FRANK HENRY McCracken

Frank Henry McCracken died in this city on the 16th inst. after a brief illness. Deceased was a resident of Cloverdale, and was born in Ashland county, Michigan, November 3, 1877, and was 46 years of age at the time of his death. Deceased is survived by two brothers in Michigan, and one brother at Westport, Clatsop county, another brother in Seattle, a sister in Montana, another in Hubbard, Oregon, and one sister in Rainier, Oregon. Deceased was a resident of Cloverdale for eight years preceding his death.

Those present at the funeral were: Sam McCracken, brother of Westport, Mr. and Mrs. Maggie Crittenden, the latter a sister, of Hubbard, Oregon, and Mrs. Ida Crittenden, a sister, of Rainier, Oregon.

The funeral was under the auspices of the K. K. K. of this city and county, and occurred in the Henkle chapel at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning. Pall bearers in the robes of the K. K. K. were in attendance, while a large concourse of comrades attended unmasked. A number of ladies also were present in the congregation. A number of male voices rendered appropriate hymns. Rev. W. O. Woolever gave a fervent prayer, and was followed by Rev. George Harness in a short but excellent sermon, which found a response in every heart present. He paid a high tribute to the life and character of the deceased, and made an appeal to the living for higher spiritual ideals, and the strengthening of the bonds of comradeship and brotherhood. As an example he cited the life and love of the divine Master, which all should strive to emulate.

Interment followed at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, where short services also were held. There was a large attendance at the final ceremonies.
