High school apportionment: District No. 9, $7796.45; No. 22, $1292.71; No. 31, $2307.82; No. 48, $332.89; U. H. S., $1343.55.

ABUNDANT CHRISTMAS CHEER

The show windows of the various stores of the city are dressed for the holidays with all kinds of Christmas goods and presents suitable for the entire family. The interior of the shops are also arranged to show Christmas offerings, artistically arranged. The stocks this year are exceptionally large and varied, and one does not need to leave the city to get almost anything one wants for Christmas presents. There are toys for the children, fancy articles of clothing for the youths and elders, and the latest wrap creations for the ladies; in fact, all one needs is to step into the stores that advertise in the Headlight, and find what you want. Buy your goods at home, and keep the money you spend circulating where it belongs. Read the Christmas ads. carefully before you start out on your Christmas shopping, and you will make no mistakes in the place to trade.

SOCIETY NOTES

The Thursday Bridge club met with

Mrs. Spitzmesser at the last meeting; Mrs. Ebinger assisted. The afternoon was spent at cards after which the hostesses served most delicious refreshments. Mrs. James Clark substituting for Mrs. Beltz won high score. Other guests were Mrs. Disney, Sr. and Mrs. Griffith.

Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Pine has been postponed one week, meeting January 10.

The J. U. G. club entertained the club husbands at a very delightful and appetizing chicken dinner last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green.

The holiday spirit being carried out in every detail, including the Christmas tree and presents, which were presented by Santa Claus after dinner. George Hansmeir enacting the honorary roll of this grand old man.

Cards and other games were the source of entertainment for the remainder of a most enjoyable evening.

The demonstration was made at the L. L. Stillwell place near this city, and about two hundred dairymen, farmers and others were present, including some county powder men. About 17,550 pounds were sold on the ground, together with the cartridges. There remained 2400 pounds to be sold before enough would be available for a carload lot, which is the least quantity that will be shipped to any community. County Agent Pine, feels sure that the remainder of the order will be made up soon, and the carload ordered. For cost of material laid down here, see the County Agent.

We Prefer to Serve the Public Well

A store of everyday advantages like this, is carefully organized and conducted. It serves faithfully and with equal fairness to all.

It is easy to hold "hip-hurrah sales" with bankrupt stocks, manufactured remnants and other least desirable merchandise, but that is not our idea of a dependable store.

We prefer serving people well with the goods they want--fresh, new, of good quality and at prices so reasonable that buyers take them away before they can grow old in our Store.
