PREVENTING INFANTILE PARALYSIS

The name "infantile paralysis" is a misnomer, as this is not a disease confined strictly to infancy nor is paralysis a constant symptom. The disease is not common and were it not for the disability that it occasionally causes, it would not receive the widespread attention that it does at the present time. Epidemics occur every few years in temperate climates. It is a general infection due to a filterable virus. Flexner and Noguchi have cultivated the virus and produced the disease in monkeys. Rose now considers streptococci have an affinity for the central nervous system as the excitants of the disease. Cases occur singly and in epidemics. The majority of cases occur in children under five years of age. One attack apparently protects as second attacks are very rare. Children with a history of a sudden onset with fever, vomiting, and probably pain in the back of the neck, in the back, and vague symptoms of meningeal irritation, such as difficulty in swallowing, or disturbances of special senses, should be isolated and kept under observation.
 It is impossible to state definite

Mary Blum was a caller at the Henry Simmons place Sunday.
 Mr. Elliott who bought the Schields place, marketed his crop of hogs this week.
 Riley Simmons has nearly completed his fish pond.
 The Pleasant Valley school play shed was dedicated with a dance Saturday night. The proceeds will be used to purchase equipment. A good crowd and a fine time is reported.
 Mrs. Linly Goldsworthy was a visitor at the Bud Fleck home Monday.
 Mrs. Bertha Long returned from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Gus Peterson of Miami.
 Miss Jennie Reed has been caring for the G. W. Reed home during Mr. and Mrs. Reed's absence.
 Geo. Ellis has been doing some carpenter work for W. H. Edson this week.
 L. M. Simmons has been finishing his cabin this week.
 Owing to the absence of the correspondent last week the following items were not submitted:
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleck are the parents of a fine daughter. Mother and baby are doing fine.
 John Simmons has been doing some seeding on the John Blum place this week.
 Ernest Walker has been helping Bud Fleck with his burning.
 L. M. Simmons is on the sick list.
 Lyle Simmons reports the loss of twelve more mallard ducks. Some one seems to have lots of poison to give away.

FAWCET CREEK

Grandma Blum was a visitor with her son, Ame Blum of Sand Lake last week.
 The new mill on the Henry Simmons place is progressing satisfactorily, we hear. We suggest they name it "The Badger" from the amount of digging required.
 G. W. Reed was a visitor at his brother's home in Estacada last week. They say "The Buzzard" has hatched. Jim Simmons received the lumber.
 It is impossible to state definite and effective methods of preventing this disease, as information in regard to the mode of transmission is still an unsolved problem. In the absence of this information we are justified in insisting that these cases be immediately reported and isolated. All known preventive measures should be used, such as isolation, disinfection, screening and dust eradication. The infection must be fought on the ground of personal contact. Patient should be isolated in a clean, bare room, well screened to keep out insects. No visiting should be allowed and only necessary attendants should come in contact with the patient. All discharges should be thoroughly disinfected. In the prevention of any epidemic of communicable diseases it is a wise policy to avoid public meetings and gathering places.

 Treatment: Two types of serum have been used in treating this disease, convalescent human serum and immune horse serum. Providing the diagnosis can be made in time, both of these seem to give beneficial results.
 The prevention and management of epidemics of infantile paralysis calls for cooperation between citizens, physicians and health officers. The people must learn to appreciate that a greater menace lies in the concealment of cases and opposition to proper treatment than prompt reporting

CONFERENCE ON WOOD WASTE CALLED BY SECRETARY WALLACE

Secretary Wallace's call for a national conference on the utilization of forest products, has just been received at the forest service office in Portland.
 This meeting, which is to be held in Washington on November 19 and 20 will mark the most comprehensive attempt ever made in the United States to have the economical use of existing timber supplies take its essential place in the national forestry program along with the prevention of forest fires and the growing of timber crops, declares officials of the forest service.
 Thick cream—not less than 30 percent butterfat—is an advantage to the farmer, the state college department holds. It has a lower percentage of milk serum than the cream and hence does not spoil quickly. Being lighter than the cream it costs less in express charges.
