

HIGH SCHOOL PAGEANT IS BEING PREPARED

(By High School Reporter)
Report cards were given out Monday amid much gnashing of teeth and wailing from the soph and juniors. The freshmen are still too much bewildered to take an active interest in grades, they are merely beginning to blink their eyes and wiggle their toes, while the seniors look on with that calm philosophy which the passing years and numberless "D's" have brought them.

The honor roll, which is composed of pupils whose monthly average reaches ninety, is as follows:

Fern Brownley, Lois Knight, Chas. Thomas, Muriel Wiley, Pebble Wells, Roletta Watson, Octavia Ware, Lunetta Pollock, Rowena Hanson, Wanda Haltom, Catherine Gabriel, Louis Himes, Mabel Anderson, Arline Heyd, Joe Heyd, Elizabeth Brian, Camille Haltom, Beatrice Sheldon, Louis Anderson and Edith Norburg.

May 16, at ten o'clock, on the Liberty school grounds, a symbolized history of Tillamook county will be portrayed by four hundred students from Tillamook schools. The leading parts will be played by high school pupils.

This pageant will open with the crowning of the May queen, who is to be chosen from the student body Friday afternoon. The climate characteristics of this county, such as the ocean spray, will pass before the queen first. The Spirit of Many Waters will dominate this scene and will do a solo dance in which she calls the five rivers of the county into the bay. The first episode, or the historical part will picture the life of the Indians before the white man intruded. The second episode depicts the coming of the first white man, Captain Gray, who comes into Tillamook bay. Some difficulty arises and he is driven out. The last part portrays the lives of the early settlers and the life of Chief Kilches.

This is an original production based on local history. It is originated and directed by Miss Leora Philippi and Miss Dorothy Bennie.

Mrs. H. C. Hanson, Rowena Hanson and Archie Pye attended another district debate at Warrington, over the week-end. The negative team of Salem won first place. Salem debaters were noted for their polish and their courtesy.
