PERSONAL MENTION

R. A. Jones of Blaine, was here Thursday, attending the best fair in Tillamook county.

Mrs. A. J. Chartier of Wheeler was in the city Friday.

Howard D. McLeod, of Mohler, was in town Friday, taking in the fair, and telling a few big fish stories to his friends.

M. S. Buel and family returned last week from their vacation spent over in the Sheridan section. Mr. Buel will resume his duties as teacher of one of the grades in the public school of this city.

Something like 75 of the Kiwanis club took dinner at the fair grounds last Thursday in the big automobile display tent, in a body.

Ira Lance bought two pure bred cows to add to his herd at the Irwin Harrison stock sale at the fair grounds last Thursday.

Charles Terry and mother and sister of Portland, were guests of Matt and Glenn Terry and families of this city, the latter part of last week.

The Jersey booth at the county fair was in charge of Mrs. Joe Donaldson and others during fair week. The booth was attractive, and the walls were featured with pictures of prize Jersey animals, with available literature descriptive of the breed.

Mrs. Phillip Bushlack and others were in charge of the Guernsey booth at the county fair, and it was nicely decorated with pictures of the Guernsey champions and photos of Tillamook prize winners. Many people visited all three booths during the fair and took away literature descriptive of the several main breeds.

J. H. Nelson and wife of McMinnville, spent a few days last week with his brother Ira G. Nelson of this city. The Nelsons visited Ocean-side while here.

R. P. Christensen of Osceola, Wisconsin, and wife, are in this county looking over the cheese and dairy industry. Mr. Christensen is a butter maker in Wisconsin, and feels at home in a dairy county.

S. H. Rock of Oretown, this county, was up here Thursday and Friday to attend the county fair.

Married by Arch-deacon J. Claud

Black on September 3, 1923, Arthur Dufstrom and Ada E. Lester.

Marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk to Geo. L. Gleason and Ruby E. Towers on Sept. 11, and to C. Corder and Violet Davis on the same date.

H. E. Wiseman went to Portland land last Sunday, returning to this city Wednesday night.

Mrs. M. Wiseman of Portland, who has been at the Tillamook beaches most of the summer, returned to Portland last Saturday. Her son, H. E. Wiseman, is a practicing dentist of this city.

St. Alban's Episcopal Guild met early in September at the home of Mrs. Maurice Adams. The ladies present discussed and outlined the work for the year. The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday September twenty-fifth at the home of Mrs. Stanley Coates.

Mrs. R. O. Richards and family will keep house in Tillamook during the school, and Bob will keep bachelor's hall at home, on the ranch, when he is at home. When commissioner Richard's is in town, he will also be at home. The idea is to give the children high school advantages at close range.

Captain and Mrs. Earl Snodgrass were up from Bay City, Monday, for a few hours. Capt. Snodgrass has taken a contract to deliver salmon to the cannery during the fishing season, but states that he will make trips between Bayocean and Bay City when there is a necessity, during the day.

The Whitney mill at Garibaldi Cove is now running two eight hour shifts. The output of the lumber is being speeded up, and it is believed that this will call for more carriers by sea to the California markets.

Rev. W. O. Woolever, pastor of the local U. B. church, has returned from the state conference of that denomination at Salem, and has been again assigned to the pastorate of his church at this place. Many friends outside of his congregation, will be pleased to know that he is to remain in the city during another conference year.

Rev. Woolever will preach next Sunday morning in Tillamook; at Beaver in the afternoon, and at Pleasant valley at night.

H. H. and J. H. Rosenberg, and Merle Smith and families, returned Saturday night last from a trip to southern Oregon. While gone they visited the Oregon caves, Crater and Diamond lakes and other points of interest in the south part of the state, and report a very enjoyable trip. The trip occupied about ten days.

Rev. Geo. Harness returned from Portland Wednesday to secure a song leader for the coming revival meetings to begin here on the first Sunday in October. He has arranged for the services of Young Stivers of the State University as song leader, who has been well recommended. Rev. Hilton of Roseburg will be the evangelist.

J. A. Todd of Portland is preparing to move the Todd Hotel annex from the lot on which it now stands, to the one owned by him just west. The lot on which the building now stands was sold some time ago to John Lamar, who expects to build on it later.

Clay Freeman and wife have gone to house keeping in this city, moving here from Hillsboro. Mr. Freeman is a member of the firm of the Hillsboro Trading Company of this city. He will hereafter be a resident of this city. When Clay gets any time away from business, which isn't very often, he goes fishing.

Work has been started on the Tillamook County creamery association's big warehouse in this city, and Wednesday eleven men were at work raising the frame of the building, putting on the siding and roof. The work is being pushed ahead rapidly, and material is arriving on the ground.

The old building which has so long stood on Third street between first and second avenue, has been removed to Third street and second avenue west. Its absence improves the looks of the street.

Rev. Simpson Hamrick, pastor of the M. E. church, who recently attended conference of the M. E. church for the Columbia River district, was re-assigned to Tillamook by the bishop. This suits his congregation, and is also pleasing to many friends with out the church, who are glad to have him back. Rev. J. T. Keating, formerly pastor at Bay City, goes to Echo, Umatilla county, and Rev. Dark, formerly a pastor of the Tillamook church, and who was succeeded by Rev. Hamrick, has been retained as pastor at McMinnville.

The rest room at the new Conover store is being fitted up this week and will soon be ready for use. Repairs are also being made at the cash store in the way of new paper and paint.

Mrs. Clyde Kinnaman and Mrs. Neil Hiner spent a few days in Portland last week.

Mrs. W. S. Coates is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Oscar Dufstrom.

Children's school sewing and fancy dressmaking. Mrs. A. H. Dorsey. Adv.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelson and daughter Wanda of McMinnville, visited the last of the week at the home of Dr. Nelson's brother, Ira G. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Loree and Miss Winnie Epplett are taking in the sights at the round-up at Pendleton.

Mrs. Charles Mahan is spending a few days visiting at Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Honey and Mrs. John Hathaway motored to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Emily Mitchell and daughter of Beaver visited at the home of Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Speare a few days last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Castle, September 11, 1923, at Bay City, Oregon, a son.

Mrs. Edith Kelley, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon was last Saturday attending the county convention of that organization. While here she was the guest of Mrs. J. M. Wilson.

Joseph Baumgartner left this week for an extended trip to his old home in Switzerland. He will be gone several months and saw to it that the Headlight will be sent to him while he is staying in the old country.

Miss Mary Nelson left Friday for eastern Oregon where she will teach school for the coming year.

The fire at Berkerly, Cal., that destroyed three million dollars worth of property, and wiped out 500 houses, is the home of the parents of W. D. Pine. County agent. Naturally, Mr. Pine felt concern until he received a wire stating that his folks were all right, and although they were in the scorched area, both of their houses were untouched by the fire.

NEHALEM TEAM LOSES TO WHITNEY CLUB 14-0

The Whitney mills club of Garibaldi Cove, played the Nehalem boys last Friday at the Fair grounds, the score resulting in a shut out of Nehalem, the score being 14 to 0, at the end of nine innings. Mr. Mahan of this city umpired the game. Nehalem was on the point of scoring a couple of runs two or three times, but the Whitney pitcher tightened up each time, and whiffed it over the plate with out serious interference.

COUNTY EXHIBITS GO TO STATE FAIR

The county of Tillamook will have an exhibit at the State Fair, which begins next Monday. Besides about forty head of pure-bred cattle there will be a display of county products, including lumber, fish, cheese and other resources, calculated to advertise the county. The exhibits went forward yesterday in a special train consisting of four cars. Fred Christenson, Dolph Tinnerstet and W. D. Pine will have charge of the exhibit at Salem. Last year Tillamook county was third in the opinion of the judges in the matter of the excellence of its exhibit.

U. S. CLAM EXPERT VISITS IN COUNTY

Assistant to the United States Bureau of Fisheries, H. B. Holmes of Washington, D. C., visited Tillamook bay last Sunday. While here he made examination of the several kinds of clams found in the bay.

He also made surveys of possible planting locations along the Bayocean ocean beach for razor clams. It is understood that he was especially pleased with the Eastern clams found in the bay. He stated that the last named clam was superior as a food to the razor variety, and in fact to all others found here. Mr. Holmes came over to the bay at the instance of Thos. Ross of the state fish commission, who is greatly interested in fostering and protecting the clam species of sea food along the Oregon coast.

TELEPHONE COMPANY HOLDS ITS ELECTION

The Mutual Telephone company of this city held its annual meeting on the 8th inst, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Geo. Williams; S. A. Broadhead, secretary and manager; Jas. Williams, vice president; John Erickson, Cyrus Randall and John Kumm were elected directors, and David Kuratli was named as treasurer.

The Mutual Telephone Company was organized and incorporated as a joint stock company concern in 1908, and now has over 300 miles of wire, and a total of 630 subscribers. The line goes as far north as Bay City, and south as far as Blaine, and covers intervening territory, including Tillamook city.

Oregon City expending $25,000 on improvement of water system.

FEMALE PRISONER SENT TO PORTLAND

Lois Walcher, a recent resident of the Wilson river section, who was indicted for unlawful manufacture of liquor at the last session of the grand jury, was taken last week to the Multnomah county jail where she will remain until circuit court convenes in October. There are no accommodations for women in the Tillamook county jail, and that place is now over crowded with male guests of the county. More jail room would seem to be indicated at the court house; in fact there is no doubt about it.

Oct. 1, state pays $1,300,000 interest on outstanding bonds.

Gold Hill — 60 tons daily Kane Creek limestone shipped to paper mills.
