

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The ladies of the Guild of the First Presbyterian church of this city, held their regular bimonthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Guy Ford with Mrs. L. A. Barrick assisting, Thursday, September 27. Twenty two members were present. Plans for the ensuing winter were enthusiastically adopted. The next meeting will be held October 11, at 2:30 p. m.

J. L. Owens of Cloverdale was in the city this week.

Capt. Earl Snodgrass was in town Tuesday arranging for lumber to be shipped down to Bay City, where he will put up the beginning of a house for the winter, and finish it up next spring. He states that houses in Bay City for rent are very scarce at this time.

T. E. Eplett, who has been over at Oceanside most of the summer, took up his old job as court bailiff, during the present term of circuit court this week.

F. P. Miller who has a confectionery store at Rockaway, in connection with the post office, was in Tillamook Tuesday on business.

Have brothers—Trevor and Gordon—have rented the Clough building on First street recently vacated by Matt Terry, and will occupy it with an automobile agency. Mr. Clough is putting new sills under the building this week, and otherwise improving the building.

Mrs. Rose Wilkes visited her father, F. P. Humke at Necarney, last Sunday.

S. G. Reed, proprietor of the Necarney Tavern, at Necarney, was in the city on business, last Monday.

L. S. Hopfield of Portland was in the city last Friday on insurance business. He is special agent for the Pacific States Co.

Dan Hickey has rented his farm near this city, and will leave soon in a brand new Buick with his family for San Diego, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

Bert Stevens, mill foreman at the Matlock mills east of town, took in the state fair last week.

A. L. McCarty of Nehalem paid the county seat town a visit last Monday.

A. Osborne of Mohler was in the city Monday on business.

F. F. Foster, a farmer of the Meda district, is a juror at the October term of circuit court.

E. H. Kennedy, a son-in-law of Adie Harris, is here from Salem on a hunting and fishing trip. With him are two friends from that city. With Mr. Harris the boys went on the Nestucca Monday and got a small buck deer.

Jos. J. Asher of Nehalem is here attending circuit court.

H. V. Berg of Mohler and A. G. Ross of Wheeler were down to the county seat Tuesday night, and attended Masonic work in the local lodge.

Hubert S. Smith of Beaver is attending court as a juror this week.

Thos. Thorsen of Spokane, Wn., was in the city Tuesday, looking after lumber interests here for a large firm in the east.

Arnold Gruenwald, R. W. Bennett and O'Dell & Stormer have all received new steel and fire-proof safes from a San Francisco firm. The style of safe purchased was the kind that went through the big Astoria fire without damage, and without destroying the safe contents.

Altho it has been a trifle dry weather for the cattle pastures, Tillamook has had a beautiful and successful summer.

Tourists have thronged our beaches by the thousands, and even attended our county fair, which has reason to be proud of its best showings in cattle, calf club work and all the booths did themselves proud. Many a tired baby with its mother enjoyed the rest room of the W. C. T. U. with its free helps of all kinds, such as soap, water and towels, to the public. It was a dressing room and clean up place for the baseball team, it administered help and comfort to the strong, as well as to the weak, and tired, free and freely.—Contributed.

Monday Musical Club October 8. Roll call answered by quotations. Current Events, Mrs. Alfred Anderson; History of Bayreuth theatre, Mrs. Fred Burton. Discussion of Constitution and by-laws. Music.

Attorney Lee M. Travis, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Baker, who had been sick for nearly three years, passed away at his home in Eugene on Monday afternoon. He was a graduate of the Oregon University and Ann Harbor, and when war was declared with Spain, he volunteered his services, and went to Manila with the Oregon regiment. After several months in Manila he was taken down with a bad case of typhoid fever, and after being discharged from the Precidio hospital he came to Tillamook to recuperate. He married Miss Lily R. Baker 17 years ago in this city and they have made their home in Eugene since. He is survived by his wife and a son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left for Eugene on Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

Bud Walker of Hemlock was in the city Thursday last.

Clarence Gilbert of Wheeler visited the county seat Saturday.

J. H. Clark spent Saturday in Tillamook. He was down from Wheeler.

Ned Richards of Mill City and wife were in Tillamook last Saturday. Mr. Richards is a real estate dealer in the sawmill town up in the Cascades.

C. J. Neff and wife of the Netherlands hotel motored over to Salem and visited the state fair for a couple of days last week.

Mrs. A. D. McDonough of Portland spent the week end with her husband in this city, who is employed on the S. P. logging train out from this city.

F. M. Sullivan of Wheeler had business in the city last Saturday.

Mrs. A. A. Pennington of this city is spending a few days this week with friends in Portland and Salem, leaving here last Thursday.

M. Redmond and wife, who were residents of Garibaldi for 15 years, recently returned from California, and are visiting with old friends in that lively sawmill town.

Geo. Vaughn of this city is doing carpenter work out at the Stone camp.

It is understood that the port of Bandon has bought the "Nehalem dredge at a cost of $20,000, and the dredge is being made ready for its trip down the coast to the little Coos county city, where it will be used to dig mud for another set of masters.

Born, Sept. 21, 1923, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Herrington of Garibaldi, a son.

H. M. Farmer of Cloverdale, formerly county commissioner, was in the city last Monday, with business at the court house.

C. H. Larison of Oretown, was in the city Monday on business. He is a dairyman of that section, and says that industry is in a flourishing state where he lives. Salmon are running at a lively rate in the Nestucca bay and river, and fishermen are busy.

Geo. Burekard and wife were over to the Bayocean beach Sunday and brought home eleven gallons of the big shot huckleberries. Geo. says there are billions of bushels of them, and advises residents to get what is coming to them, while the weather is good. He claimed that he picked nine of the eleven gallons, a statement in which Mrs. Burekard did not acquiesce—anyway, they got plenty of the delicious berry fruit.

Mrs. W. D. Pine and little daughter, are visiting this week in Milton, Oregon, where her parents reside. She is expected to join her husband at the International stock show in Portland.

Glenn Wolfe and Agnes Blazer were married on the 29th inst, in this city by Rev. Placidus Fleurst, the resident Catholic pastor.

Ray Krake and May Adele Ellis of Garibaldi were given a license to wed by the County Clerk on the 29th of September.

W. O. W. order held an open meeting last Thursday night, Sept. 27th, the occasion being a farewell party given to a lodgeman and family, Clarence Wagey, who, with his family expects to soon leave for Pendleton, which place he will make his future home.

A dinner was given, after which the evening was devoted to social activities, including card playing and dancing, with prizes for the children, and juvenile amusements. The members of the lodge were sorry to have their fellow lodge members leave, but joined in wishing them good luck in their new home.

Mrs. H. W. Manbille of Eugene is in Tillamook visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heisel. The visitor is Mrs. Heisel's mother.

Fred Skomp of Sagrada bend up on the Trask, was in the city Friday.

R. Freeman and E. C. Scovell of Nehalem were in the city last Friday.

Tom Hagey and father, and E. Lavin of Portland, were here Friday last, and spent some time trolling for salmon on the Trask.

H. A. Hoffman of Portland was in the city the latter part of last week, on business. Mr. Hoffman formerly lived in Brighton.

C. M. Stearns, an attorney of Ontario, Oregon, has been in the city several days past. He is looking for a location in which to open a law office.

SOPHOMORES WIN IN CLASS BAG RUSH

On Friday evening an informal party of students and faculty will be held in the gymnasium for the purpose of becoming better acquainted. A snappy entertainment is being prepared.

A few weeks ago the old teachers entertained the new teachers at Oceanside and on Saturday the same courtesy is to be reversed.

The Methodist and Christian churches have entertained the teachers.

The boys and girls' glee clubs as well as the orchestra have begun practicing in earnest under the direction of Miss Church.

On Wednesday and Friday of each week, assembly singing for twenty minutes is led by Miss Church. At the last singing session, the students were especially favored by a vocal solo from Troy Hines.

The usual contest between the Freshmen and Sophomores was terminated last Friday in favor of the latter. A bag rush with twelve men from each class was the first event. The goal judges were Bill Lucas and Henry Himes. The field judges were Wesley Tippen, Bill Olsen, Joe Maxwell and Warren Foland. After fifteen minutes struggle the Sophomores had seven bags over their goal, and the Freshmen had four. They then went to Trask river where a tug of war was staged. The marshal guarding the Freshmen was Bill Olsen, and the one guarding the Sophomores was Wesley Tippen. The Freshmen were pulled in.

Having lost both contests, every Freshmen is requested to wear something green, while the winning Sophomores are privileged to wear their class colors for a week.

Joe Maxwell was elected editor of the annual in place of Beryl, who did not return to this school this year.

The work of graveling the courts in the rear of the new grade building is being rushed so that it may be finished before the next rain starts in. The halls of that building are covered with battleship lineoleum, which makes an excellent wearing surface. To help keep it looking well children will not be allowed to wear boots with hob nails to school. In the high school building the floors were painted during vacation, and the same regulation will apply there, so that the surface may be preserved.

New students enrolling in high school last Monday are Eva Webb, of Oklahoma, and Leslie Keteck, of Sheridan. The high school attendance is too large for the assembly, so that extra seats are placed in the old eighth grade room to hold the overflow.

Coach Sheeley has arranged a football schedule with some of the teams in the state. There is a prospect of good football material in this year and if all men material turn out, we should have a successful year. Games have already been arranged with Astoria, Seaside, Boro, Forest Grove, McMinnville, Oregon City. This is the first schedule ever faced by a T. H. football team, and if the team make a good showing the interest of port of students and township will be necessary.

The Chorus will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kock, No. 306 East 1st, next Monday evening, 8 o'clock sharp.

This will be the first rehearsal of the season. The community chorus for the community. Any one who sings at all is asked to be there.

NAZARENE CHURCH

The pastor and his wife who have been attending the general assembly of the Nazarene church in Kansas City, Mo., for the three past weeks have returned, and will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening next Sunday. Everybody welcome.

Lovely
AUTUMN HATS
New Patterns Arriving Every Few Days
Eva Jeffers Millinery
Corner of 1st St. and 2nd Ave.
(Formerly Owned by Miss Patterson)

SELLING IS SPIRITED!

Why?

Because greater values are to be found here than elsewhere. Visit the store and note the savings and sterling quality of the merchandise offered. Hundreds have taken advantage of our offerings during the short time we have been serving this community. These great stocks of exceedingly well bought and paid for merchandise, are ready for your choosing. Come, see a well stocked, busy, up to date store. When you buy here you save.

We Announce

will be agreeably surprised. The "Ed. V. Price Co." sample line has been added this week and we are prepared to take care of the requirements of the men as well. This line assures you quality, workmanship and service, with a large range of patterns to select from. A beautiful line of mens and boys Overcoats and Mackinaws now on display. See them is steadily gaining favor. Cash buying and cash selling is becoming more popular. Cash and Carry saves you money. Your friends are carrying market baskets because it pays them to do so. Those who have visited this department have been quick to see the values we are giving them. Carry it home. It pays you.

The Grocery Department

PAY CASH AND PAY LESS

AT

LARSON & HECHTNER

Corner Beals Bldg.
Tillamook

YOUR REST ROOM IS BEING DAILY PRAISED.

IT IS FITTED FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE