Otto Nelson arrived in town with a new Franklin sedan. Justice of the Peace Krebs will hold court Wednesday, May 23. Rockaway Beach Boosters held their annual meeting last Monday night. The following officers were elected: W. J. Schuhmacker, pres.; B. E. Reynolds, vice president; and Wm. D. Shafer, secretary and treasurer. The Rockaway Beach Boosters club appointed M. J. Maddox as representative for the beach to meet with the...

county count, state highway commissioners and S. P. engineers to get some action on the road from Jetty creek to Brighton. LOST VALLEY (Crowded out last week) Amand LaCase left Tuesday for Nehalem to help complete the Alder Vale cheese factory. Albert Krake met with a serious accident last Friday on his road to the factory. When he turned out for O. D. Hohlfield the bolt of the shaft gave way, throwing him out in the hard road and bruising his face and breaking his arm. He is getting along nicely at present writing. Dick Price was a visitor in Lost Valley Sunday.

OCEANSIDE

(Too late for last week) Loyd Heckathorn and party returned to Eugene Friday after an enjoyable two weeks stay at Oceanside. J. L. Baden of Eugene proved him self a true fisherman during his two weeks stay here, during one trip to Short Beach making a splendid catch among which was a ten pound cod, besides seatrout, pogies, bass and perch. The play grounds are nearly finished and afford a great deal of amusement to the youngsters as well as grownups. A thirty-five foot Shoot the Shoots has been placed in the play ground at Oceanside also a Giant stride. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Craver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson and family of Tillamook spent Sunday at Oceanside. Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb and family were among the many visitors at this place Sunday last week. A party of young people of Tillamook composed of the Misses Gladys Hsie, Glenora White, Belle Bailey, Mary Ward, Eunice Swenson, Ella Davidson and Ivy Nelson, Glen Conover, Irvie Keldsen, Carl Leach, Leonard Cane, Gerald Graves, Vic White, Dick Donovan, motored to Oceanside early Sunday morning and had breakfast in Rosenberg's cottage. They spent the day hiking, and dancing. All report an enjoyable time.

HEBO

Wm. Peacock died May 17 at the age of 54 years. He was a resident of Hebo for the past eleven or twelve years. The remains were buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Tillamook. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Britten have left for Astoria after spending several pleasant days in this community. Miss Erma Bills has left for Portland where she intends to spend the summer. Miss Ruth Lewellen is in Tillamook suffering with an abscess in her throat. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon came in from Newberg last week and spent several days with their relatives and friends. The forestry service is building a... modern lookout station on Mt. Hebo for the purpose of more efficiently handling the forest fire situation.

NEHALEM

H. A. Bell was at Newport last week on business connected with the port. Rev. Tabor preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Nehalem schools Sunday evening. Twenty five members of the Nehalem Assembly United Artisans together with two candidates attended special initiation exercises at Senaside last Saturday night. J. W. Thompson is driving a new Chevrolet touring car which he recently purchased from H. H. Bosch, local representative for that company. Mrs. George Blanchard was slightly though not seriously injured a few days ago when she fell from the running board of a car. After a couple of days rest in bed she was able to resume her school work. Miss Kirry, principal of Nehalem schools, took the eighth grade graduates to Tillamook last Saturday to receive their diplomas. The graduates were Ella Anderson, Ella Hall, Verona Pierce, Hans Herchenheim and Charles Thompson. A. L. McCarty drove out to Salem Saturday on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. McCarty and daughter and Mrs. Oscar Klein. The latter will remain a week and visit friends in the vicinity of the capitol city. Mrs. O. F. Toney has been spending the past week at the home of Mrs. Harry Bell during the latter's absence with her husband. Dr. McGee drove down to Tillamook last Tuesday evening. While he was enjoying the show, some one removed a spare tire with rim and inner tube from his coupe. He hopes that the person who now has it is as well satisfied as the doctor would be to have it returned. Ray Letson and family of Beaver visited at the home of George McKimmons near Mohler last Sunday. Dr. McGee reports the birth of an eight pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moorhead at Wheeler May 11th.

STUTZ ENGINE MAN HERE

C. A. Smith delivery engineer for the Stutz Fire Engine Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., was here this week to make some slight repairs on the big Stutz pumper in this city. While here he put in a new starter ring gear, replacing the old one. The big Stutz has stood up first rate for 3 years past and with the exception of the slight repair, made, was found to be in capital condition by the visiting engineer. The installation of the Stutz here, three years ago, marked the date of the first Stutz placed on the Pacific coast, although there are several now.

Oregon livestock came through the winter in considerably better condition than the average for the country as a whole.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

This week, which is the last week of school, has been a busy one for H. S. Students, especially the seniors. Miss Barry's classes enjoyed a picnic supper up the Wilson river Thursday evening. Seven cars took the merry picnickers up to the gavel pit. L. N. Bennett, Miss Ryder and Miss Barry were, the faculty chaperones. The following students were responsible for the success of the picnic: Flora Schild, chairman; Marion Lamb, Leonard Bales, Alfred Coates, Kenneth Mahan, Otis Wright, Walter Severeance, Trevor Hare and Misses LeVelle Smith, Nadine Williams, Mayme Jacobs, Wanda Haltom, Evelyn Glad and Rowena Hanson. The Sophomore class held a meeting Friday and elected the following officers for the first semester of next year: President, Catherine Gabriel; vice president, Leonard Bales; secretary-treasurer, Rowena Hanson; class representative, Catherine Smith; class adviser, Miss Barry. The Junior-Senior banquet which was held at the Presbyterian Guild hall Friday May 18, was a great success, and worthy of a great deal of praise. Joseph Maxwell was toastmaster. Thanks are offered by the class of '23 to the ministers who took part in the baccalaureate services which were held at the Christian church Sunday May 20, and a special vote of thanks was extended to Rev. W. O. Woolever, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon. Commencement exercises will be held at the Christian church Friday, May 25, at 8 p. m.

CHURCH NOTES

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH Memorial Services Next Sunday Morning. 11 a. m. at First Christian church. Rev. George N. Harness will deliver the Memorial address for the Old Soldiers next Sunday at the eleven o'clock services. All the old soldiers and their wives are invited to be present. If there are those who have no way of getting to the church but walking, the church will gladly furnish a car which will call and get you and take you home after the services. For further information please phone the church office. Next Sunday being Memorial Day every one who loves his country and his flag should try to be present. Everybody invited. Next Sunday Morning is Fathers and Sons day at the Every Mans class at the city hall. Every father in Tillamook is invited to bring his son and attend the father and son service of the Everymans class at the city hall. If you don't have a son bring some one else's boy, or as many as you can get. This will be a great service. A great song service. A splendid fellowship and a very interesting address to the father and son which will be delivered by George Harness.
