LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

E. A. Clausson has been elected principal of the Wheeler schools for the ensuing year.

E. F. Lyster, one of the pioneer settlers of the Beaver section, was in the city Tuesday last, with business at the court house.

Preston Marolf and two others have taken contracts to convey logs from a logging camp, in which Connie Dye will begin to operate early this month, to a dumping place on the Trask river, when the logs will be run down to the lower bay. The new camp will be located on the divide between Killam and Fawcett creeks, where some good timber will be cut up into log length for mill on the lower bay.

The women's missionary society of the Christian church will meet at the Christian church, Thursday April 10 at 2 o'clock. Every one invited.

It is learned that Al Reynolds, who lives north of this city, was stricken with paralysis last Sunday night. Mr. Reynolds is an old resident of the county, and therefore is well known.

C. I. Clough was up to the Shepherd Springs east of Portland, for two or three days, last week.

John Jacober of Nehalem was a county seat caller Wednesday.

Mrs. A. M. Hoffman had her tonsils removed last Friday at the office of Dr. E. R. Ringo, and is getting along nicely.

E. K. Scovell, one of the oldest inhabitants in point of residence in the Nehalem section, was in the city last Wednesday on business, and incidentally meeting old friends. Mr. Scovell came to Nehalem in the year 1870—fifty four years ago. He said there was no road tax to pay when he came to the county, for the reason that there were no roads—nothing but Indian trails. Mr. Scovell is hale and hearty, and can do a good day's work, should occasion require, and still has time to keep up with the current national, state and county events, including the latest news about "Tillamook county going bankrupt!"

I'll see you at the High School Gymnasium, Friday night, April 4.—Adv.

W. F. Kane of Nehalem, was in the city on business last Thursday.

A delegation from Garibaldi was up here to see the county court Wednesday last, seeking to have Garibaldi precinct made a separate justice of the peace district.

Friday, April 4, bring your girl to the H. S. gymnasium and learn how to spoon.—Adv.

S. G. Reed, of the Necarney Mountain ranch, was in the city Thursday, on business at the court house. Mr. Reed is a candidate for commissioner from the north end of the county. Still another candidate for commissioner, is W. H. Sales of Foley. While here Mr. Reed filed as a candidate, as did Mr. Sales, A. H. Brimhall, and Bert Hudson, the latter for sheriff.

Ellet Henderson, youngest son of Judge J. L. Henderson of this city, arrived Tuesday last from Los Angeles on a visit to his father. The former states that the slump in oil in Los Angeles has put a large army of oil handlers out of work, and that it is a poor place to go for work at this time, or in fact at any time, as the corporations there hire Mexicans in preference to white labor, which labor they can get for less money. He also reports that the hoof and mouth disease is raging in Southern California, with great loss of cattle, hogs, etc.

Capt. A. W. French, formerly physical director at the Tillamook high, has been taken to the marine hospital at Bremerton, Wash. for medical treatment, having been taken seriously ill at Forest Grove, where himself and wife have been attending the University. Mrs. Orpha Eastman, Mrs. French's mother, will go over to stay with her daughter for a few weeks, leaving the latter part of the present week.

W. D. Shafer of Rockaway was in the city Thursday, and was seen at the court house.

Thomas Coates, Jr. will sing the "Holy City" in the Christian church next Sunday, at 11 a. m.

"Come my friends, and see the Gypsy Rover, in the H. S. Gym. Friday night."—Adv.

T. Shillinglaw of near Hemlock was in the city Friday last on business. Mr. Shillinglaw first came to Sandlake in this county in 1888, later removing to the Hemlock district in 1909. He keeps a few cows and has quite a tract of timber and pasture, besides enough cleared to do some farming. Mr. Shillinglaw was born in Scotland, but has been a resident of this county for 36 years past.

J. J. Hollett, a Blaine rancher, was in the city last Friday.

F. E. Dugan, a brother-in-law of M. E. Gruber of Trask lodge, and wife, are visiting the Grubers at the lodge. Mr. Dugan formerly lived at Beaver in this county, leaving here about two years ago for Oakland, California. They have now returned to this county with the intention of once more stopping in good old Tillamook.

Mayor J. Merrel Smith, who was confined to his home for a few days last week, was out for the first time Saturday, and has practically recovered from an attack of influenza.

George Smith of Nehalem was a county visitor last Friday.

Mrs. M. D. Ackley is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Lou D. Jones of Medford. Mrs. Jones plans to remain for about six weeks.

Friday, April 4, in the T. H. S. gymnasium, at 8 o'clock, you will be well entertained.—Adv.

The Tinshop theatre of this city which formerly was conducted by Toby Oliver, has been sold to A. B. Curtis of Garibaldi, who opened the theatre to the public last week. It is understood that the litigation which threatened, concerning the theatre, has been amicably settled out of court, and that the goddess of peace now mildly broods over the once super-heated atmosphere of "Chinatown."

See Lord Craven, in the Gypsy Rover, Friday night in the T. H. S. gymnasium. He is rather clever, Doncha know?—Adv.

Ed West, mayor of Nehalem, was in town Monday of this week, on business matters.

E. W. Blanchard and Jess Hayes, of Bay City, were in town, on business last Monday. They report that all houses in Bay City are occupied; that the mill is running on full time; and that fishermen are getting ready for the spring run of Chinooks. Crab fishing will soon open up in full blast, and every one who has a boat or a crab outfit expects to get after the crustaceans at a lively rate. Most of the crabs caught at Bay City are shipped to San Francisco, as the Bay City crabs are said to have a special flavor that is not found in any such like crabs on the coast.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE CHILDREN

When Is Your Birthday?

WHAT DAY AND WHAT MONTH? IT MAY BE

"The Lucky Birthday"—no one knows. Just having "The Lucky Birthday" may be worth anywhere from $1.00 to $10.00 to you—and it costs nothing to enter "The Lucky Birthday Prize Contest."

Every boy or girl under 15 years of age can enter. All you have to do is to bring father or mother with you to this store and fill out a Contest Card with the date of your birthday. That is all—nothing else is necessary—nothing need be bought. But you must bring parent or guardian with you to verify your birthday date.

"LUCKY BIRTHDAY PRIZE CONTEST"

BUSTER BROWN SHOES

Every boy or girl whose birthday is the same as "The Lucky Birthday" will receive a Cash prize—may be $10 or $5 or $2.50 or $1—that all depends upon how many boys and girls have "The Lucky Birthday"—which will be announced by us on Saturday April 19, at 8 p. m. You can register your birthday any time up to 6 p. m. April 19.

"The Lucky Birthday" is in a sealed envelope at the First National Bank. Absolutely no one knows the date in the envelope—but it is ONE of the 366 days in 1924, that is the anniversary of the birthday of some boy or girl in this community, who will get the money—if entered in "The Lucky Birthday Prize Contest" described above.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

Every boy or girl under 15 years of age is eligible to register. Bring parent or guardian to verify age. Registration to start today, April 4th. Registration to end at 6 p. m. April 19th.

Sealed envelope containing lucky date to be kept at First National Bank and to be opened publicly in our store at 8 p. m. April 19th. If only one child has registered under the lucky date $10 cash goes to that child. If more than one it will be divided equally among them.

It Pays to Pay Cash at
