Minnville News-Reporter.

Adolph Schild, prominent Tillamook county dairyman, was in town Thursday on his way to the farm of his brother-in-law, H. Staehli, north of town, where he will join his wife for a week's visit.

Three of the teachers for the coming year have been selected. A Mr. Barnes will be principal, Miss Blanchard of Tillamook, and Mrs. Pearl Wood of Sheridan, have been re-elected.—Polk County Itemizer.

The eyes of Oregon newspaper men and women will be fixed on Tillamook from now on. It was decided at the recent state editorial meeting at Hood River to go next year to Tillamook which some one designates the land of "ocean breeze, big trees and Tillamook cheese."

The Tillamook Headlight refers to the prospect of next years convention as follows:

"The State Editorial association which met at Hood River in its closing hours voted to hold the next session of the association in Tillamook. By the time they arrive next year the big armory auditorium should be ready to receive them. The coming of the association means that at least 200 newspapermen and the families of the married members will be present sometime in July, 1924. Tillamook has ample chances for the entertainment of such a body of visitors outside of its own resources. The benches will be a great attraction, which the average editor and his family will appreciate. In addition to the editorial association we are to be host to the Elks grand lodge which meets here sometime in the early summer and a couple thousand people will doubtless be present on that occasion."—Gresham Outlook.

Jesse Edward's father, of Newberg, is visiting his son Senator C. J. Edwards at Tillamook City.—McMinnville News-Reporter.

We understand Miss Esma Mixter has resigned her position as instructor in the High school and accepted a similar position in Tillamook. Newport's loss is Tillamook's gain and we regret to announce her intention of going.—Yaquina Bay Times.

"GONE, REMOVED OR DEAD?"

Each year finds many voters failing to answer "aye" to the roll call in the precinct where they formerly voted. Some remove, others are gone and still others die, so that gaps are made in the poll books.

To remedy this matter, County Clerk Brimhall is sending out a list of the voters of each precinct to some person in that bailiwick who is asked to mark the gone, removed and dead, and in turn the clerk will report the absentees to the secretary of state thus saving postage expense before the elections.

That's real food anytime—but on camping and fishing trips, it's the finest food that money can buy.

FRYE'S DELICIOUS BACON fits in naturally when you're on an outdoor trip. It's mild, tender, sweet as a bit of honey—made of choice young pork. Try it once and you will never go on a trip without it.
