned to Tillamook last week.

The Community Chorus meets every Tuesday evening at the Koch residence, at 7:45. Every singer is invited to attend.

Eddie Glad who has been in a hospital in Salem for the past four months is spending a week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Eric Glad.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parrazo, who have been visiting for the past four weeks with relatives in Pendleton, returned home a few days ago.

Allan Crane accidentally shot himself in the right thigh last Sunday with a revolver. The bullet went through the leg and apparently made a clean wound.

A. N. Bowers has been appointed as leader of the choir of the First Christian church of this city, and is planning something special in the way of an Easter service, he says.

Rev. Allan McKen, who had his ankle badly sprained several weeks ago, had to have his foot placed in a plaster cast this week, and may be confined to his home for some time by the injury.

C. F. Daniels, county judge of Yamhill county, visited the latter part of last week with his son, L. C. Daniels and family, making the trip with John Carrol, Mr. Carrol and Mr. Daniels returned by way of Seaside and Astoria.

Mrs. C. E. Hart returned the first of the week from Springbrook, Oregon, where she had been called by the illness of her niece, Thomas Jensen. On her return she was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. William Martin, of Wisconsin, who will visit here for a week.

What might have been a serious accident happened last week when the 14 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hensser and his clothes catch fire as he was playing near the stove. Mrs. Hensser was leaving the room when the baby screamed and turning she saw his clothing in flames. She managed to extinguish the blaze with her hands and the baby escaped with slight burns about the head and face.
