23 SERIES BIG-SIX TOURING CAR $1750

Many people make the mistake of buying a car without enough seating capacity.

Then when they want to take their friends along, the children have to sit on someone's lap, the foot space is all jammed up with luggage, and everybody is crowded and uncomfortable.

The Studebaker Big-Six Touring Car has two comfortable auxiliary seats that fold out of the way. It is a big, roomy five-passenger car except when you need it for seven, and then it's a comfortable, convenient seven-passenger car—something which a five-passenger car can never be. And there is still room for the luggage.

Come in and look at the Big-Six Touring Car. No matter how much you pay we don't believe you can find a more satisfactory car.

Its reliability has been proved in the service of thousands of owners. Correct design, highest quality of materials and precise workmanship are evident throughout every detail of its construction. Equipment is complete—even to an extra disc wheel with cord tire, tube and tire cover and bumpers, front and rear.

The name Studebaker is assurance of satisfaction.

INTERNATIONAL COURT PROPOSAL DEFEATED

Resolution to Accept Harding Plan is Turned Down By Senate.

Washington, D. C.—The senate formally refused to consider President Harding's proposal for American participation in the international court of justice as created under the treaty of Versailles.

A motion by Senator King (democrat) of Utah to take up the resolution accepting the president's proposal was defeated 49 to 24, the vote being taken while the senate was in a state of uproar, due to a parliamentary tangle.

The vote came while a half dozen senators were shouting for recognition and when half the senate was not aware of the subject being voted upon.

Attempts by senators to stop the roll-call to learn what the resolution contained were blocked by parliamentary objections, and the roll-call ended without the subject of the resolution being announced. The vote was strictly on party lines, republicans voting against King's motion and democrats supporting him.

U. S. NOT TO REOPEN NEWCASTLE STATION

Washington, D. C.—The United States consulate at Newcastle, England, will not be reopened. A note to the British government delivered by George Harvey, American ambassador, conveyed this information and showed that the two governments are as far apart as ever as to the justice of the British action last fall in cancelling the acquiescence of the two consuls there.

The United States has insisted that the only condition under which it would reopen the consulate would be for the English government to withdraw the charges against the two American officials and to announce publicly the reason for the withdrawal. This the British government has refused to do.

U. S. SHIPS QUIT OPEN SEAS

Competition Said to Be Driving Vessels Into Coast Trade.

Washington, D. C.—The competition of the open seas has driven so many privately owned American ships into the coastal trade that the shipping board's bureau of research characterized the increased coastal movement of cargoes as "the most marked development in the employment of ships under the United States flag during the past year."

"The vessels under private ownership," said a report, "have practically abandoned the hopeless task of competing with the more cheaply operated foreign fleets, and have turned to the protected traffic of our coastal waters, where the basis of operation cost is equal."

Demand Government Oil Regulation.

Washington, D. C.—Asserting that the oil industry is in the grip of the Standard Oil interests and that unless there is government interference the price of gasoline will soon be pushed beyond the reach of the automobile owning public, the senate subcommittee on manufactures has recommended a system of rigid control which would place the oil companies under federal regulation as broad as that now exercised over the railroads and other common carriers.

Jail Stormers Face Criminal Charges.

Palatka, Fla.—Warrants were sworn out here for twelve men charging them with assault with intent to murder, firing into an occupied dwelling, and conspiracy to commit a felony in connection with an attempt of a mob to break into the county jail here where Arthur Johnson, negro, alleged slayer of H. C. Cross of Albany, Ga., was believed to be confined.

Salem—Northwest Canning Co. to erect $100,000 plant.
Vale—Flouring mill being rebuilt.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The Harrisburg sawmill will resume operations within a few days.
The bankers of Linn county met at Albany and formed a county bankers' association.

The 33d annual convention of the Clackamas County Sunday School association was held in Oregon City.

Lincoln county will celebrate the 20th anniversary of its becoming a division of the state on March 3.

The ninth death from sleeping sickness since January 1, 1923, was reported to the city health department of Portland.

William Doby, former county judge of Baker county, has accepted Governor Pierce's appointment as state highway commissioner.

Postmasters nominated by President Harding include Robert N. Forbet, Albany; Claude E. Ingalls, Corvallis; and Darwin R. Moran, Eugene.

The Charles K. Spaulding Logging company of Salem has announced that it has raised the pay of its common laborers from $3 to $3.40 a day.

The civil service commission has been requested by the postoffice department to hold an examination for the selection of a postmaster at Marshfield.

President W. J. Kerr of Oregon Agricultural college has gone to Baltimore, Md., to attend the session of the Grand Council of De Molay, a Masonic order for boys. He will return in two weeks.

Thirty pairs of Hungarian partridges which were received from the state game commission, were released in various parts of the Grand Ronde valley by the Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot club of La Granda.

The executive committee of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua association has voted to provide independent attractions for the 13 days' Chautauqua at Oladston. July 10 to 28, inclusive, are the dates fixed for this year.

Albany retail merchants representing 20 firms have organized with Ben Barcher chairman and W. A. Eastburn secretary for protection and cooperation. The association will act as an auxiliary to the chamber of commerce.

Nineteen head of full-blooded Holsteins, the property of George A. McCarter of Harrisburg, were shipped to Portland, all marked with tuberculous ear tags. They will be slaughtered in the presence of a government inspector.

Eugene made a good record in building last month, according to the report of W. H. Alexander, city building inspector. Twenty-seven permits were issued during the month and the estimated value of construction is $184,895.

Mayor Baker of Portland has issued a proclamation designating the week April 9-14 as "Home Beautiful" week. All citizens of Portland are urged by the mayor to co-operate in the plans made to promote home ownership and home improvement.

Governor Pierce received a petition signed by several hundred citizens of Umatilla county requesting that a parole be granted to Elvin Nelson, who was received at the penitentiary in Salem last month to serve a term of two years for larceny.

A survey of the proposed $300,000 highline from Pasco, through Umatilla to Pendleton, has been begun by engineers of the Pacific Power & Light company and actual construction will start early this summer. The work will be completed before next winter.

Without waiting the outcome of negotiations of the Building Trades Council with the Building Construction Employers' association for a 10 per cent increase in wages, members of the painters' union of Portland went on strike, refusing to work for less than $8 a day.

There was one fatality in Oregon due to an industrial accident in the week ending March 1, according to a report issued by the state industrial accident commission. The victim was Walter Scott, checker setter, of Silverton. A total of 594 accidents were reported.

Under a ruling announced by the state superintendent of schools, the teachers' training course offered through the last year of the standard high school hereafter will be considered equivalent to the 24 weeks' course provided at the state normal school at Monmouth.

Adjutant-General White has returned to Salem from Tillamook, where he inspected the site for the proposed new armory which is to be erected there during the present year. The recent legislature made an appropriation of $24,000 for this structure. A similar amount will be appropriated by Tillamook county.

Portland school board asking for $2,000,000 additional for buildings.

$2,000,000 additional for buildings.

The work of repairing the main and lateral sewers at Astoria, the clearing of the streets in the burned district of the city and the making of temporary repairs to the fire alarm system will be undertaken at once and the estimated cost is in the neighborhood of $15,000.

The forest service will reauthorize bids for the purchase of 900,000,000 feet of timber in the Malheur forest in Harney county. No bids were received from the last advertisement. The purchaser would be required to construct about 80 miles of railroad on which to bring the timber out.

The first case to be tried in the state under the law passed at the recent session of the legislature, which gives the state authority to confiscate automobiles used for transportation of liquor, in violation of the prohibition law, will be heard in the Clackamas county circuit court at Oregon City.

Funds for the Seaside-Reedsport section of the Roseburg-Reedsport highway will not be available during the coming year if the federal senate concurs in the reduction of the appropriation for forest roads, according to word received from Philip Dater, district engineer for the forest service.

The housing situation in Monmouth has become a serious problem during the past two years, owing to the rapid growth of the normal school, and the increasing population. It was estimated by Monmouth real estate men that 50 new houses are required to accommodate properly the present population.

Trout fishing in the McKenzie river and its upper tributaries should be above par this season, according to Matt Ryckman, superintendent of state fish hatcheries, who states that approximately 100,000 year-old trout between four to eight inches and about 80,000 larger fish were liberated at the McKenzie hatchery recently by high water.

The lumber shipments by water from the Columbia river during the month of February, while less than for the preceding month, were fairly large, according to statistics compiled by R. D. Lamb, deputy collector of customs at Astoria. Sixty-eight rafts loaded 58,781,000 feet of lumber which left the Columbia river in cargoes during the 28 days.

Final negotiations involving the transfer of the Buehner Lumber company of North Bend to the Stout Lumber company, a concern composed of several big lumbermen, have been completed and the new owners will immediately start the making of improvements that will increase the mill capacity from 80,000,000 to 125,000,000 board feet annually.

The contract for the construction of an entire new acid system for the sulphite plant of the Crown-Willamette paper mill in West Linn and the replacing of all of the present frame structures at the mill with concrete has been awarded. Announcement of contemplated expenditure of about $250,000 was made by the officials of the Crown-Willamette.

July 14, 15 and 16 have been set as the dates for the 1923 annual Mount Hood club of the Hood River American Legion post. The annual convention of the Oregon Editorial association will be held the week of the mountain party and all delegates to the editors' sessions have been invited by the legionnaires to participate as their guests on the highland hike.

The first sheep sale of the season was reported at Hoppper when Pat Connell, sheepman of Elsie Creek, sold 1400 two-year-old ewes to J. A. Yun of Portland at $9.25 a head for ewes and $5 for each lamb, delivery to be made June 1. The ewes are expected to shear 12 pounds of wool, which at present prices would make a total price of better than $10 for the ewes.

A deal which involved the transfer of the 4200 acres of fine timber land in Lincoln county of the Chautauqua Lumber company to the Pacific Spruce corporation for a figure approximating more than $1,000,000, has been closed. The timber, which cruised about 275,000,000 feet, is located in the lower Siletta basin, and is adjacent to the logging properties of the spruce corporation. The timber will be milled in the plant at Toledo.

Bids on approximately $300,000 worth of additional highway work, which it is proposed to carry out during the coming season, will be advertised for at once, according to decision of the state highway commission at its regular March meeting. In addition, plans for more than $400,000 worth of federal forest highway work in which the state will co-operate were approved and bids will be called shortly by the United States bureau of public roads.

Astoria's chance to obtain a loan of $1,000,000 from the federal government has gone glimmering, according to a dispatch received from Charles W. Halderman, who is representing Astoria at the national capital. The reason given is that the rules committee of the lower house of congress refused to make the proposed bill a special order of business and thus it had sufficient time to bring the measure up for consideration in the regular order at this session.
