RELIGIOUS DEBATE

judge for yourselves.

of a Series of Articles Be tween N. W. Phelps and Frank Davey.

1924

(By Frank Davey) (Continued from last week)

There is no other profession for which such long and careful preparation is required as the Catholic riesthood. And after ordination, the church imposes many obligations on her clergy because of the nature of their work for which piety, purity and words that "the Cardinal is reported of criminal prosecution. self-denial are essential. Of course to have said." Then after his supsome priests are mose spiritual than thers, but besides private devotions, all priests must devote nearly three hours each day to religious exercises. gest that since these words are from a living author and amount to slander This is not commonly known to non-Catholics. Priests say Mass on week days the same as on Sundays, and must spend some time in prayer both dead, therefore his supposed words before and after Mass. Then, they "reported" to have been said, can must daily recite the Divine Office hardly be made the basis of court which is a collection of prayers and which is a concern, which consumes action. Phelp's high sounding talk is therefore nothing more than anfrom an hour to an hour and half each sincerity and audacity.

Yes, what priests have tried to make the in this-that God gives grace and Mr. P. is right for once; judging by laymen believe it to be ----old and strength to those who seek it from the statement of those who knew the unchangeable." This is another perhim. We do not mean to say that no venerable old priest named above, vision and one of the typical antipriest was ever untrue to his vows. this is another case of pernicious, Catholic arguments with which Phelps There are grave defects here as in diabolical slander. But kind reader, Phelps is so imbued: "Rome never all things human. As there have been Phelps wants to know why nothing is changes." With them it always works fallen angels, fallen apostles, fallen done to rosecute those guilty of above both ways. When they want to prove preachers and fallen ministers so slander. For the simple reason that that our dectrines are wrong, then lso is there the occasional unworthy the good old priest died long years they loudly prate that "Rome does priest.
