ALLEN RESIDENCE BURNS

Shortly after ten o'clock last night the home of P. E. Allen near Neahkah-nie mountain, was entirely destroyed by fire together with its contents. Mr. Allen was at Nehalem attending lodge at the time the fire occurred and Mrs. Allen had retired. When the fire was first seen the entire structure was ablaze and all efforts to save the building were useless. Word was phoned to the lodge and the members responded promptly and no doubt their efforts as well as to that of the entire neighborhood, is due the fact that the home of W. F. Cain and other buildings were not burned also. The Allen home was a modern six room structure complete ly furnished. Only a small amount of insurance was carried.

SOCIETY EVENTS MANY

Mrs. M. A. Adams entertained at a silver tea Tuesday afternoon, as a benefit for St. Albans Guild. Summer flowers were used in profusion about the rooms. The scree ed porch forn ed a delightful retreat for the guests during the tea hour. An enjoyable musical program was given previous to the tea hour by Mrs. C. A. Brown, vocalist, Mrs. F. A. Beltz and Miss Corrine Adams, pianist.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. S. Contes, Mrs. C. A. Brown and Miss Georgia Barry. Seated around the dainty tea tables were the following guests: Mesdames Oscar Schultz, Nicklaus, Fronk, Carl Schultz, F. C. Baker, Repass, Sheldon, Knudson, Delaney, Brant, Link, Grate, Bryan, Seabrook, Hill, Riechers, L. W. Turnbull, Clara Turnbull, and Beltz.

NEW SCHOOL NAMED LIBERTY

Some time ago George B. Lamb, county superintendent of schools, sent out a circular to the various lodge and civic organizations of the city asking each society to propose a name lows: Company K, Oregon National for the new $95,000 school house, now in process of erection. The various organizations submitted names as fol-
