What I Believe

If you have tried other methods and have failed to get well, I believe that I can help you. I am now equipped with the latest instrument on the market, a Neurocalameter.

Experimental work on approximately a thousand cases has proved that there are many cases of nerve pressure which can not be accurately located without the Neurocalameter. The Neurocalameter locates them and by using it as a ckeek results can be obtained in from one-fourth to one-half the time necessary when a reading is not made.

BIG EDUCATIONAL PRODUCTION

The World's Wonder Jungle Serial
A boy and a girl growing up together in the heart of the wild African jungle fighting daily for life, happiness and love. The most sensational, thrilling, exciting and appealing love story ever written by the world's greatest jungle story teller.

The Son of Tarzan

IS
A mammoth masterpiece of supreme direction, produced on a scale that rivals that of a big special feature. Each of the fifteen episodes is a complete story, with far more action (thrills and excitement) than is contained in the regular special feature pictures. Do not fail to see these two wild children of the jungle in their picturesque but necessarily scant costumes of leopard skins; watch them grow up to manhood and womanhood midst the wild, savage, exotic African wilderness—watch them conquer fate and the brutal savagery of uncivilized nature—watch them rise triumphant over innumerable perils and win their way to happiness and love.

Don't miss this big opportunity to see this big movie picture, Edgar Rice Burroughs latest story. Ask your merchant for tickets, they all have them.
