

IN MEMORIAM

This is a day of retrospection—of harking backward and with prideful thoughts of the sacrifices of those who gave their all that a nation might live.

This is a day of anticipation—looking ahead to another meeting with them who left this life in the heat of battle, to reside in that higher plane which is their due.

Let us all remember and revere this anniversary in proper manner.

The Merchant & Professional Firms
 of Tillamook

