

SPECIAL FAIR EDITION

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1923

FREE DISTRIBUTION

CATTLE JUDGING IS NOW FINISHED

Wednesday saw an increased attendance at the fair. Estimates on attendance ran from 1800 to 2,000 people up to five o'clock today. Up to five o'clock Wednesday evening, $655 were received at the gate in cash. It is believed that 3,000 people will attend the fair today, as this is expected to be the banner day.

The work of judging cattle was finished yesterday. Holstein champions were: Senior champion bull, F. R. Beals, Sir Bessie Fayne De Kol; Junior champion bull, F. R. Beals, unnamed; senior champion cow, F. R. Beals, Lady Dora Aggie Pontiac; junior champion cow, also both grand champions.

Guernsey champions were: senior champion bull, Homer Mason's Beauty, IXL of the Forgettes Royal Knight 88416; junior champion bull, Pius Christainsen's Tillamook Red Wing; senior champion cow, Cottonwood Farm's Gail of Sequoia 104659; junior champion cow, Jeff Wallace's Lady of Few Acres 140721; grand champion bull Homer Mason's Beauty IXL of the Forgette Royal Knight 88416; grand champion cow, Cottonwood Farm's Gail of Sequoia 104, 659.

In the Poultry department John Hoffman had the largest exhibit. He is credited with the best bird in the show this year, having received special on his Rhode Island Red rooster. The list of prizes for the season was not available yesterday. The birds were judged by Prof. Lunn of O. A. C. Joe Staseck took blue ribbons on his pen of pure bred Cheshire hogs. In Lance received blue ribbons on his individuals in his exhibit of Chester Whites. Mrs. Joe Donaldson also took premiums on her pen of Chester Whites.

The free entertainment was fully up to the expectations of the big crowd last night. A large number was present at night. Today is Tillamook day, and there will be a closing up in the afternoon of the business houses when everybody will be out to the fair in force.

Besides the varied program of Coetello's Flying circus, which by this time has become a favorite with Tillamook people, the picture show will put on tonight "The Man of Action" featuring Douglas McLean. Also two reels of a Buster Keaton comedy. The shows have been especially good thus far and it is believed that tonight's production will be fully up to the standard.

LACK OF FRESH WATER HARD ON FISH FRY

The miniature fish hatchery established as an exhibit at the fair this year was discontinued on account of water pressure enough to keep the small fish alive. Many thousands of the small fry died during the first day and Superintendent Pollock of the Gold Creek hatchery, who had the display in charge, discontinued his show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardney Richardson of Pendleton, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Ringo.

Mrs. Edna Rinehart, who has been ill at a local hospital, is recovering nicely.

MRS. OLIVE F. TODD DIED LAST NIGHT

Died in this city, after a lingering illness, September 12, 1923, Mrs. Olive Ford Todd, aged 55 years. Olive Ford was born in Ohio, July 28, 1868, and removed to California with her parents when a child. Was married to P. W. Todd in Cloverdale, California, Oct. 25, 1887. Removed to Oregon in 1895, locating at McMinnville. In 1895 the Todds came to Tillamook, where they resided up to the time of her death. Deceased was a member of the Christian church of this city, and had a wide circle of friends. She is survived by Prince W. Todd, the widower, and three daughters, as follows: Mrs. Ethel Hayes, Mrs. Alice Hunter and Miss Elaine Todd. Funeral arrangements will be made later. The services will be held in the Christian church. Date of interment and funeral will be announced later.

FIRST LOCAL DAILY MEETS WITH SUCCESS

The first two editions of the fair daily which the Headlight has been publishing met with instant success. Hundreds of visitors to the fair eagerly waited for the papers each morning and perused the contents. Difficulty in obtaining accurate reports regarding some of the cattle awards and other items of interest caused the paper to be held up the first two days.

E. L. Westover, western representative for the American Guernsey cattle club, is here from Portland on business connected with the fair.

In spite of the threatening weather quite a crowd attended the opening of the fair Tuesday. From indications it is expected that a record crowd will be here this year.

TILLAMOOK PEOPLE HAVE SPECIAL DAY

Today is Tillamook day at the tenth annual Tillamook County Fair. At one o'clock all business houses in the city are expected to close and the business men of the town will spend the afternoon, or at least part of it, taking in the fair exhibits.

The Kiwanis will hold their weekly luncheon at the fair grounds this time as a mark of appreciation of what is going on, and today is expected to see the record crowd of the week.

The moving picture show and the free circus given preceding it have been attracting great crowds of appreciative youngsters and grown-ups. The grand stand has been filled on both occasions where these two features have been shown.

Tomorrow night there will be no show, but the fair board has arranged for a speaker who will be followed by a demonstration of a modern war problem, worked out by a platoon from Company K, 162d Infantry showing the methods of attack in warfare. This is expected to draw a large crowd to the grandstand.

Friday everyone will pull up stakes and go back to every day life after having seen one of the most successful fairs ever held in the state of Oregon.

The picture film shown in the grand stand last night attracted a large crowd. A feature of even greater interest is promised for this evening.

The fair grounds seems to be fairly well supplied with concessions. In fact, there are nearly one eating stand for every three people attending the exposition.

Miss Wanda Nelson was a Tillamook visitor last Saturday, motoring in from McMinnville.

JUDGING JERSEY CATTLE HAS BEEN FINISHED

"St. Mawes Cherry," belonging to Joe Rosche, has been proclaimed the grand champion bull of the Jersey class at the fair this year. "Novems' Sunrise Bell" belonging to G. H. Graves, was awarded the ribbon for the grand champion Jersey cow.

L. C. Daniels young bull "Pretty Lady's Lad," was judged junior champion bull, and "Gay Girl's Lily," same owner, is junior champion cow.

The Boys and Girls calf clubs made some exceptional showings this year and a number of fine young animals were shown for the first time.

TWO HEADED SNAKE DRAWS ATTENTION

A tiny specimen of a two headed snake has been drawing much attention in the main fair building. The snake is preserved in a bottle and is displayed near the north door of the main building.

R. U. Moore and family who have been visiting here for some days past with Alex Watt and family, left Wednesday for Cloverdale, where they will visit with Will High and family, and then return to their home in Salem, they having moved from Eugene to Salem recently.

Wm. Shulmerich, Washington county Jersey expert, is attending the fair as a judge of the Jersey breed.

Another old-timer returned to Tillamook for a visit this week, was M. Turney of California who is here staying with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Bester and family. It has been 27 years since Mr. Turney last saw this city.

SEVERAL SENTENCED BY COURT THIS A.M.

Circuit Court adjourned at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon for the term. Judge Bagley's last act was to sentence a batch of bootleggers whose fines jointly amounted to $2,000, all of which will go to the county but 25 per cent, which the state gets, according to a provision made by the last legislature.

The Aufdermauer boys, convicted of bootlegging plead guilty on three indictments. They will have to each pay $500 in cash as a fine; failure to do so means 750 days in jail, besides individual sentences of 18 months in jail. They were given five days to raise the money, which their father probably will pay.

Arlin Kinney, bootlegger, plead guilty, and was fined $1500 on a total of three counts. He was paroled to raise $500 in cash, failing he will have to serve 750 days in addition to an 18 months sentence.

Breneman, bootlegger, was fined $500 with six months in jail; paroled upon payment of $100, as to balance of fine and jail sentence; given 50 days to raise the money by hard work; otherwise the sentence runs its full length.

Gilfillian and wife plead guilty to liquor charges: Each was fined $500 and six months in the county jail; Gilfillian paroled upon payment of $500 in cash and as to jail sentence; wife paroled on both sentences, pending good behavior.

Geo. Russell plead guilty to driving an auto while intoxicated; fined $50.

The grand jury is still grinding. The trial jury was dismissed for the term on Wednesday last.

Mrs. A. E. Wiedman underwent an operation at a local hospital this week for the removal of her tonsils.

T. T. Light of Lodi, Cal., was a visitor at the fair this week. He and Mrs. Light are in the county visiting some of their old friends here, the Lights having lived here about 30 years ago.

Forest L. Howard, chiropractor formerly of Tillamook but now practicing in Portland made a record breaking drive from the metropolis to Wheeler last Saturday in response to a call to attend Mrs. Christie Downer who was taken seriously ill at the beach. Mrs. Downer showed considerable improvement Sunday.

PHENOMENAL SCORE IS MADE IN CHEESE

Norman Christensen was awarded a score of 99 on the cheese exhibited by him at the fair this year. This score is considered as phenomenal. Other scores in cheese are Floyd Culbertson 96, Hugh Barber 95 3-4, Marion Hopkins 95 1-2, Reed Ferris 95, Elmer Hopkins 94 1-2, Howard Bunn 94, A. Schlappi 94, Harry Hogan 93 1-2 and August Grab 93.

Will Ralieg of Pacific City, who has followed fishing for many years on Nestucca bay, was in the city Wednesday last. He states that there is a good run of Chinooks now in that bay, with a few Silversides coming in now. He has been a resident of the Woods section for the past 23 years.
