

BRIEF PERSONAL NEWS

The north winds have begun to blow along the Tillamook beach, which is said to be a good sign of spring. A spell of clear dry weather should cause the advance guard of the summer tourist procession to come this way. The roads are said to be getting in good condition in most places in this county.

Stages are trying to get a schedule that will land Portland fishermen over here at about sun-up on Sunday morning. In that case the "foreigners" will have the rivers all fished out before the average Tillamooker wakes up on Sunday. Is this a fair deal?

E. West and son of Nehalem were in the city the latter part of last week.

Rudolf Zweifel, a leading business man of Mohler, was in the city looking after business matters, last Thursday.

Alfred Gabriel, a member of the volunteer fire department of this city, underwent an operation Thursday last for hernia at the Tillamook general hospital. He is getting along nicely.

Chester E. Bennett, the man who was arrested by the sheriff at this place last Wednesday on a warrant from Multnomah county charging non-support, was called for last Friday and taken back to Portland by a deputy from that city.

Paul Disney, the calf shipper, has been laid up for a few days with an attack of grippe, but hopes to be out in a few days, and able to take up his work again.

H. A. Hess a resident of Cloverdale for the past twenty-three years, was in the city on Friday. Mr. Hess attained his eighty-second birthday last Sunday, and is still rugged and hearty.

H. F. Temple, recently from Clatskanie, Oregon, took charge of the Watson cigar store last Friday, having bought the interests of Fred Watson, the former proprietor. The place will be known as Temple's Cigar store. Mr. Temple comes well recommended here, and brings his family with him, where he hopes soon to get settled in a home.

J. F. McCormick, of the Hemlock store was in town Friday last. Mr. McCormick is rather proud of the fact that he recently received a continuous service medal to which he is entitled for active membership in the Knight of Pythias order for the past twenty-five years.

Mrs. A. N. Woods of Pleasant Valley, was in the city last Saturday.

Curtis W. Miller of Portland, a chiropractic practitioner in this city seven years ago, was in Tillamook last Saturday. He now lives in Portland, where he has a sanatorium, and is now an electronic practitioner, and will lecture here soon in the Christian church with demonstrations.

Miss Dena Hansen recently from Portland, has bought the Pollyanna shop opposite the Tillamook hotel, on Third street, and took possession Wednesday last. The shop formerly was operated by Mrs. Eastman. The name of the shop will be changed to "Dena Hansen's Gift Shop." Miss Hansen has had experience in Chicago in the line of the merchandise which she will handle, and at the present is stopping at the Emmett Bales home in this city. The change of ownership was effected Wednesday.

Lloyd Edwards has the lumber for his new cottage on the ground at Oceanside and workmen will soon begin construction of a neat summer home.

Alfred Worrall, who has been living at the Tillamook hotel for some years past, and who was a brother of P. J. Worrall, who built the Tillamook hotel, since deceased, left Thursday for his old home in Louisville, Kentucky, where he has a daughter and son, both of whom are married. He will visit there during the summer, and expects to return to Tillamook in the fall. Mr. Worrall is 81 years of age.

D. A. Johnson has purchased the service station of E. F. Rodgers at Ninth street and Second avenue, east. With the assistance of O. R. Wiley they have also added a complete line of groceries. They have moved their families and have purchased property. They have come to stay, and are anxious to serve at all times. They are well pleased with Tillamook.

N. Swain and wife of Wheeler were in the city last Sunday.

L. H. Foster of Cloverdale, spent Sunday in Tillamook.

L. L. Tomlin of Garibaldi, last Saturday.

C. J. Swendsen was up to this city from Idaville, on Saturday last.

A number of people were in the city Saturday night to take in the boxing matches at the Armory.

Ernest Gallagher of Brighton was down to the county seat last Saturday.

T. H. Johnson of Wheeler was down from the sawmill town of Wheeler Saturday last.

John Lendberg and niece, Miss Trazell of Carlton, spent the weekend at Oceanside. Mr. Lendberg is a strong booster for the Tillamook const beaches. He has a cottage at Oceanside.

Henry Morgan of Cochran, was registered at a local hotel last Saturday. Cochran is just in this county, on the S. P. road.

L. L. Crandall was called to Molalla and Portland by business last Saturday, and returned home Sunday.

Hubert Corral was out to McMinnville last of the week. He reports that Mrs. O'Dell is much better, and that his sister-in-law also is improving rapidly after a very serious operation.

A passenger to Portland last Saturday, from this city, reports that he counted two hundred autos coming in to Tillamook between the latter place and Sheridan, while on his trip out. Most of them were either fishermen or early beach tourists.

Loren Kimsey was picked up by Officer Bert Thayer last Sunday night on a charge of vagrancy, and upon being arraigned before municipal Judge White Monday morning, pleaded guilty, and was fined $20 and sentenced to ten days on the streets.

F. E. Bowman and M. D. Hawes, who constitute a firm of architects in Portland, were over here a couple of days toward the end of last week, looking over the beaches. Mr. Bowman is thinking seriously of buying a beach tract and building a nice summer home, where he wants to live the greater part of each year. While here he visited E. E. Koch, with whom he is acquainted.

H. A. Hess of Cloverdale was brought up to this city last Tuesday for medical treatment.

Alfred Gabriel, who was operated upon by Dr. Shearer for strangulated hernia last week at the Tillamook general hospital, is getting along nicely.

Eddie Heisel of Garibaldi was up here last Monday where he underwent a tonsil operation at the Tillamook general hospital.

Mrs. John Aschim was operated upon at the Tillamook general hospital last Monday for tonsillitis.

Dr. Shearer has been attending eye, ear and throat demonstrations in Portland of late, and states that he will take up that work along with his surgical practice.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ward, March 16th, 1924, a son.

Virgil Webb and father of the Sundquist-Norberg camp returned Thursday from Oregon City where they were called Monday to attend the funeral of a relative.

E. A. Nash has been employed by L. D. Smith to run the latter's dairy on Wilson river and moved his family to the new home last Thursday.

E. A. Worthington stopped in town Wednesday on his way from Nehalem, where he is employed as timber faller, to the ranch which he recently acquired near Willamina.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doak and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nott drove over from McMinnville Thursday on business connected with the J. L. Ketch real estate office. Mr. Doak is a McMinnville realtor. Mr. Nott is field organizer and circuit manager for the Ellison and White chautauqua.

Glenn Stater representing the auto supply house of Ballou & Wright, Portland, was in town Thursday.

J. L. Ketch, local real estate dealer, reports that last week Mr. and Mrs. Henry Temple, formerly of Portland, purchased the A. J. Wilks residence on E. 8th street which they will occupy in the near future. Mr. Temple is the new proprietor of the Howard cigar store.

O. L. Groves plans to rent his farm in the south end of the county and leave soon on an auto tour which will include points in southern, central and northeastern Oregon.

Wm. Sales was in town delivering a shipment of shingles yesterday from his mill on Foley Creek.

Mrs. George Grayson is visiting relatives in Forest Grove, and expects to visit friends in McMinnville, and Sheridan before returning home.

Miss Lucia Wiley went to Salem Monday last, on a business trip.

Boyd Mendenhall has gone to the Vernonia branch store for a few weeks.

Harry Thomas and wife went over to Salem Monday to attend the funeral of their friend Mrs. Roy Savage, who passed away at Portland, Thursday, March 13th. Mr. Savage and little daughter, Melva Belle, have the sympathy of many friends. The Savages lived in Tillamook several years, leaving here about two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will visit with friends in Portland, before Mr. Thomas's parents at Gresham, returning home.

Thomas Coates, Jr. who was home the latter part of the week on a visit, was selected by R. T. Boals to temporarily represent him as county chairman of a movement to raise $1,000,000 as an endowment fund for the University of Oregon. Dr. Boals could not be present, and nominated Mr. Coates to go in his stead to a meeting of the county chairman of the state to be held in Portland this week.

A. H. Callin, representing Max Crandall, the public accountant, is here, going over the books of the city, and getting the financial odds and ends in shape so that liens and other business can be systematized for the use of the recorder and the council, without endless research into past administration work.

Mrs. E. J. Brenner is quite ill, following effects of an automobile accident at Astoria last week.

Horace Addis, field man for the Oregon Farmer, was in the city this week, on business for his paper.

E. M. Condit is reported quite sick at his residence in this city.

All members of Jersey Cattle club have been requested to meet at Fairview hall March 27.

Mrs. Maude Stephens of Barview was in town Monday on business.

Mrs. Riggs mother from Vernonia is here for a short visit with her daughters, Mrs. Bert Hudson, Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Riggs.

F. B. McKinley returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.

W. G. McGee was in the city Tuesday from Nehalem.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Handley of Portland were in the city Saturday for a few hours.

Mrs. John Aschim returned the last of the week from Salem where she spent a few days.

Mrs. Burr Beals, Jr. has been visiting friends in the city the past week.

Mrs. Edith Marter is visiting her mother Mrs. Jonas Olson for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green, George Winslow and Emil Heusser, drove to Salem Monday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Roy Savage. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas went on to Portland with Mr. Savage and daughter returning home Wednesday.

An auto driven by Mrs. Branson of this city collided Monday last with one driven by "Jim", one of the proprietors of Alex's cigar store. No one was injured, but the Branson machine suffered a smashed hind wheel, Jim's machine was not much damaged. Mrs. Branson was going north on Third Ave, east and Jim was going west on Fourth street and they met near the center intersection on the above avenue and street near Th. C. Lamb residence and the Sunset garage.

Scott Messer of Rockaway was here last Saturday night, also L. S. Hinton and R. E. Dolan of Brighton.

POMONA WILL MEET AT FAIRVIEW IN MAY

The next meeting of Pomona grange will be held at Fairview grange hall on the 29th of May next, instead of the first Thursday in June, as heretofore published in these columns, states E. O. Richards, master of the Pomona grange. The change of date is made necessary on account of confliction with the state grange dates which include the date first set.

LEGION SHOW PLANNED TO BENEFIT NEW HOME

It is understood that the Shaw Amusement company of Portland, may soon put on a flashy performance at the armory, for the benefit of the American Legion. The receipts will go to help the Legion pay expense incurred when the dining room and kitchen were equipped some time ago for social functions.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to the friends in this community who assisted us during the illness and on death of our husband and father. MRS. JOSIE JOHNSON L. E. JOHNSON C. B. JOHNSON H. H. JOHNSON

JERSEY CALF CLUB TO MEET SATURDAY

The Tillamook Jersey calf club will meet at the farm of Solly Smith next Saturday, when an all day session will be had, including a program of speaking, a big dinner and calf judging. It is understood that there is likelihood of a large attendance, as there are a number of Jersey breeders in the county.

Consult Dr. J. G. Turner, eye x-ray specialist, National building, Thursdays only. 19tf

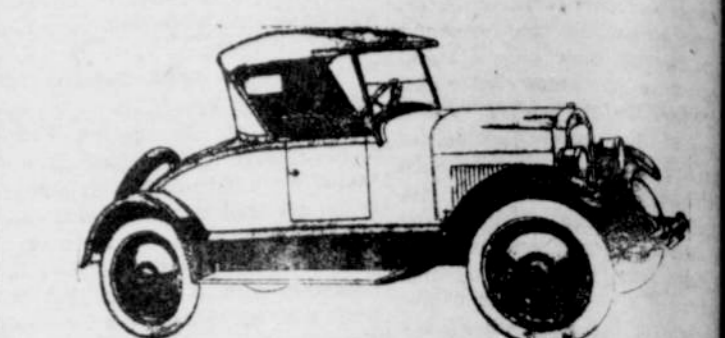

Announcing a Substantial cut In Prices Now in Effect

- Mens Suits dry cleaned and pressed $1.50
Overcoats dry cleaned and pressed 1.50
Ladies Suits dry cleaned and pressed $1.75 and up
Ladies Long Coats dry cleaned and pressed $1.50 and up
White Kid Gloves French dry cleaned short 10c pr
This gives you advantage of one of the first equipped Dry Cleaning Plants in the northwest at moderate prices.

ECONOMY CLEANERS

NEXT DOOR TO SUNSET GARAGE BOTH PHONES

THE GYPSY ROVER The high school operetta, "The Gypsy Rover," which will be given April 4, in the high school gymnasium, is well under way. The cast has been practicing about two weeks and have their parts almost mastered. work; having the dances and The chorus is also doing very well all learned. Everyone should see musical comedy, as the music is catchy, the songs clever, and costumes and scenes are very tactical.

STAR SPORT ROADSTER

With its smart steel disc wheels, nicked radiator, and aluminum deck protectors, it is a creation of beauty finished in either radio blue or maroon with top and curtains in olive green, which harmonize with body colors, and comfortable seat cushions upholstered in black high luster, long-grain leather.

MARTINY-CROTZER MOTOR CO. Inc.

STAR, DURANT FLINT CARS—MASON ROAD KING TRUCK HONEST SERVICE

PENNINGTON'S "The Quality Store" TILLAMOOK, NEW BEADS BRACELETS EAR RINGS SIDE COMBS and FANCY DRESSES COMPACTS

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES Ladies Satin, Suede and Patent Pumps $6 to $8 Ladies Blouses $5 Each This week only

EXCEPTIONALLY BEAUTIFUL NEW FROCKS AND COATS Moderately priced, $15 to $35 SPECIAL THIS WEEK Ladies Suits self and fur trimmed. Special at $20, $25 and $37.50 Sweaters Vests and Jacquettes Large range of colors and patterns $3.50 to $7.00 Boys and Girls Stocking. Sizes 6 to 11, 2 pairs for 35c Gingham special 23c yd. MEN AND BOYS JAZZ TIES AT 50¢ Men and Young Men's Clothing Just Arrived. Spring Line $25 and $50 HAT SPECIAL $5 each Latest Models Boy's Blouses and Shirts Madras and Fancy Shirting, Sizes 6 to 14 95c to $1.35 each New Line of Caps $2.50 each Snappy all sizes Boys Koko Kaps 50c each Something different

Let Me Write Your Public Liability Automobile Liability Automobile Property Damage Automobile Collision Hazard Personal Accident Health Plate Glass Burglary Lines I KNOW HOW If you can't call on me, may I call on you? Gilham-White Insurance Agency 209 Second Avenue East INSURANCE, LOANS, BONDS