

ABOUT THE COUNTY

CLOVERDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Grotzky and baby daughter, Glenda, of Hebo made a flying trip to Portland the latter part of the week. The baby specialist under whose care the little girl has been reports her well on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prather are moving to Turner, Oregon, next Monday. Mr. Prather has been connected with the High drug store while here and will continue in the drug business at Turner where a new store is to be opened. Cloverdale is sorry to lose these young people who have made many friends while here.

Mrs. Earl Dunn and baby son of Meda visited relatives at Meda over Labor Day.

While returning with Wayne Franklin from the celebration at Pacific City late Saturday night, Otto Wilson met with a serious accident. The lights of his car failing to burn, he drove off the grade near Clear Creek. He suffered a fractured collar bone and severe bruises.

Era Meeker and Mrs. Coplin, who were drawing cards for the Labor Day celebration at Pacific City, paid Cloverdale a visit Monday. They came to view Barney Estabrook's collection of curios. Mr. Meeker was greatly interested in Barney's log house with its ox yokes and old Indian relics. This fine collection of curios is to be a feature of the Cloverdale exhibit at the Tillamook Fair.

Chaplain Gilbert, noted Oregon army chaplain, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Cloverdale hotel.

Miss Helen Adams of Portland spent several days last week with Miss Eleanor Lucy.

Rev. MacLennan and family have returned from Portland where they spent their vacation.

Miss Ann Christenson is staying with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Simmons for the winter in order to attend the school at Cloverdale.

Bert Stevens and family of Tillamook have moved to the mill here where Mr. Stevens will be employed as sawyer.

Miss Hallie Gould of Meda left Thursday for the valley where she will remain during the hop picking season.

Mrs. Will Christenson of Oretown, who was reported ill last week is now convalescent.

The members of Oretown Grange met at the grange hall last week and gave it a thorough housecleaning ready for the winter season.

The school at Oretown opened Monday with Miss Oatfield and Miss Reed as teachers.

The women of Meda school district met at the schoolhouse last week and at the schoolroom in condition for a new term Monday. Miss Twidd is in charge of the school this year.

Neskowin was filled to overflowing with visitors over the week end and Labor Day. Mr. Sandidge has just completed several very neat apartments and a number of other new buildings are under construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shortridge were away in the Beals store at Pacific City over the holidays.

The Cloverdale Telephone company has changed the switchboard into its new quarters. Mr. Mead has also installed a 400-day clock in the office which will not need to be wound again until October 1, 1925.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Werschkel left for Portland Tuesday morning. Mrs. Werschkel will go at once to the hospital where she will undergo an operation for goitre.

Mr. Harpool, the Watkins agent for this district, has rented the Chas. house next to the Catholic church for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and daughter, Mrs. Roland Maginnis with son, Merle, are camped for the winter at Woods.

Mrs. Al Wade had as week end guests, her mother and sister, Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Thomas of Pleasant Valley, her aunt, Mrs. Howard of Skane, and her grandfather Mr. Peterson of Portland.

Emmie Turner and wife drove to Astoria for a visit over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meade paid a visit to Nehalem over Saturday and Sunday.

Work on the Roosevelt highway between Neskowin is being rushed. Men are working night and day, in spite of the rain, in order to finish it before the rains set in.

The Cloverdale school opened Monday with a good attendance. E. J. Kelly of Elgin, Oregon is the new principal. The high school teachers are Miss Kathryn Woodruff and Miss Mary of Portland. The grade teachers are Miss Lois George, Miss Reusser, and Miss Bessie Hunt.

Several persons at Pacific City have died of ptomaine poisoning recently caused by eating clams, but no serious cases have been reported.

Several persons at Pacific City have died of ptomaine poisoning recently caused by eating clams, but no serious cases have been reported.

Several persons at Pacific City have died of ptomaine poisoning recently caused by eating clams, but no serious cases have been reported.

Several persons at Pacific City have died of ptomaine poisoning recently caused by eating clams, but no serious cases have been reported.

Several persons at Pacific City have died of ptomaine poisoning recently caused by eating clams, but no serious cases have been reported.

dale and Woods began operating Tuesday with Coy Bailey as carrier. Central cheese factory, about a mile below Cloverdale, was dedicated Monday with fitting ceremonies. The factory was ready for business Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kangeised of Saimon River are the proud parents of a baby son born Saturday, August 20. The Kangeiseds are staying at Oretown during the fishing season.

BAY CITY

A group of young folks gathered at the home of A. D. Simmons and spent a very enjoyable evening of games and singing after which refreshments of lemonade and cake were served. The party consisted of Naomi Simmons, Pearl Duerfeldt, Cora Pike, Myrtle Mather, Clark Adyolete Jake Posey, Dick Hayes, Albert Mather, Fred, Clayton and Gilbert Duerfeldt.

Jack Sanderson was a visitor in Bay City last week.

M. Day shot a large bear last week which had been visiting the orchards of Solon Schiffman.

Bob Purvis has a new Ford "bug."

Clark Adyolete of Eugene is spending a few weeks with relatives in Garibaldi. He was a former resident of that city.

The home of Archie Beebehesier is nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Peterson of Newberg will return to their home Tuesday after an enjoyable visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hess of this city.

A private dance was given at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jolly Saturday night. Everybody had a good time.

Pear growers of Bay City report such a heavy crop that the limbs of the trees are breaking for want of support.

Everybody in Bay City is rejoicing over the fact that Orville Bodle, manager of the Nelson and company store has succeeded in getting enough peaches to supply his customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Peterson were visitors at Rockaway Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hayes went to the Muscovite celebration at Astoria. Abe Simmons and son Don were Astoria visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Tompson were Seaside visitors Sunday.

Pacific lodge 105 received visitations from the Wheeler Odd Fellows and Rebekahs last Friday night. Bay City joined in the big supper. A dance and general good time followed.

Mrs. J. R. Foreman has returned from Blue Star camp with their children John and Marion who will start school when it opens.

A matinee was held at Bay City Sunday afternoon and "The Spirit of the U. S. A." was played.

Mr. Deately was found dead at his home Sunday morning.

FAWCETT CREEK

Ground has been cleared for the location of the saw mill which will shortly be built on the Henry Simmons place.

C. E. Walker was a patient in the hospital last week.

Lel Smith and family were visitors at the G. W. Reed home Sunday. Mr. Smith and family have recently returned from a motor trip east and say Tillamook county still looks good to them.

Bert Woods had the misfortune to lose part of his index finger. An axe which he was using glanced, causing the wound.

W. H. Edson has nearly finished clearing his slashing. W. L. Simmons was blasting stumps for him last week.

Arthur Hedges, Riley Simmons, Gene Simmons, Bert Hudson and a Mr. Smith, who is a visitor at the Riley Simmons home, were members of a hunting party last week.

Fawcett Creek school started Monday with Erma Chance in charge.

Henry Simmons is installing a new curb in his well.

Ralph Mills was cutting cord wood at the F. S. York home the fore part of the week. Mr. Mills and his saw rig are pretty busy now, we understand.

Small pox is reported in Pleasant Valley.

Toney Delpas and Herman Schlappi were up Fawcett Creek Sunday to see the cattle they have on pasture.

Hope Moore burned his slashing last night. He reports a good clean burn and no break outs to speak of.

It is reported that Riley Simmons and Arthur Hedges will start operations with the Buzzard mill some time this week.

Fred Roblich reports the loss of some logs off his car. Petty thievery seems to be growing plentiful in this vicinity of late.

BRIEF PERSONAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. H. L. Babb returned Wednesday September 3rd from Davenport Iowa, where they have been taking post graduate work at A. N. Palmer School of Chiropractic. They report very warm weather and lot of hard work long tedious hours, but the new subjects were so interesting that every other condition was easily passed over.

Ed Donaldson stepped on a rusty nail August 12, and the injury did not improve as well as expected. Wednesday evening September 3rd he was operated on by Dr. Shearer and it is reported very favorable today.

Dr. I. M. Smith reports a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Westfall, West 10th street, Tillamook city.

Walter Wisner of Pleasant Valley, has been in bed for the past ten days with small pox. Dr. Ringo is attending.

Edgar Munson, manager of the Pacific States telephone company here, left the latter part of August accompanied by his wife and sister for Sweden. Mr. Munson is on a six months furlough from the company. During his absence C. F. Klipple is wire chief. L. F. Bishop of Portland is temporarily the manager.

V. Wochnick of Portland suffered a fracture of the left wrist in an automobile accident at Netarts Monday and was cared for by Dr. Shearer.

Next Thursday is Tillamook day at the county fair and it is expected that stores will be closed for at least a portion of the day.

Otto Friedly of Portland Cheese company will score cheese at Tillamook county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Smith of Portland were week end visitors in the county at the homes of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. J. H. Hathaway and brother E. J. Gienger. Mrs. Gienger accompanied them when they left and will spend a few days in Portland.

Ike Labowitch went to Seaside and Portland last Sunday, returning for work here Thursday.

The members of the Christian church are planning a reception to the school teachers at the church Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wheeler and children of Aurora spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Mrs. Wheeler's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hathaway. They were accompanied by friends from Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Major Riesenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Spitzmesser spent Sunday and Monday in McMinnville with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Killam returning Tuesday morning.

There will be the regular preaching services both morning and evening at the United Brethren church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parks and daughter Helen took a vacation trip through Washington and southern Oregon. They returned Thursday of last week and report a very fine trip.

Leaving Wednesday morning by auto for southern Pasadena where they will spend the winter were Mrs. J. H. Hathaway and son Bennie. Bennie will attend school there this winter.

Mrs. D. O. Spitzmesser left Friday for Summitville, Indiana, called on account of sickness. She will be gone about six weeks. On returning she will stop off to visit a few days in Missouri with her people.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frankhauser, veteran weavers of carpets and rugs have established a manufacturing plant in their recently acquired home on west Third street. They were in Tillamook about two years ago and at that time turned out some very satisfactory work for several local people. These people recently located here from Portland where they had been weaving for 12 years. Mrs. Frankhauser did a great deal of weaving for the Ladies Exchange during the time spent in Portland, the chief article being a special Colonial rug. These people solicit parcel post orders especially.

North Bend—$165,000 has been spent on city paving this year. State onion crop will be good in spite of season's dry weather.

Nelson's Hairbobbing and Beauty Shoppe. Special attention given to children's haircutting. Balcony of Halton's Store. Marcelling .75, Reseal .35, Haircutting .50. Phone 147-W for Appointments.

COLISEUM. SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 7 POLA NEGRI in Shadows of Paris. MONDAY SEPTEMBER 8 AGNES AYRES in The Guilty One. TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9-10-11 Coliseum Closed—Free pictures at the Fair Grounds. FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 12 The Breaking Point. SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 13 RICHARD TALMAGE in On Time.

The DUNNING System of Improved Music Study. It is better to employ means which will inspire and not discourage, will interest, not weary. Accredited teacher for high school pupils. Advanced classes in Harmony and History. Mrs. J. C. Holden 38-W, 510 E. 1st St. Mutual COAST STAGES. Tillamook, Nehalem and Seaside. Daily. Leave stage depot at Tillamook, 9 a. m.; leave stage depot, Seaside, 3 p. m. COAST STAGES Geo. Smith, Mgr.

Another Stunt. The GOOD MAXWELL Special Sport Touring Car Can and Will Do At Tillamook County Fair. Lee Gather of Portland will give a special hair-raising exhibition of Bull Dogging a Steer from a Maxwell car, George Adams of Portland driver. Williams & Williams Garage.

PENNINGTON'S "The Quality Store" TILLAMOOK, OREGON. WOMEN'S READY-TO-WEAR for FALL AND WINTER COATS. NEW BLOCKED EFFECT EXCEEDINGLY FASHIONABLE IN CHEVONA CLOTH, IMPORTED BENCLEUGH CLOTH, DOWNYWOOL, WOOL POLAIRE SILK AND WOOL BOLIVIA KERSEY CLOTH, FUR TRIMMED IN OPOSSUM, VIATKA CONEY AND BEAVERETTE. $16 to $70. DRESSES ESPECIALLY SELECTED for AFTERNOON and EVENING WEAR IN Combinations of Brocaded satins and Georgette's, Silk Crepes and Crepe Backed Satins, self trimmed. Children's Coats All Wool Velour and Chinchilla Cloth, lined and interlined, two side pockets, box backed and trimmed. 2 yrs. to 12 yrs. $3.85 to $6.00. WOOL FABRICS FOR ALL OCCASIONS NEW HANDKERCHIEFS, NEW COLLAR AND CUFF SETS. Suits and Overcoats HART SCHAFFNER AND MARX NEW FALL LINE COMPLETE GREAT VARIETY OF FABRICS. SUITS $35 to $50 OVERCOATS $30 to $45. JUST RECEIVED NEW FALL HATS AND CAPS. UTZ AND DUNN'S SHOES FOR LADIES, WARNER'S CORSETS, AMERICAN GENTLEMEN SHOES FOR MEN, STETSON HATS. You must be satisfied or your money gladly refunded.