

PERSONAL MENTION

R. Hoffaber and wife of Tigard, Ore., were in the city Friday last, to look over the dairy interest of the county, with a view to engaging in that business, provided they can make an exchange of property they have for dairy land here. They are much pleased with this section of the county and are free to say that they would like to make this their home.

MRS. MAY FRANCES DREW

Mrs. May Frances Drew of this city, and for thirty seven years a resident of this county, died at her residence at the corner of 10th street and Stillwell avenue Monday night some time between nine and eleven o'clock. Relatives who returned to the house failed to awaken her at about 11 o'clock and hurriedly sent for a physician, who confirmed the worst fears of the family. Death had come peacefully. Deceased had been in poor health for some time past.

May Frances Leach, the daughter of Henry Deach and May Cone Leach was born in Trinity county, California, on June 24th, 1861, at the beginning of the great Civil war. At the age of seven her parents removed to Mendocino, county, California, where she lived until after her marriage to Calif Newton Drew on November 29th, 1883. The Drews came to Oregon in April, 1886, and settled in Tillamook county, living near the Tillamook river for about four years, when they settled in Tillamook City, where they have lived ever since.

Besides her husband, she is survived by the following children: Howard W. Drew of Pendleton, Oregon, Frances M. Steinbach and Lelia Doty of Tillamook. Grandchildren are: Lucia Murial, Wayne Wiley and John D. Steinbach and her brothers are Morris F. Leach and J. L. Jones, both of this city.

Deceased had been a Christian all her life, and at the time of her death was a member of the First Christian church of Tillamook. She also was a member of the Eastern Star and the Neighbors of Woodcraft.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church at 2 o'clock yesterday, with interment following in the Odd Fellows cemetery. The funeral was one of the largest in the history of the county, and many floral tributes were by old pioneer friends. The societies to which she belonged in life, were also active in their condolence and other expressions of regard for the deceased.

OLD FRIENDS FROM IOWA MEET

Thirty five years ago, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Magarrell of this city lived in southeastern Iowa, and about that time moved to Oregon. Later on, in the same Iowa neighborhood, also came W. Handley, and old neighbor of the county, and settled in Washington county. Learning that the Magarrells were living here, Mr. Handley came over to Tillamook last Wednesday and at this writing is a guest of his old neighbors of the Mississippi valley state. While both are frosty on the head, they nevertheless have much to talk about concerning the days of the past, when the frost glistened on the pumpkins in the fall of the year, and corn shucking was the order of the Autumn days.

FREIGHT RATES REDUCED

Ray Grate, local Southern Pacific agent, reports that he is in receipt of advices that the rate on salt in car loads, minimum weight of 40,000 pounds from Portland, has been reduced, effective August 30. The new rate is 20 cents per hundred pounds and is a reduction of 9 1-2 cents.

Recently Secretary Haberlach of the creamery associ'n took up with the railroad company the reduction of the freight rate on this commodity and the change was brought about.

YOUEL RETURNS TO CITY

Returning on a vacation trip after an absence of several years, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Youel and son spent a few days in the city this week. Mr. Youel will be remembered as a former pastor of the Presbyterian church here prior to the war. He enlisted in the 10th Company, Oregon Coast Artillery and left Tillamook with that organization in July 1917. Mr. Youel is now in charge of the Presbyterian church at Dallas.
