REVIVAL AT CLOVERDALE

The Baptist church of Cloverdale now has revival services which may last several weeks. They began on the 13th inst. Elder Ben J. Smith of Sheridan, Arkansas, is conducting the services. He is said to be a revivalist of much force and power, and the meetings are attracting much interest.

WORKMEN QUARTERS ERECTED

Several new small houses have been erected recently at the saw mill of Sundquist & Norberg, on the highway east of town for the accommodation of workmen and their families. The mill is running with a full force of men, and trucks are conveying the lumber sawed to the company's docks adjoining the S. P. tracks in this city for shipment to outside points.

WILL VISIT FATHERLAND

Nela Glad a prosperous dairyman of near this city leaves today for Portland, where he will receive a passport which will admit him to his old home in Sweden which place he left more than a quarter of a century ago. As he has not yet completed his citizenship in this country, he this week procured a certified copy of his first papers from County Clerk Brimhall to show to the Swedish consul in Portland. In Portland he will join a party of his countrymen who are going on a similar visit to the old country.

NEW LAWS SOON EFFECTIVE

May 24th will be rather an important day in the history of the year as more than 250 laws passed by the last legislature will become effective on that date. The new prohibition laws, and the ones having to do with the enforcement of the narcotic drug statutes, and the law prohibiting the wearing of sectarian garbs in the public schools are important new laws, which will become of force on the 24th. Still another law is the one pro-
