The Wabbevwanna club met last Monday evening at the Oathout home with Mesdames Oathout as hostesses. Other members present were Mesdames Berky, Coe, Ford, Hanslmair, Larson, Matthews, Smith, Thomas Williams, Winslow, Keesee, Miss De Ford and Dumbell. After a very pleasant evening a light lunch was enjoyed by all.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Sam Vierick was delightfully surprised on the occasion of her birthday. She had been given to understand that she was to go to Netarta with a number of ladies of the Relief Corps. A car stopped at her home for her and instead of going to Netarta as she had planned she was taken to the F. C. Feldschau home where the ladies had gathered. The afternoon was spent in conversation and fancy work. The honor guest was presented with a large basket of fruit and a center piece. The decoration scheme was carried out in yellow. Besides the honor guest there were present Mesdames Clarence Wagy, Lelle Lucas, Frankie Berry, A. D. Smith, Frank Heyd, Margaret Oathout, J. N. Ellison, George Larson, Katie Stillwell, Fred Feldschau and Morris Leach.

The Sunabine club met at the W. O. W. hall Tuesday afternoon with thirty members present and four visitors, Mrs. Arthur Travis, Mrs. Fred Travis, Mrs. Al Bunn and Mrs. Margaret. The afternoon was spent in a social time. The occasion being Longfellow's birthday. Mrs. Clyde Craver recited one of his poems. Mrs. Ella Ransday rendered a vocal solo. Mrs. Boone also gave a recitation. The chief diversion of the afternoon was a clever game in which Mrs. C. B. Stanley won the first prize and Mrs. Frank Heyd the consolation. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Fred Berky, Mrs. Mable Craver and Mrs. Basil Mapes. The table was decorated with pussy willows, and red hatchets were used for place cards.

Ten of the Junior Boy Scouts of the various S. S. auspices surprised their leader, Rev. McRae, on last Tuesday night, Feb. 20, taking sand wiches and the wherewith for punch (of which it was surprising that even ten boys could consume nearly two gallons; as well as a big dish of Nabiscoes brought out by Mrs. McRae, also the peanuts found in the "hunt" prepared by Mrs. McRae, who was informed beforehand. The prize for the most found, a small pocketbook, went to Virgil Langtry. Three other boys won booby penny prize candy packages. The Bible guessing game proved as exciting as the game of rummy and guessing of riddles. Rev. McRae was unable to participate in the peanut hunt with his still sprained ankle gotten in the Boy Scout meeting New Years Day. Those present to show their appreciation of the past several months or organization by brother McRae were: Paul Chilcott, Harold Craver, Earl Franklin, Virgil Langtry, Arnold Finch, Oren Rosenberg, Floyd Rosenberg, Leo Hoag, Clarence Burdick and Lyle Conover. A Drop of Solder

Sometimes that's all that's required to restore a faulty radiator to normal efficiency. Neglect that needed drop and you pave the way for endless motor trouble warped and scored cylinders, burned out bearings, excessive gas and oil consumption and last but not least big repair bills. All the inevitable result of over heating caused by defective radiator. Maybe your radiator requires that needed drop of solder, maybe not. But why not play safe. Drive your car around and let us examine your radiator, we will be glad to do this absolutely without charge. Come today.
