

SOCIETY EVENTS MANY

The annual luncheon of the Womens club was held at the Tillamook hotel Wednesday of this week. About fifty members and their friends sat down to the table which was trimmed with the club flowers the "Dorothy Perkins" rose. Mrs. Orpha Eastman, as toastmistress called on a number of the women for remarks and each graciously responded.

Following the luncheon the members met at the City Hall for the regular business meeting. At this time the officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. W. B. Alderman, president; Mrs. Winneck, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Leslie Harrison, secretary and Mrs. Stanley Coates, treasurer. Mrs. F. C. Esch, Mrs. Harry Thomas and Mrs. E. G. Anderson were re-elected as members of the board. Complying with a request made by the committee in charge of the program for the Fourth of July, the club elected Miss Glee Rusk to be the Goddess of Liberty in the parade to be held during the celebration. Miss Rusk was a member of the 1923 graduating class.

A vote of thanks was extended by the club to the retiring officers for their faithful and efficient work and also to the club committee in charge of the luncheon.

THE MONARCH OF THE POOL

Considerable excitement has been caused in the ranks of certain members of the piscatorial brigade of this city recently by experience with a monstrous Chinook salmon which thus far has evaded capture. Evidently it has a mouthful of spoons and yards of linen line dangling from its salmon ship. Bill Graves hooded it four times without capture and Ralph Bennett and J. A. Bell lost some fine spoons and tackle on the fish which is described after a passing glance as one of the largest Chinooks ever seen in the bay. The scene of the battles is about a mile and a half up the Trask river in a pool bearing a local classical name. Bennett and Bell state that when the latter hooked it the other morning when the early birds in the adjacent backbrush were just beginning their matutinal songs, it snaked the boat "starn" foremost for several yards. Naturally a number of our sportsmen are after that particular salmon, which, from what the boys say is a snollygoster or something like that.

at the home of her son H. L. Fowler of Cottage Grove, Oregon. The remains were conveyed to this city arriving last Sunday. Funeral services were held in the Adventist church, a minister from Grand Ronde officiating. Mrs. Weston was born July 18, 1845 in Texas, N. Y. Her age at the time of her demise was 77 years, 11 months and 4 days. She is survived by H. L. Fowler a son of Cottage Grove, and Ed Weston, a step son of this county. The remains were buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery at this place last Monday.

SAW THE DELEPLAIN ACCIDENT

E. H. Kennedy and wife, formerly Elma Harris, of this city, now of Salem, were over from the capital city last Saturday evening and spent Sunday and Monday with A. H. Harris and family, returning home Monday night. Messrs. Kennedy and Wason are business men of Salem and came over to wet a few flies on Tillamook's fine trout streams. The Kennedy party witnessed the accident that resulted in the death of Mrs. Pierce of Salem near Sourgrass Saturday and were able to render some aid to the people in the Deleplain auto that took the plunge over the grade to the levels beneath. They say that Deleplain was a careful driver but that he gave more room to the other auto than was necessary.

fact that this part of the Tillamook-McMinnville highway has been under the sole authority of the State highway department for more than a year and a half past, and that this county has no authority over the road in the matter of repairs or otherwise. Complaints have come in to this office that the road is full of deep ruts, made almost impassible by the late rains and by heavy vehicles. It is learned that the state highway engineers in charge in this county expect to rock the road but are waiting for dry weather to do the work. Several autos have been stuck in the deep clay ruts lately and the travelling public is registering some hefty kicks about its condition. Individuals have complained to the

MOORE CUT OFF IS VERY BAD MUD HOLE

Considerable complaint has been coming to the county court and to this newspaper lately concerning the bad condition of the Moore cut-off near the Sundquist & Norberg mill, east of this city on the highway. Investigation by the Headlight reveals the county court, not understanding the court is powerless under the act in the matter. A way to this bad stretch of road, we are told is by detouring by the Blum road which rough in places, but not so bad as the Moore road in its present condition. What the cut-off needs is rocking and that is badly.

L. P. Harmon is operating a grading machine along the Goodspeed leading to the tidelands along the slough north of town. The dirt in the ditches will be piled up on the road and by the above means the will be raised and improved for better travel.
