Dozen Shows at Pacific International

An exposition is a collection of shows, more or less related by nature. The Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, held at Portland, Or., Nov. 3-10, has drawn under its ample wings a dozen of them, and there is interest for everybody in some of them.
 It has a beef cattle show of great size.
 Its dairy cattle show is second to none anywhere in numbers and quality.
 The sheep and goat show is regarded by experts as on a par with any like show in America.
 The hog show has always been excellent, and this year will be bigger than ever.
 The draft horse show is representative, with five breeds of heavy horses and jacks.
 The Western Winter poultry and rabbit show attracts thousands of interested spectators.
 The Western dairy products show is the least spectacular and one of the most important.
 The boys' and girls' clubs make a show that is the outcome of work destined to make this country a better place to live in. Don't miss seeing the work they have done.
 The Land Products show, with its fruits and vegetables, grains and grasses, county and other exhibits, is one of the splendid features of the Exposition.

 The latest show to come to the Pacific International is the fine Northwest Grain and Hay show, hitherto held in Pendleton. This is going to be a 1923 feature.
 The Industrial Exhibits department affords a show that for beauty and value would be hard to surpass. This great department is filled with fairy-like booths, showing costly furs and other raiment, beautiful furniture, every convenience a housewife needs, machinery of every sort to save labor and increase profits. Everything has its demonstration for the public. The sense of sight and the sense of smell are both appealed to, for the flour and other food products companies are doing their best to show the merits of their goods.
 The Night Horse show is one of the four great horse shows in the United States. It is brilliant, exciting and delightful. Horses are coming from the Eastern states this year to show their paces in the arena and struggle for the big prizes offered.
 One kind of a show isn't at the Pacific International, and never will be—the gambling concessions and other questionable amusements that rob children and sometimes grown people and leave nothing but a bad taste. The Exposition does not need that kind of shows.
 Astoria—45 vessels loaded and discharged at this port in September.
 Seaside—20 school districts in Clatsop county lower tax rates for next year; 6 are raised.
 Prineville—Green Mountain mine finds gold and silver in paying quantities.
 Hood River will spend $10,000 on development work for coming year.
 Lebanon banks show deposits of $886,028.21, or gain of $42,556.06 over June.
 North Powder—Pac. Fruit Express to spend $20,000 enlarging local plant.
 Astoria—Paving of Olney cut-off, south of town, completed.
 Salem—Contract let for $25,000 one-story business building.
 Bend—Work starts on $14,000 brick store building.
 Albany—First unit of large grain warehouse to go up at once.
 Coos Bay section booming in every respect, new roads, many new buildings.
 Beaverton to hold $65,000 bond election for connection with Portland water system.
 Bend—American Legion takes 99-year lease on site for erection of building.
 Rainier gets increased electric power due to connection of North Coast

The Gold Seal pledges you greater service!

PRINT the Gold Seal of the Good-year Rubber Company on your memory. Rely on it when you look for durable, long-wearing rubber footwear.
 Since 1872 it has been the buying guide of loggers and muckers, fishermen and buckers of the great Northwest.
 We shape layer after layer of para* rubber, blended with strong woven fabric, into our footwear. Our vacuum pressure vulcanization binds them forever. Gold Seal Boots are warranted crack-proof.
 In certain models we build reinforcing ribs of heavy, springy rubber.
 Any Pacific Coast store can fit you with Gold Seal Footwear in your choice of size, weight and style. You will also appreciate Gold Seal Oiled Clothing.
 We are the original and only Goodyear Rubber Company. Portland and San Francisco.
