VOLUME 37; NUMBER 1,906

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 21, 1924

PRICE $2.00 THE YEAR

COUNTY BUDGET IS BEING MADE UP

All Expenses Being Reduced to Minimum for Next Year

NO NEW CONSTRUCTION

Special Road Taxes Must Provide for All New Building During 1925

County expenses will be cut to the bone, if the budget estimates now being prepared by the county court are carried out. Every effort is being made to reach the irreducible minimum, and only necessary maintenance to keep the roads in a safe condition is being allowed for. One or two county bridges may need work done on them to make them safe enough for travel.

The two-mill extra tax levy having failed in election it will be necessary to take up some of the outstanding county warrants out of the regular tax levy, with the addition of the 6 per cent lawful increase. This will make the total tax for 1925 about $22,500 higher than last year. Approximately $100,000 in outstanding warrants will be paid off.

The $30,000 for the construction of the main building for the county fair grounds will be included in the tax. It is thought probable that this amount will just cover the necessary building that is contemplated.

Practically the only construction done in the county will be by the special road district taxes, quite a number of which have been voted or will be voted upon.

FAIR BUILDING BIDS TO BE CALLED FOR

The fair board will probably hold a meeting next week to issue a call for bids on the erection of fair buildings at the new fair grounds, to be paid for out of the $30,000 levy which was voted on at the general election.

Plans and specifications have been on hand for some time, though a few small changes have been made in the plans since members of the board visited the Pacific-International stock show this fall.

The grading of the grounds has practically been completed.

OREGON'S RESOURCES LECTURE TOPIC

Oregon's undeveloped resources will be the subject of a lecture which will be delivered at the city hall Monday evening by Dr. David Eugene Olson of Eugene.

Dr. Olson is well known to many of the citizens of Tillamook county and his lecture promises to be one of interest.

In speaking of Oregon, Dr. Olson says, "This is a grand old state with a vast amount of resource lying under its surface. If what has been discovered in Oregon had been found in some other state there would be a stampede among its citizens to find it. This state is soon to discover itself to be one of the richest in the union."

The lecture is free and is scheduled to start at 7:45 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Meyer of Portland, and Fred Koenig of Chicago spent Friday and Saturday here with the Paul Diancys. Both Mr. Meyer and Mr. Koenig are connected with the Holslein-Friesian association of America. Mr. Koenig was very much impressed by Tillamook county by his first visit here.

John Steinbach returned Wednesday from Salem where he had been visiting with his mother for several days. Mrs. Steinbach accompanied him to Salem but remained there for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bortch were Tillamook visitors Thursday.

A meeting will be held next Friday evening for the purpose of considering arrangements to purchase instruments and uniforms for the Legion drum corps. V. L. White and Clarence Coe were appointed as a committee to gather information regarding the necessary supplies and the possibilities of being able to pay for them. It is said that twelve snare drums, twelve bass drums, and six trumpets will be needed to properly outfit the corps.

Quite a number of men have already been recruited for the musicians and an instructor has been secured.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE CONSIDERED SUCCESS

According to reports from the office of County School Superintendent G. B. Lamb the local teacher's institute held here Saturday was a success. One hundred and six teachers listened to the program after enrolling for the one day.

CULBERSON BABY DIES

Merle Roger, the eleven month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd B. Culberson passed away at the family home on Wilson river shortly before noon yesterday. The little fellow had not been in good health for some time but it was not thought that the illness would be serious.

Three older children, Robert, Marie, and Helen survive, besides the parents and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Doty and Mrs. Culberson.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Sale of the Red Cross tuberculosis seals in the county will probably be undertaken by the Tillamook Woman's club. It is understood that a certain amount of the funds will be available for use in the county.

Fred Robitsch of Pleasant Valley was laid up several days this week with a sprained knee received while working at the Sundquist Norberg mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor White made a trip to Portland Tuesday where Mr. White transacted business relative to the proposed American Legion drum corps.

Mrs. Chas Stephens Leads In Race for the Buick Six

Closing Of The Second Greatest Vote Offer Will Take Place This Saturday Night Also Close Of Extension Vote

| CONTESTANTS              | TOWNS      | VOTES   |
|--------------------------|------------|---------|
| Mrs. Charles E. Stephens | Hebo       | 860,400 |
| Miss Ruth Lewallen       | Mohler     | 858,900 |
| Miss Helen Leonard       | Tillamook  | 858,700 |
| Miss Velma Watson        | Tillamook  | 855,800 |
| Mrs. Claude Stott        | Cloverdale | 766,300 |

(By Frank Kane, Contest Manager)

By diligent and persistent efforts assisted with the hearty co-operation on the part of her many booster friends Mrs. Charles E. Stephens of Mohler, takes the lead this week in the race for the STANDARD BUICK six to be awarded by the Tillamook Headlight on the coming December 6.

Throughout the entire time the contest Mrs. Stephens has been patiently striving to get the lead that would impress her friends with the thoughts that she was doing her level best to be declared the winner of the first grand prize.

While the lead commanded by Mrs. Stephens is but a small margin, nevertheless it proves the facts that Mrs. Stephens has been faithful in her efforts at all times that is regarded without doubt one of the secrets of success.

Next in order on the list of aspiring contestants we find that Miss Ruth Lewallen in second position, a place no doubt that can land Miss Lewallen first on the closing date of the contest just two weeks hence.

In looking over the vote standings of all the contestants there is no denying of facts that any one of the five ladies could be declared the winner of the Buick six, the race that is close between the leaders.

With only two more weeks left till the prizes will be given away naturally the best part of the campaign is to hand, the friends of the contestants have been watching their favorites from time to time as the race progressed so that the final spurt can be the one to bring home the Buick.

It might be well to say that there is a lack of confidence on the part of some contestants. They cannot and will not appreciate their excellent opportunity to receive the $1425 Standard Buick six by using some ingenuity.

It has been pointed out from week to week during the different vote periods that the long term subscription orders would for sure win the Buick six. At this time the extension vote offer is still in vogue and will be till the 22nd. This offer will give the same votes as the first offer did with regards to extension votes.

On the coming Saturday November 22nd the closing offer of the second vote period will take place and at the same time the extension vote offer will close. This means the Zero hour in so far as greater votes are concerned, so if you're out to win the Buick six, your report of Saturday will tell the tale.

It is sad but true that the Buick six is going a begging, to think that this prize should want for enthusiastic supporters that would bend every energy to be the winner is lacking. The facts in the case are that the Buick prize is being neglected by the greater part of the contestants.

Opportunity seems to mean nothing in this campaign when taken into consideration that no weekly publication in the state of Oregon ever had the temerity to offer free such fabulous awards as will be made by the Headlight on the coming December 6th, that will soon be here.

The same may be said as to the other gifts such as the $425 Star piano, the New Edison, and the Diamond rings each and every one considered ideal gifts. However, if the contestants can stand the humiliation of being considered also rans we will let the natural course of events care for the ends.

In many enterprises of this nature there is but one prize but in the generous moments of the Headlight management the idea of fairplay was the first consideration so with that in mind it was deemed advisable to give prizes for all.

Now then the contestants are less appreciative while at the same time their friends are saying that opportunity means nothing to those that could with a little effort be declared the winner of the Buick six.

As the names of the judges to be selected by the contestants to count the votes on the closing night of the

100 PINTS MOONSHINE ARE HARD TO EXPLAIN

Grand Jury Will Decide on Story Told by Owner of Car Found Full of Booze

How hundred pints of moonshine liquor came to be found in his automobile when deputy sheriffs stopped him at Dolph last Friday at 3 o'clock in the morning, is a question Oscar W. Erickson will be called on to answer before the grand jury when it meets next month.

Erickson claims that he didn't know who the booze belonged to, but that he discovered it in his car when he started to leave Portland for Tillamook. He admitted that he didn't let it worry him any, but came on anyway without trying to find the owner of the cargo.

With him when his car was searched was J. L. Conover, James Mathieu and Mrs. Leona Johnston. The three men were released under $500 bail each and Mrs. Johnston, who recently obtained a divorce in the local courts, was released on her own recognizance to consult an attorney.

A carload, containing 76,900 pounds, of sodalot and pyrotol powder was sold here this week by the county agent to 210 people. This powder was obtained from the government war stocks, and was handled at a great saving to the purchasers, $6,160 being saved over buying it in the open market.

It is expected that another carload will be brought into the county soon.

WELLS FOUND NOT GUILTY

A jury called to decide the case of Ike Wells who was charged in the justice court with unlawful operation of a set net returned a verdict of not guilty.

Wells was jointly indicted with Clarence Hanenkrat. Hanenkrat pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined. It was brought out in the trial which was held Wednesday before Judge Stanley, that Wells had no part in the operation of the net, but that he had been transporting the fish from the river to the road for Hanenkrat.

At a regular meeting of the city council last Monday night that body voted to pay the city's share of the plastering and draining of the armory here, which will amount to $729.

Among other subjects for consideration was the first avenue project, W. J. Hill, W. B. Alderman, and F. W. Christensen being appointed as viewers. After this committee has accomplished their work the damages and benefits will be assessed.

The widening of second avenue east was discussed again and the council moved that the light cables be laid to the end of the street.

The street commission was ordered to bring in a report of the lots within the sidewalk districts which have not had concrete sidewalks installed, with a view to putting these sidewalks in and leasing the property for the costs.

A resolution for the improvement of second avenue east was adopted and calling for bids authorized.

U. S. NAVY CHALLENGES LLOYD'S PIRATE SHIP

When Frank Lloyd, who produced "The Sea Hawk," the big First National drama now playing at the Coliseum theatre sailed out of San Pedro, Cal., harbor with his four ancient ships, used in the picture, he passed the Pacific fleet at the breakwater and fired a salute to his friend Admiral Coontz, in command. From the deck of the Cruiser Seattle, his flagship, Admiral Coontz watched the little fleet approach, ordered a radio officer on deck and in a few minutes Mr. Lloyd's cabin radio amplifier sang out "Admiral Coontz's compliments to Admiral Lloyd. It's a fight you want come on. Our ships are growing for target practice."

A novel advertising scheme is being introduced by Mr. Melindo, manager of the Circuit theatre this week in co-operation with the merchants of the city. Free tickets to the Saturday matinee at the theatre are being given out by these merchants to their customers.

NEW BAKERY

A new bakery was opened last week in the Watson building on second avenue east, by William M. Martin and L. Doolittle. Electric ovens are used for bakery and it is said that the establishment will be strictly up to date in its equipment and able to handle a large trade.

Mr. Martin operates a grocery at Geribaldi, but will devote considerable of his time to work at the bakery here.

Homer Mason drove to Salem Sunday and brought Mrs. Mason home Monday. Mrs. Mason has been staying in Salem during the illness of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. McLeod who was operated on recently for appendicitis. The Masons brought their two grandchildren home with them for a short visit.

Martin Becker is much improved following an operation last Friday.

H. J. Rasmussen is completing the interior of his new store in the Watson building this week, where he intends to handle sash and doors, builders supplies and paints. Mrs. Rasmussen has been handling this line in the county for several months, being located at Rockaway.

With only a month until Christmas the merchants are beginning to display their holiday wares.
