

ABOUT THE TOWN

The County Clerk issued marriage licenses to the following couples last week: J. D. Cochran to Jean Gould, December 12. Norman L. Steward to Clara Mae Krumlauf, December 13. John M. Burkhard to Harriet DeFord, December 14th.

Ed Heisel and wife left last Saturday on an auto trip to Montesano, Washington, where they will visit with Peter Heisel and family during the holidays. They also have former Tillamook friends and acquaintances up there. In fact, there is quite a colony of former Tillamook people in the little Washington town.

Many people were in town last Friday from the lower part of the county buying Christmas presents. The city presented a more than usual lively appearance.

Large flocks of geese are winging southward. The honk of the leader blares forth in the rainy night, as the flock hugs the coast line on its journey to the alluring green wheat fields of central California. In the spring, they will repeat the flight, going north to the Arctic summer. Most geese have an unerring sense of direction. It is seldom one sees a lost goose.
