

ABOUT THE TOWN

A. Zimmerman of Wheeler was in the city Tuesday transacting business.

Mrs. Art Rogers returned the first of the week from a visit with a sister in Portland.

Miss Elaine Pangborn is spending her vacation at Rockaway. Miss Pangborn was formerly a Tillamook girl but now makes her home at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heisel are moving to Garibaldi this week where Mr. Heisel has charge of the Ford garage.

Mrs. Fred Edwards and children and Mrs. Guy Grames and children visited with Mrs. Metzke at Rockaway Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Moffett of Nehalem was in town Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Davies of Rockaway was shopping in the city Saturday.

L. L. Hays is moving his family to Portland this week. Mr. Hays has been employed in the sawmill here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. King are visiting their sons Bert and Clint and daughters Mrs. Ira Smith and Mrs. H. C. Crenshaw for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Reeher and daughter and Mrs. Reeher's sister Miss Edith Johnson who is visiting them from LaCrosse, Kansas, left Tuesday morning for Tacoma to attend the furniture manufacturers exposition. They will also drive to Seattle to see the Pagan Americanus and to visit relatives.

Mrs. Rose Ringwood of Gaston, Kansas is spending a month with her brother F. M. Trout who lives east of town.

Mrs. Don Ellis was a Garibaldi shopper in the city last week.

Mrs. Harry Ditter was in town Monday from the big mill town on the bay.

Mrs. Allison visited the last of the week with her brother Chas. McKillop and family at Cloverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Erskine spent Sunday at the W. B. Honey home at Hebo.

Captain Dodge and family returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Edwards spent Sunday with relatives at Sandlake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barriek and son and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morrison and children were Sunday visitors at Occaside.

N. W. Barker is reported as being seriously ill at his home. But little hope is given for his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Fordney of Beaverton and daughter Mrs. Will Janin and her son Billy of Montana are visiting at the F. S. Armentrout home in the city. They will spend a few days at Oceanside before returning home.

Mrs. J. F. Latham, who has been for the past two months visiting with her son John Steinbach and family left Monday morning for her home in Salem.

Henry Crenshaw and family left last Tuesday for a weeks trip through western Washington. They will stop in Seattle for a day or two and will enjoy the pleasures of camp life while on the trip.

Velva Carter of this city sustained a painful injury one day this week when she slid off a load of hay at the Leverick barn. A bone of the forearm was broken near the elbow. She was taken to the Boals hospital for treatment.

Mrs. F. R. Beals was in the city Tuesday from her summer home at Pacific City.

Clara Mills of this city was married in Portland last Saturday to Earl Hickok, the Rev. Villers of the White Temple Baptist church officiating. The newly weds are spending a few days in Tillamook. Mr. Hickok is on a furlough from the battleship New York and will sail from Bremerton, Wash.,

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. York were visitors in the city from Mohler Saturday.

Miss Helen Wheeler who has been pianist at the Gem theatre for several months past, has given up her work here and returned to her home at Vancouver. Miss Wheeler will be missed here as she was prominent in musical circles in the city.

Mrs. W. A. High and children were in town last week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt. Mrs. High is from Cloverdale where her husband has a drugstore.

Mrs. Jefferies recently purchased the millinery store of Miss Patterson and is having the interior refurnished.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pennington left Wednesday morning for an outing on the Kilchis river.

Miss Una Emerson accompanied her mother to Forest Grove last week and after visiting there for a few days returned here Friday to resume her work at the Penney store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Detje of Portland are visiting at the homes of Mrs. R. W. Mills and Mrs. Blum at Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Chas. Brown of this city is entertaining her mother Mrs. Bartges and Miss Frances Bartges, her sister this week who arrived early this week. Mrs. Brown will accompany her mother and sister back to Ashland when they return after a few days visit here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bennett of this city, July 20, a 10 pound son.

hearse is a product of the Meteor Car Co., of Piqua, Ohio. Mr. Henkle had it unloaded from the car in which it arrived from the east and then drove it to this city.

Harry Ely of Hemlock had business in Tillamook last Tuesday.

Don Griswold of San Diego, Cal., and wife surprised Mr. Griswold's sister Mrs. Emil Heusser last Saturday when they arrived at the Heusser home. The brother and sister had not met before for a period of 11 years. Mr. Griswold was chief electrician on a submarine during the late war, and was in European waters and had some exciting experiences during that time. He has charge of the battery station at the Ford garage and has located permanently in this city.

Rollie Watson and Buel Woods one day recently took an automobile trip into the Blaine country over one road that had not been traveled, it is said, by automobile for four years. The going was very rough but the trip was made without mishap.

Ira W. White, city recorder, who has been in a Portland hospital for nearly four months suffering with an injured foot, returned home last Saturday night and has assumed his duties as city recorder. John Mathers who has been acting as city recorder during Mr. White's absence, has moved back to his own office.

Prof. Turnbull returned Friday from Eugene for a couple of days, returning to Eugene Sunday where he is attending summer school.

Up near Haddon on the 15th inst. James Starr of Mohler backed into an auto owned and driven by H. T. Bots of this city and broke the right hand fender of Mr. Bots machine, besides inflicting other damage. No one was hurt.

H. S. Mann and family returned Saturday from a trip to Olympia, Washington, where they visited relatives of Mr. Mann. They were gone several days.

A fine Jersey cow belonging to Gus Peterson of the Miami Valley dairy, cut one of her teats badly Monday morning on barb wire and a veterinarian was called to take some stitches.

Mrs. S. F. Pine, mother of county agent W. D. Pine of this city, has joined her husband at this place, and will remain here until the first of August, when the father and mother will start back for their home in Berkeley, California.

F. H. Haradon, wife and daughter were in the city Friday from Astoria. Mr. Haradon represents the Elmore estate and while here went down to Oretown to look over the Nestucca cannery, which is owned by the estate.

News was received by relatives near this city the latter part of last week of the death of Mildred Johnson, formerly of this county, in Riverside, California of tuberculosis on Tuesday of last week. Deceased was the daughter of Lewis Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach returned July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Harriett DeFord left Tuesday for a few days visit in Portland.

Lee Garrison, who at one time conducted a picture show at this place and who recently sold his shows at Bay City and Garibaldi was in the city one day this week. He leaves soon for Coos county where he will visit relatives and will later go to Los Angeles where he has accepted a position with a large film producing company.

C. M. Hadley and family left for a tour of western Washington one day this week. They expect to be back the latter part of this week.

R. N. Henkle of this city, funeral director went out to Portland Saturday and returned home Sunday with a fine new up-to-date hearse. The hearse is a product of the Meteor Car Co., of Piqua, Ohio. Mr. Henkle had it unloaded from the car in which it arrived from the east and then drove it to this city.

Harry Ely of Hemlock had business in Tillamook last Tuesday.

Don Griswold of San Diego, Cal., and wife surprised Mr. Griswold's sister Mrs. Emil Heusser last Saturday when they arrived at the Heusser home. The brother and sister had not met before for a period of 11 years. Mr. Griswold was chief electrician on a submarine during the late war, and was in European waters and had some exciting experiences during that time. He has charge of the battery station at the Ford garage and has located permanently in this city.

Rollie Watson and Buel Woods one day recently took an automobile trip into the Blaine country over one road that had not been traveled, it is said, by automobile for four years. The going was very rough but the trip was made without mishap.

Ira W. White, city recorder, who has been in a Portland hospital for nearly four months suffering with an injured foot, returned home last Saturday night and has assumed his duties as city recorder. John Mathers who has been acting as city recorder during Mr. White's absence, has moved back to his own office.

Prof. Turnbull returned Friday from Eugene for a couple of days, returning to Eugene Sunday where he is attending summer school.

Up near Haddon on the 15th inst. James Starr of Mohler backed into an auto owned and driven by H. T. Bots of this city and broke the right hand fender of Mr. Bots machine, besides inflicting other damage. No one was hurt.

H. S. Mann and family returned Saturday from a trip to Olympia, Washington, where they visited relatives of Mr. Mann. They were gone several days.

A fine Jersey cow belonging to Gus Peterson of the Miami Valley dairy, cut one of her teats badly Monday morning on barb wire and a veterinarian was called to take some stitches.

Mrs. S. F. Pine, mother of county agent W. D. Pine of this city, has joined her husband at this place, and will remain here until the first of August, when the father and mother will start back for their home in Berkeley, California.

F. H. Haradon, wife and daughter were in the city Friday from Astoria. Mr. Haradon represents the Elmore estate and while here went down to Oretown to look over the Nestucca cannery, which is owned by the estate.

News was received by relatives near this city the latter part of last week of the death of Mildred Johnson, formerly of this county, in Riverside, California of tuberculosis on Tuesday of last week. Deceased was the daughter of Lewis Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach returned July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Helen Wheeler who has been pianist at the Gem theatre for several months past, has given up her work here and returned to her home at Vancouver. Miss Wheeler will be missed here as she was prominent in musical circles in the city.

Mrs. W. A. High and children were in town last week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt. Mrs. High is from Cloverdale where her husband has a drugstore.

Mrs. Jefferies recently purchased the millinery store of Miss Patterson and is having the interior refurnished.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pennington left Wednesday morning for an outing on the Kilchis river.

Miss Una Emerson accompanied her mother to Forest Grove last week and after visiting there for a few days returned here Friday to resume her work at the Penney store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Detje of Portland are visiting at the homes of Mrs. R. W. Mills and Mrs. Blum at Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Chas. Brown of this city is entertaining her mother Mrs. Bartges and Miss Frances Bartges, her sister this week who arrived early this week. Mrs. Brown will accompany her mother and sister back to Ashland when they return after a few days visit here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bennett of this city, July 20, a 10 pound son.

H. Bryans and family left today for a two weeks vacation. They will visit Grants Pass, the Oregon caves, Crater lake and return via Bend and the Deschutes valley to Portland.

Tom Webber, a loader at the Coats camp received a broken leg on the 17th inst. He had hooked on to a log and as the line became taut it threw a pole that it had picked up against his leg with the above result. He was brought to the Boals hospital for attention.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Harriett DeFord left Tuesday for a few days visit in Portland.

Lee Garrison, who at one time conducted a picture show at this place and who recently sold his shows at Bay City and Garibaldi was in the city one day this week. He leaves soon for Coos county where he will visit relatives and will later go to Los Angeles where he has accepted a position with a large film producing company.

C. M. Hadley and family left for a tour of western Washington one day this week. They expect to be back the latter part of this week.

R. N. Henkle of this city, funeral director went out to Portland Saturday and returned home Sunday with a fine new up-to-date hearse. The hearse is a product of the Meteor Car Co., of Piqua, Ohio. Mr. Henkle had it unloaded from the car in which it arrived from the east and then drove it to this city.

Harry Ely of Hemlock had business in Tillamook last Tuesday.

Don Griswold of San Diego, Cal., and wife surprised Mr. Griswold's sister Mrs. Emil Heusser last Saturday when they arrived at the Heusser home. The brother and sister had not met before for a period of 11 years. Mr. Griswold was chief electrician on a submarine during the late war, and was in European waters and had some exciting experiences during that time. He has charge of the battery station at the Ford garage and has located permanently in this city.

Rollie Watson and Buel Woods one day recently took an automobile trip into the Blaine country over one road that had not been traveled, it is said, by automobile for four years. The going was very rough but the trip was made without mishap.

Ira W. White, city recorder, who has been in a Portland hospital for nearly four months suffering with an injured foot, returned home last Saturday night and has assumed his duties as city recorder. John Mathers who has been acting as city recorder during Mr. White's absence, has moved back to his own office.

Prof. Turnbull returned Friday from Eugene for a couple of days, returning to Eugene Sunday where he is attending summer school.

Up near Haddon on the 15th inst. James Starr of Mohler backed into an auto owned and driven by H. T. Bots of this city and broke the right hand fender of Mr. Bots machine, besides inflicting other damage. No one was hurt.

H. S. Mann and family returned Saturday from a trip to Olympia, Washington, where they visited relatives of Mr. Mann. They were gone several days.

A fine Jersey cow belonging to Gus Peterson of the Miami Valley dairy, cut one of her teats badly Monday morning on barb wire and a veterinarian was called to take some stitches.

Mrs. S. F. Pine, mother of county agent W. D. Pine of this city, has joined her husband at this place, and will remain here until the first of August, when the father and mother will start back for their home in Berkeley, California.

F. H. Haradon, wife and daughter were in the city Friday from Astoria. Mr. Haradon represents the Elmore estate and while here went down to Oretown to look over the Nestucca cannery, which is owned by the estate.

News was received by relatives near this city the latter part of last week of the death of Mildred Johnson, formerly of this county, in Riverside, California of tuberculosis on Tuesday of last week. Deceased was the daughter of Lewis Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach returned July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Helen Wheeler who has been pianist at the Gem theatre for several months past, has given up her work here and returned to her home at Vancouver. Miss Wheeler will be missed here as she was prominent in musical circles in the city.

Mrs. W. A. High and children were in town last week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt. Mrs. High is from Cloverdale where her husband has a drugstore.

Mrs. Jefferies recently purchased the millinery store of Miss Patterson and is having the interior refurnished.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pennington left Wednesday morning for an outing on the Kilchis river.

Miss Una Emerson accompanied her mother to Forest Grove last week and after visiting there for a few days returned here Friday to resume her work at the Penney store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Detje of Portland are visiting at the homes of Mrs. R. W. Mills and Mrs. Blum at Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Chas. Brown of this city is entertaining her mother Mrs. Bartges and Miss Frances Bartges, her sister this week who arrived early this week. Mrs. Brown will accompany her mother and sister back to Ashland when they return after a few days visit here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bennett of this city, July 20, a 10 pound son.

H. Bryans and family left today for a two weeks vacation. They will visit Grants Pass, the Oregon caves, Crater lake and return via Bend and the Deschutes valley to Portland.

Tom Webber, a loader at the Coats camp received a broken leg on the 17th inst. He had hooked on to a log and as the line became taut it threw a pole that it had picked up against his leg with the above result. He was brought to the Boals hospital for attention.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Harriett DeFord left Tuesday for a few days visit in Portland.

Lee Garrison, who at one time conducted a picture show at this place and who recently sold his shows at Bay City and Garibaldi was in the city one day this week. He leaves soon for Coos county where he will visit relatives and will later go to Los Angeles where he has accepted a position with a large film producing company.

C. M. Hadley and family left for a tour of western Washington one day this week. They expect to be back the latter part of this week.

R. N. Henkle of this city, funeral director went out to Portland Saturday and returned home Sunday with a fine new up-to-date hearse. The hearse is a product of the Meteor Car Co., of Piqua, Ohio. Mr. Henkle had it unloaded from the car in which it arrived from the east and then drove it to this city.

Harry Ely of Hemlock had business in Tillamook last Tuesday.

Don Griswold of San Diego, Cal., and wife surprised Mr. Griswold's sister Mrs. Emil Heusser last Saturday when they arrived at the Heusser home. The brother and sister had not met before for a period of 11 years. Mr. Griswold was chief electrician on a submarine during the late war, and was in European waters and had some exciting experiences during that time. He has charge of the battery station at the Ford garage and has located permanently in this city.

Rollie Watson and Buel Woods one day recently took an automobile trip into the Blaine country over one road that had not been traveled, it is said, by automobile for four years. The going was very rough but the trip was made without mishap.

Ira W. White, city recorder, who has been in a Portland hospital for nearly four months suffering with an injured foot, returned home last Saturday night and has assumed his duties as city recorder. John Mathers who has been acting as city recorder during Mr. White's absence, has moved back to his own office.

Prof. Turnbull returned Friday from Eugene for a couple of days, returning to Eugene Sunday where he is attending summer school.

Up near Haddon on the 15th inst. James Starr of Mohler backed into an auto owned and driven by H. T. Bots of this city and broke the right hand fender of Mr. Bots machine, besides inflicting other damage. No one was hurt.

H. S. Mann and family returned Saturday from a trip to Olympia, Washington, where they visited relatives of Mr. Mann. They were gone several days.

A fine Jersey cow belonging to Gus Peterson of the Miami Valley dairy, cut one of her teats badly Monday morning on barb wire and a veterinarian was called to take some stitches.

Mrs. S. F. Pine, mother of county agent W. D. Pine of this city, has joined her husband at this place, and will remain here until the first of August, when the father and mother will start back for their home in Berkeley, California.

F. H. Haradon, wife and daughter were in the city Friday from Astoria. Mr. Haradon represents the Elmore estate and while here went down to Oretown to look over the Nestucca cannery, which is owned by the estate.

News was received by relatives near this city the latter part of last week of the death of Mildred Johnson, formerly of this county, in Riverside, California of tuberculosis on Tuesday of last week. Deceased was the daughter of Lewis Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach returned July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Helen Wheeler who has been pianist at the Gem theatre for several months past, has given up her work here and returned to her home at Vancouver. Miss Wheeler will be missed here as she was prominent in musical circles in the city.

Mrs. W. A. High and children were in town last week visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt. Mrs. High is from Cloverdale where her husband has a drugstore.

Mrs. Jefferies recently purchased the millinery store of Miss Patterson and is having the interior refurnished.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pennington left Wednesday morning for an outing on the Kilchis river.

Miss Una Emerson accompanied her mother to Forest Grove last week and after visiting there for a few days returned here Friday to resume her work at the Penney store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Detje of Portland are visiting at the homes of Mrs. R. W. Mills and Mrs. Blum at Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Chas. Brown of this city is entertaining her mother Mrs. Bartges and Miss Frances Bartges, her sister this week who arrived early this week. Mrs. Brown will accompany her mother and sister back to Ashland when they return after a few days visit here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bennett of this city, July 20, a 10 pound son.

H. Bryans and family left today for a two weeks vacation. They will visit Grants Pass, the Oregon caves, Crater lake and return via Bend and the Deschutes valley to Portland.

Tom Webber, a loader at the Coats camp received a broken leg on the 17th inst. He had hooked on to a log and as the line became taut it threw a pole that it had picked up against his leg with the above result. He was brought to the Boals hospital for attention.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one day this week which required the services of a physician.

Ray Snyder and family returned Tuesday from a two weeks trip to valley points.

Miss Harriett DeFord left Tuesday for a few days visit in Portland.

Lee Garrison, who at one time conducted a picture show at this place and who recently sold his shows at Bay City and Garibaldi was in the city one day this week. He leaves soon for Coos county where he will visit relatives and will later go to Los Angeles where he has accepted a position with a large film producing company.

C. M. Hadley and family left for a tour of western Washington one day this week. They expect to be back the latter part of this week.

R. N. Henkle of this city, funeral director went out to Portland Saturday and returned home Sunday with a fine new up-to-date hearse. The hearse is a product of the Meteor Car Co., of Piqua, Ohio. Mr. Henkle had it unloaded from the car in which it arrived from the east and then drove it to this city.

Harry Ely of Hemlock had business in Tillamook last Tuesday.

Don Griswold of San Diego, Cal., and wife surprised Mr. Griswold's sister Mrs. Emil Heusser last Saturday when they arrived at the Heusser home. The brother and sister had not met before for a period of 11 years. Mr. Griswold was chief electrician on a submarine during the late war, and was in European waters and had some exciting experiences during that time. He has charge of the battery station at the Ford garage and has located permanently in this city.

Rollie Watson and Buel Woods one day recently took an automobile trip into the Blaine country over one road that had not been traveled, it is said, by automobile for four years. The going was very rough but the trip was made without mishap.

Ira W. White, city recorder, who has been in a Portland hospital for nearly four months suffering with an injured foot, returned home last Saturday night and has assumed his duties as city recorder. John Mathers who has been acting as city recorder during Mr. White's absence, has moved back to his own office.

Prof. Turnbull returned Friday from Eugene for a couple of days, returning to Eugene Sunday where he is attending summer school.

Up near Haddon on the 15th inst. James Starr of Mohler backed into an auto owned and driven by H. T. Bots of this city and broke the right hand fender of Mr. Bots machine, besides inflicting other damage. No one was hurt.

H. S. Mann and family returned Saturday from a trip to Olympia, Washington, where they visited relatives of Mr. Mann. They were gone several days.

A fine Jersey cow belonging to Gus Peterson of the Miami Valley dairy, cut one of her teats badly Monday morning on barb wire and a veterinarian was called to take some stitches.

Mrs. S. F. Pine, mother of county agent W. D. Pine of this city, has joined her husband at this place, and will remain here until the first of August, when the father and mother will start back for their home in Berkeley, California.

F. H. Haradon, wife and daughter were in the city Friday from Astoria. Mr. Haradon represents the Elmore estate and while here went down to Oretown to look over the Nestucca cannery, which is owned by the estate.

News was received by relatives near this city the latter part of last week of the death of Mildred Johnson, formerly of this county, in Riverside, California of tuberculosis on Tuesday of last week. Deceased was the daughter of Lewis Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leach returned July 18, a son.

John Proctor of Pleasant valley was kicked by a horse last Sunday and rendered unconscious for some time. Dr. Boals was called and attended to the man's injuries and he is reported as being out of danger.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerson of this city received a bad cut on the arm while playing one