

PERSONAL MENTION

C. C. Dempsey wife and child of Portland arrived here last Friday night and will spend a few days in Tillamook, making two trips to the beach. Mr. Dempsey is in the retail cigar business in Portland, and his parents came to Oregon in 1844 settling in Polk county.

Buddy and Beulah Moulton, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moulton, submitted to an operation for the removal of their tonsils one day the latter part of last week at the Merrick hospital, Dr. Shearer performing the operation.

Warren Dunn of Dallas was over here the latter part of last week visiting at the A. H. Harris home. He will remain several days.

Mrs. Ed. Berry and children returned to Portland after a month's visit here with Mr. Berry.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Morning subject: "What is expected of the church and its members." Evening topic is: "Vision." Sojourners are invited to worship with us.

out the valley during the season when the first cutting of clover was being cut damaged considerable of the hay. The oats and vetch was cut after the rain and most of this shows defects in that it was too ripe when cut.

For the above reason the association expects to deal almost exclusively in alfalfa hay, as it seems that the dairymen would get more value for their money in the alfalfa than any of the valley hay.

Butter fat prices are ranging from 57c to 65c, depending upon the size of the factory and whether or not the whey was being skimmed. The highest price, 65c, is paid by the Tillamook creamery in the month of June. It is expected that July prices will probably range 1c or 2c under the June price for butter fat, but as only part of the July cheese has been sold thus far the matter of July butter fat prices is still indefinite.

Checks for June milk will be given out at the various factories on Saturday, August 11, as Friday is a legal holiday and the banks will consequently not be open.

COUNTY FAIR PLANS

other methods that have resulted in our present fine dairy herds.

Jack Rupp of Mohler, will be on the grounds shortly after the 15th of the month and will have them in fine condition for the fair.

County Superintendent Geo. B. Lamb, states that the exhibits of school work promise to be extra good this year, and that the schools of the county will engage in good natured rivalry in their exhibits, so that the best will be brought out in all departments of the work. The cooking and other clubs will be well represented this year, also the culinary, textile, floricultural, club work, and art departments, promise hearty co-operation.

The buildings on the grounds have lately been whitewashed, including the stock barns and sheds and poultry departments. While much preparatory work remains to be done, it will soon assume shape when work is actively started. Arrangements are being made by Manager Pine for other attractions than those mentioned and they will be given later.

From assurances received, it is believed that there will be a record breaking attendance at the fair from all parts of the county. Remember the dates and plan to come and bring the family and make of it a pleasing holiday occasion.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

ture show, was present, and asked for a restricted parking district of 45 feet in front of the new picture show room in the Beals building fronting on Second avenue.

On motion the city attorney was instructed to draw an amendment to the traffic ordinance, giving business men the right to place "No Parking" signs in front of their stores or other places of business.

Attention was called to an avenue of the city where autos are parked all night without tail lights on both sides of an avenue just outside of the fire limits. It was said that a state law makes this a misdemeanor. It was objected to as being dangerous to moving vehicles at night and also that it would interfere with the fire engine in case of a fire.

Partridge & Morrison of the picture show, asked for city legislation restricting tent shows from operating in the city for more than one week at a time inside the city. No action was taken by the council.

Owing to the fact that certain vacant property in the city is covered with unsightly debris, and that vines obstruct the sidewalks it was ordered that owners be notified to clean up their lots.

Councilman Lee Doty presented his resignation which was accepted. Mr. Doty gave as his sole reason the fact that he had recently discovered in the postal regulations that a post office employee is forbidden to hold municipal office, while in the employ of the government. The terms of the council were tendered Mr. Doty for his past service to the city.

Councilman Henderson stated that the lien dockets of the city were in bad shape and that "dozens of people in the city were assessed on wrong property." He also stated that "in his opinion, the present city attorney was not big enough for the job, and thought that another lawyer of the city should be appointed." This precipitated a discussion in which Messrs. Barriek & Hall and Judge Henderson participated. The mayor finally stated that he would not make any changes in that office, whereupon Councilman Henderson resigned, which resignation was accepted by the council.

Councilman Henderson stated before his resignation that the mayor had signed documents which he, as chairman of the council was authorized by the charter to sign. The mayor said that he had precedent for so doing and cited previous councils in support of his action. The mayor then stated that the council had had two or three special meetings which were illegal because he had not presided as mayor. One or two councilmen said that they did not consider that the meetings held were special meetings, but conferences looking to future action.

In the closing hours of the session a resolution was passed guaranteeing a certain amount of funds now necessary to secure quick action on the Armory building and which it is expected will be raised by subscription in this county.

Just before adjournment, Councilman Frank Conover took occasion to warn "the Headlight and the other paper, that if they published everything that occurs in the council meeting, that he would stop his subscription to both papers." The mayor chipped in and said in effect that "there had been too much of this. We don't want the impression to get out that this council is not working in harmony. This council has been misquoted on another matter by a newspaper, etc."
