

PERSONAL MENTION

Attorney C. R. Chapin of Newberg, and son, was in the city Saturday, and will make his home in Tillamook. He expects his library soon, and will have his offices in the new Beals building open on December 3rd.

Sixty mile gale prevailed along the Tillamook coast Friday night, with heavy rainfall. No damage has thus far been reported.

Merle Harrington, organist at the Coliseum theatre, and Ernie Keldson of the First National bank, visited Portland the latter part of last week to hear Dupre, the famous pipe organist perform at one of the Portland theatres. They say they were well repaid for the trip.

Frank Hobson of Garibaldi, one of the old time residents of the Tillamook bay section, was in the city Friday last.

Miss Madge De Ford returned from a visit with friends in Portland last Monday. She recently spent several weeks visiting with relatives in Eastern Oregon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams Tillamook, Oregon, Nov. 21, 1923, a son.

A. S. Tilden of Nehalem is reported as being in very poor health for some time past. Mr. Tilden is one of the old settlers in the Nehalem country. Dr. Smith was called to see him this week.

Jack Rupp is building a high fence of wire with a string of barbs on top, around the new fair ground which will keep stock out. The whole ninety acres will be fenced in, and if any pasturage is to be had, the county will get the benefit of it.

Mrs. Ralph Cady was in the city from Wheeler Tuesday.

Kensington club will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. G. A. Reeher and Mrs. Ira Smith at the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. A. K. Case has returned after visiting for the past three weeks with her daughters at Portland and Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bester and son Leland went to Portland Wednesday where they spent Thanksgiving day. Their son Arthur, who is a student at O. A. C. this year, came up from Corvallis and had Thanksgiving dinner with his parents.

Fishermen on Nehalem bay have under discussion the matter of providing cold storage for their salmon catches. No doubt that would be a good thing, and enable the fishermen to hold their catches until they could market them.

The late rains have sent hundreds of salmon up the rivers from the bay to spawn in the small creeks.

S. D. Harris of Montesano, Washington, is in the city visiting friends.

Dek Donovan of the Tillamook garage and Miss Ella Davidson of the Tillamook county bank, were married in Portland last Saturday by a Catholic minister, and are spending their honeymoon in the above city.

The K. K. ladies have received a supply of Red Cross Christmas seals. Those wishing to purchase same can secure them from Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg.

Harry Whently of the firm of Selnes & Wheatly of Seaside was a Tillamook visitor the latter part of last week.

H. E. Ramage, a graduate pharmacist, and recently from Portland, is now employed at the Lamar drug store. Mr. Ramage sold a drug store of his own last summer.

Considerable influenza or grip is prevalent in this city and county, at this time, a number of people are sick.

Albert Bennett and wife, Mrs. Christina Bennett and daughter, Alma, were Thanksgiving guests at the R. W. Bennett home in this city Thursday.

J. E. Shearer visited Portland last Sunday, returning the same day.

Wm. Ryan of up on Wilson river will stop at Twin Rocks for some time this winter.

The special tax election held at Rockaway last Saturday, to vote a tax for the improvement of roads, resulted in a vote of 65 for no tax, to 15 for a tax.

Mrs. Ralph Bunn of Arago, Coos county, is here for a several weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Davis. She is accompanied by her children.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Klein of Nehalem were Tillamook shoppers Tuesday. The Kleins have lived in the Nehalem section for the past forty years and are very anxious to have the Wheeler-Nehalem bridge completed.

Werner Michaels has let a contract to Frank H. Matthews of this city to build a new $1500 bungalow on the former's lots on Ninth street, between First and Second avenues. The building is in course of completion at this time.

In 1922 Tillamook county had 18 divorces and 54 marriages. In 1916 there were 15 divorces and 86 marriages.

E. M. Larkins of Pacific City, was a caller at the county seat Monday last.

The local Odd Fellow lodge initiation team, together with a good sized number of the members, will go out to McMinnville next Saturday night and put on the first degree in the McMinnville lodge. This is in response to an invitation from the brotherhood out in the capital of Yamhill county. A good time awaits the visitors in "old Mc."

Fred Beltz, secretary and treasurer of the A. F. Coats lumber company, spent a couple of days in the metropolis of Oregon this week on business.

H. E. Wiseman and wife spent Thanksgiving day in Portland, the guests of his mother, who lives in that city.

Mrs. S. O. Blanchard of Nehalem was in the city Monday on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Norquist of the Sundburg & Norquist mills, was in the city the fore part of the week, shopping.

James Wood and wife were in town from Blaine last Saturday, and spent the day.

H. R. Hechtner, of the firm of Larson & Hechtner, and wife, were Portland visitors Sunday, returning home Tuesday evening.

W. O. Davis, visited Portland last Saturday, returning here Sunday night.

George Harness spent Thanksgiving day in McMinnville, the guest of friends in that city.

E. B. Faxon and family left Wednesday night for Portland to partake of Thanksgiving cheer with relatives at that place.

W. R. C. bazaar next Saturday. Christmas goods, also food sale. Conover's new store.—adv.

NEW POSTMASTER AT CLOVERDALE

Mrs. Mabel N. Olds was commissioned postmaster at Cloverdale, by the President last week, and has assumed her duties. Her appointment is a result of the resignation of the former postmaster, who resigned and went to California for the benefit of his son's health.

TILLAMOOK WOMAN LOSES BY FIRE

Miss Maud Sturgeon, at one time a druggist in this city, but now a drug store proprietor in Estacada, about thirty miles northeast of Portland, was a loser to the extent of $10,000 in the recent fire which swept that town. The total loss estimated at $50,000. Miss Sturgeon will be remembered here by most of the old residents of this city, and attended the public schools here, where her parents resided at that time.

PRESENTS BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Portland, Ore., Nov. 15, 1923. Dr. J. E. Shearer, Tillamook, Oregon.

Dear Dr. Shearer: Dr. Dillehunt has to day placed in my hands your letter of November ninth relative to your presentation to the Medical School Library of two hundred volumes. We shall be delighted to accept these and shall feel greatly indebted to you for such a liberal gift.

If you will forward the books at our expense we shall be very grateful to you. Yours very truly,

G. E. BURGET
Chairman, Library Committee, University of Oregon Medical School.

Eugene building permits breaking record, passing million-dollar mark in 10 months.

CHICKEN DINNER AND BAZAAR

The Presbyterian Guild will hold their annual Bazaar and chicken dinner at the Guild hall on Thursday, December 6, commencing at 2 p. m.—Adv.

If you make a visit out of town, or if some friend comes to visit you from some other town, write a note, giving the initials and the name or names, and hand it in to the Headlight office, and it will be printed. Many people feel a false delicacy about turning in personals about themselves. This is wrong. The public has a right to know all the news, and the reporter cannot get news that he doesn't know about. We want the personals. You don't have to write it up for the paper—give the facts, and the reporter will do the rest. If you don't care to write it out, call up Main 68, and tell us about it.

FIRE TANK INSTALLED AT CAPE MEARS L. H.

A new tank holding 15,000 gallons of water has been finished at Cape Mears lighthouse, states Chas. Miller, first assistant keeper, who was in town Saturday from his station. The water comes from a spring back of the lighthouse, and will be used in case of a fire. Plenty of hose has been supplied, and there is sufficient force to make the water effective.

Next spring there will be laid a walk 1,000 feet long, made of concrete on the lighthouse premises. The winter supplies were brought in to the station last August, so that the men who operate this important light along the rugged and stormy Tillamook coast, will not have to depend upon supplies hauled in during the late fall or winter season.

During the summer time the Cape is thronged with visitors, but from now on, the men in the service of Uncle Sam will not see many new faces. The mail during the summer time is daily to the Cape, but during the winter season it will be brought from Bayocoon by volunteers from the lighthouse. The lighthouse people, perched high upon the cape, see some wonderful storm effects out at sea. With modern glasses during clear weather, the men are able to pick up a vessel well out at sea.

RAY GRAVES PLEDGED TO O. A. C. FRATERNITY

O. A. C., Corvallis, Nov. 12.—The Thete Chi fraternity recently announced the pledging of Raymond Graves. Graves is a freshman in the school of commerce. He is the son of C. S. Graves of Tillamook.

FIRST STREET LOTS BOUGHT BY COATS

The A. F. Coats lumber company last week concluded a deal for a small tract of land beginning at a point 150 feet north of First street, on what as the old Watchtower property, and extending northly to Hoquarnton slough. The consideration is not given.

The Watchtower building and the south part of the tract is not included in the sale. The former owners were Mrs. Lizzie and Miss Alice Morgan, the former of Portland, and the latter a resident of San Francisco, who were present last week in the city to sign the necessary papers. The ground purchased, it is understood will be used for mill purposes.

VALUABLE ANIMAL HAS LEG BROKEN

Mention was made last week of the sale of a fine Guernsey bull to the father of Walter Harvey of Centralia, Wash., by Judge Mason of near this city. Walter Harvey was conveying the bull in a stock truck towards Centralia last Wednesday. At Hebo, the big bull got to charging about, and fell out of the truck breaking a hind leg above the hock joint. The animal was left at the Jo. Aufemaier place, where it will be kept for a few weeks in the hope that the fracture may heal. If not, the animal will have to be killed. This is a piece of bad luck for the buyer, who has a fine herd of Guerneys in Centralia, and the bull was purchased for the purpose of improving the herd. It is understood that the bull sold for a good price.

LOCAL DRUGGIST CONFINED TO HOME

Howard Lamar, the well known druggist in the firm of Lamar's drug store this city, will have to remain in bed for about three months, according to the advice of his physician, or until certain spinal adhesions occur in his back. He has been ailing for some months, but friends report that he is looking much better, and is cheerful and resigned to his enforced rest. It is believed that at the end of his rest, he will again be behind the counter, with the same old smile of good nature, that not even sickness can nick up to last Sunday, Howard had had 103 callers.

OLD FRIENDS MEET IN WASHINGTON

A. D. Smith of this city accompanied Fred Watson to Morton, Washington, last week to meet an old friend whom he had not seen for more than forty years, when they were schoolmates and chums in Blackhawk county, Iowa.

Watson knew where the Washington man lived, and when they knocked at the door of F. S. Thompson, superintendent of schools for the county in which he lives, the superintendent came to the door, and Smith said: "I came up here to have a talk with you, and as you seem to have a pretty good home, I guess I will stay all night with you." He then attempted to walk in, but the other barred the way, and pushed the Tillamook man back. "Who are you," he asked with suspicion in his tone. "You wouldn't have treated me this way back in Blackhawk county," said Smith. Then the professor recognized his old friend's voice, and fairly dragged him into the house, and there ensued a talk of old lang syne that lasted into the next day, and the next one, after breakfast. Mr. Smith expects his friend and family to visit him in Tillamook next summer, or sooner. The local duet got back from Morton last Saturday, where Mr. Watson went on business.

"SEES THE FOLLY OF IT ALL"

The following letter from Maurice White, one of the young men recently convicted of the larceny of morphine from a local hospital in this city, and who is now in the Oregon penitentiary, to Sheriff Aschim, is worthy of consideration by young men who get in bad company and commit petty and other crimes. There is always a chance to get back into the right path, and become a good citizen, and a respected one. Boys, read this letter from one who went the gait, and is now paying the price, but who now "sees the folly of it all." The letter follows:

"Jack Aschim, Sheriff:
Mr. Howard and I received your letter, and we are grateful to you for having remembered to send our change so promptly.
"Mr. Aschim, it is quite a sensation, when one comes to realize what a perfect fool one has been, and believe me I have come to that stage. I have time to think of a great many things, and I can look back and see through the wasted years—nearly ten—the folly of it all, in letting myself become a slave to and worshipping a gilded idol with pot of clay. It may sound silly to talk this way, but it is true. There is practically no difference in what I have done, and a heathen kneeling at the feet of the idol of Buddha in worship. If I remember rightly, it was Kipling who said: "What fools we mortals be." (The passage quoted occurs in Shakespeare—Editor.)
"I wheeled concrete today, and I did not have to have a shot in the arm before I could do it, and I am glad I can say so much, but will take no more of your time now."
"We have nothing to complain of here. The food is very good, and we do ample justice to every meal. The daily prison routine is very satisfactory. We realize that this is a place where we must pay and atone for, as much as is possible, the wrongs we have committed against society. Individually, I intend to do my best to conduct myself along right lines."

"Your message of remembrance was delivered to the boys you brought down here before we came, and they were all pleased to know that they were remembered. Mr. Howard and I wish to be remembered to Mr. Holden, Less and your office force in general, and we wish to express our gratitude for the many comforts received at your hands while there. Hope Mr. Stark's wife is improving in health. Give the boys down stairs our best wishes."
"I beg to be your friend always,
Maurice White, O. S. P."

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR ELKS SUNDAY

Sunday Dec. 2nd is annual memorial day, at which time, every Elks Lodge in the United States and her possessions, gather about their altars to eulogize and pledge anew fidelity to the memory of our brothers who have passed into the realms of eternity during the past year.

This is a beautiful service, there will be special music, and Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, Francis V. Galloway of The Dalles, will deliver the oration. Judge Galloway is considered one of the finest orators in the Northwest, and those who fail to hear him will miss a real treat.

Every Elk and his family are expected to be present, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

COUNTY NEWS

PLEASANT VALLEY
Mr. and Mrs. John Graf, Grandma Blum and Mrs. R. W. Mills visited Charlie Blum of Miami Sunday.
"Mr. and Mrs. Ben Turner are spending a week with their daughter Mrs. John Friday at Forest Grove.
Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wismer and Walter Wismer returned home from a visit with relatives in Eastern Oregon and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse and children arrived Friday from Canada and are staying at the Ellis parental home.

Tillamook County Pomona grange will meet with Cloverdale grange Thursday December 6, 1923.

All grange members are expected to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker came home Wednesday from Portland and will stay until after Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Proctor have moved in their new house and gave a party Saturday evening which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Dr. Thompson should arrange to do so, if possible, this visit. He is contemplating a vacation trip to California which will delay his regular visits for a couple of months. Call as early in the day as possible and don't forget the date—Wednesday, Dec. 5 Tillamook Hotel 4 p. m.

WHY SMITH LEFT HOME Senior Class Comedy Benefit Performance FRIDAY DEC. 14 H. S. Gym. 8:15 p. m. Adm. 15c & 35c Tickets at Koch's

THANKSGIVING Has Come and Gone CHRISTMAS Will Soon Be Here When you are looking for Christmas gifts don't overlook the many appropriate Electrical Gifts. Their use is a source of great pleasure and always brings a pleasant thought for the giver. Coast Power Co. Tillamook Oregon