

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

C. S. Barnes, proprietor of the Palm Confectionery, has secured the services of Harvey Parker as candy maker and he will have entire charge of that department.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCabe, who has been critically ill for some time past, is recovering.

Mrs. Jeff. McGinnis of Cloverdale, a pioneer of this county, is reported quite ill.

E. A. Koen, publisher of the Dallas Observer, was in Tillamook last week where he had been called in connection with one of the cases in the circuit court.

National Candy day Saturday. See the Palm candy window.—Adv.

Clare Adams of Nehalem, who was quite badly hurt in a logging camp up in the Nehalem woods some weeks ago, and who was treated here, came down Tuesday night to receive further treatment.

W. G. Heidinger of Longview, Wn., and O. C. French of Lebanon, were in the city Tuesday, and will put in a few days trying out their shotguns on some of the bay ducks.

Saturday, October 13, is National Candy day. The Palm will have some special bargains for this occasion. adv

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper of Portland are in the city. Mr. Cooper will be connected with the new Skaggs grocery store when it is formally opened to the public.

A. F. Hodson of Nehalem, was in the city last Tuesday.

Rev. W. A. Gressman, pastor of the first Christian church at Pendleton, was in the city Tuesday, and attended church here Tuesday night. He came over here on a business matter, and returned Wednesday.

Addie Harris and Henry Becker drove out to Portland Tuesday, and made the round trip the same day. Mr. Becker, who lives two miles north of town, bought a new sport model Jewett while in Portland, and drove it home. Mr. Harris drove into Portland in three hours and forty-five minutes.

Donald Guild, who works at the Gold creek hatchery, left Wednesday for a short vacation at the family home near Portland.

Frank H. Howard returned from a visit to Portland Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kelsey of Carlton, spent Tuesday with A. M. Hoffman and family of this city. The Kelseys were on their way to Oceanside to complete their house at that popular beach.

One of the features to be introduced at the Palm Confectionery this winter will be the "Week-end" candy special. This feature is being used by all the leading confectioners throughout the country to boost candy sales. It is based on the proposition that great demand makes big production and big production reduces costs.

M. D. Ackley is spending a week in Southern Oregon.

Gus. Jensen was over from Cape Mears light house last Tuesday, and spent the day. He says the light house vicinity is quiet since the beach resorters left. There were many people up there from the resorts last summer, and visitors seemed to enjoy coming for the fine view afforded.

F. D. Mitchell and wife were over from Bayocean last Thursday. The trip over here and back cost them $5 by boat—there is no other way, except to fly, and the flying is not good just now. Mr. Mitchell thinks that the old roadbed of 2400 feet might be used next summer, provided the road from this end could be connected up with it.

A number of new features and improvements will be added to the Palm in the near future and the new management expects to make it one of the first class places of the state.—Adv

E. M. Vall of Garibaldi will become a resident of Tillamook about the first of next month. Mr. Vall bought the old buildings on the army lot and moved them to Second avenue west and First street. He is repairing the buildings, and will move into the largest building.

Henry White and wife made a trip by auto last Sunday to Salem, where they will spend a few days visiting with friends and relatives in and near the state capitol.

Merle Beck, a young man who recently arrived here from Floyd county, Iowa, is now employed by the Nettarts Spruce Co. He likes conditions here, and while he came out merely to look the country over, he now has decided to stay, and make his home in Tillamook.

Mrs. W. D. Pine returned Monday last from a visit to her parents at Milton, Oregon, of several weeks duration.

Martha Hanks of Nehalem, was a city visitor last Saturday from the town up north.

G. W. Zaddach of Mohler transacted business in Tillamook last Saturday.

W. O. Davis returned last Friday from a business trip to Portland.

J. L. Gray of Cloverdale, was in the city Friday on business.

B. Reece of Mohler was a county seat visitor last Friday.

Wayne Franklin of Oretown, was in the town Friday last.

A. F. Hudson had business in the county seat last Friday.

Rev. C. M. Brown, pastor of the Garibaldi M. E. church, who was quite seriously hurt in an accident at Salem during fair week, has recovered sufficiently to return to his pastorate in the above town.

Leslie Barber of Nehalem was in town Monday, with business at the County agent's office.

Albert Bennett and wife of Dallas, were over to Tillamook last Sunday, and were guests of R. W. Bennett and family. The men folks went fishing for Silversides.

Mary Runkel drove out to Portland Wednesday on business.

Dr. Frank Menne one of the faculty of the University of Oregon's medical school, Portland, will soon have completed at Oceanside a nice 5 room bungalow.

"LOUSY WITH FISH", IS REPORTED OF BAY

A fisherman Tuesday last described Tillamook bay as being "lousy with salmon." Fishermen are making wonderful catches of Silversides and fall Chinooks. Six and one-fourth tons were taken in by one firm here Tuesday last. One of the men of the firm stated that twenty tons could have been taken had all the fishermen spread nets that day.

TRASK RIVER APPLES GROW TO GREAT SIZE

M. E. Gruber of the Trask House has on exhibition at C. I. Clough's drug store samples of some of the largest apples ever raised in this county. They grew in the orchard on the ranch which is situated about 15 miles above Tillamook on the Trask river. The name of the apples was not given on the placard. They certainly are fine specimens, and disprove the oft voiced statement by some Tillamookers that "this is not an apple country."

BUDGET IS APPROVED BY TAX COMMISSION

The 1924 city budget which was approved by the county tax supervising committee this week, has passed through its different phases, and now is definitely the amount total that will meet the expenditures of the city the coming year.

The general purposes expenditures given by the budget approximate $11,140. Road purposes, $6,148. Library, $1,000; Interest general bonds, $7,335; Sinking funds, $5,000; Interest on road warrants, $320; Armory, $3,100; Emergencies, $2,200. Estimated receipts: Fines, $1,000; Licenses, $100; Miscellaneous, $703; Total, $36,243. The last three items under the head of estimated receipts should be expected from the city tax levy.

SHOW AT PORTLAND WILL DRAW CATTLE

The Pacific International Live Stock show will open on November 2. It is understood that Fred R. Beals and Edmunds & Fitzpatrick will take herds from this county to the big show at Portland for exhibition. It may happen that others will also exhibit cattle from this county, but the above breeders are the only ones who have announced their intentions at this date. The breeds to be represented will consist of Holsteins and Guernseys.

FRANK HEYD BETTER, SAYS LATE REPORT

Fred Pye and wife and Mrs. Frank Heyd went out to Portland last Sunday to see Frank Heyd, who has been in a Portland hospital for a period of four weeks past. The doctors state that Mr. Heyd is improving, and the visitors were of the same opinion. Frank is anxious to get home, and there is a possibility that he will be able to do so within the next two weeks.

METHODIST CHURCH IS ASSUMING SHAPE

The new M. E. church edifice is fast assuming shape. The side walls are up, and the contractors will soon begin placing the rafters. The contract calls for the building to be completed early in the coming year. The work is progressing at a satisfactory rate, says those most interested.

LOCAL MAN PLEDGED TO COLLEGE FRAT

O. A. C., Corvallis, Oct. 5.—(Special) Gerald Stark of Tillamook has been pledged to Tau Sigma Phi fraternity here.

BRIDGE CLUB HAS MEETING

The Thursday bridge club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Harvey Ebinger last week. Mrs. Clent King officiated as assistant hostess. Mrs. W. D. Pine was the only member absent. Mrs. Dr. Robinson was a guest, and Mrs. David Kuratli was a new member of the club. Mrs. Fritz Beltz took the first prize and Mrs. Fred Small won the consolation. A delicious luncheon was served after the card playing.

COUNTY NEWS IN BRIEF

ROCKAWAY

L. L. Van Northwick and wife returned home after spending a month on a trip through Oregon.

Mrs. Cuddingham returned to her home in Idaho after visiting her sister, Mrs. Lillian Schrader.

The Rockaway Beach water Co. is laying larger mains in some parts of the town.

The Ladies Aid of Rockaway are holding their regular weekly meeting until the summer season opens again.

D. W. Mann has started to erect six new houses for the summer season. W. E. Anderson left for Brighton to work.

Arthelo and Floyd Shafer returned home after a weeks trip through the valley.

H. B. Hunt is leaving for Mantavilla to open a home made candy store.

PLEASANT VALLEY

F. E. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas went to Portland Tuesday where they will spend a week visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Frank Boyle and Mrs. Edna Anderson left Monday for their home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clell Pearson, accompanied by Mrs. Pearson's father, Mr. Belyea, went to Ridgefield Washington Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson returned Monday. Mr. Belyea will visit with relatives in Ridgefield for a time before returning to his home in Oklahoma.

The Sunday school held its annual election Sunday morning when the following officers were elected: superintendent, C. E. Pearson; assistant superintendent, John Zurflueh Jr; secretary, Viola Blum; assistant, Esther Mills; treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Desmond; organist, Hattie Moore. The Sunday school shows a much better attendance than last year. A Christian Endeavor has recently been organized, and is well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turner and daughters are visiting relatives at The Dalles.

Mrs. Ruth Zurflueh and son, Allen, returned Tuesday from Salem where they have been visiting relatives.

The infant child of Art. Anderson is recovering from a severe illness, it is reported.

DOLLAR DAY Saturday, October 13

In the Grocery Department An innovation in this, YOUR STORE which we believe will be of interest to you and receive your hearty support. Numerous articles in the Grocery Department will be on display singularly or in groups to sell for $1.00. Your DOLLAR will have a greatly increased buying power here Saturday. Every item of dependable quality and backed by our money back guarantee. Each day more and more are taking advantage of our "Cash and Carry" plan of selling groceries. Cash buying and selling insures you the utmost for your money. Count the shopping baskets. They are increasing in number has received a most liberal patronage. Values were found there that are not duplicated elsewhere. The first shipment has been practically sold out. New garments are arriving and are now ready for your choosing. Come early and select your coat or dress. The Warren Greene logger shoe has been added to our line. It's a good shoe priced right and guaranteed to do anything that any other logger shoe will do. Compare it with a Currin Greene. We now have a complete line of water repellent and logger clothing. Rubber Boots from new stock. No carry overs here.

The Ladies Ready-to-Wear Dept.

Pay Cash and Pay Less at Beals Bldg. LARSON & HECHTNER Tillamook You will like the Rest Room

CLOUGH'S Candy Day Special Fresh, Delicious Chocolates. Regular Price 60c Friday and 29c Saturday 1b Remember its Candy Day CHARLES I. CLOUGH CO. THE REXALL STORE TILLAMOOK OREGON

Lovely AUTUMN HATS New Patterns Arriving Every Few Days Eva Jeffers Millinery Corner of 1st St. and 2nd Ave. (Formerly Owned by Miss Patterson)

You May Hunt All Over Tillamook For a better light lunch than we serve at the Sugar Bowl, but you won't find it. SANDWICHES COFFEE ICE CREAM FRUIT SALAD PASTRY CHOCOLATE CANDIES Drop in Sometime THE SUGAR BOWL Art Harris