Universality UNIVERSAL telephone service must be universal in scope—it must reach anyone, anywhere. But it must be universal also in cost—it must be within the financial reach of everyone, everywhere. Years of research have been required to provide the telephone instruments, switchboards, wire and supplementary apparatus which afford intercommunication between housewives, shopkeepers, farmers and millions of other American telephone users. But these facilities do not in themselves make America's telephone service a universal service. Telephone engineers have spent years of additional study in order to build, maintain and operate this nation-wide system so economically that the cost of service may be kept at all times well below its value to the telephone user. Upon the two fundamentals of extensiveness in scope and economy in cost the Bell System has built the most universal telephone service in the World. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company BELL SYSTEM One Policy • One System • Universal Service so here's to good digestion Frye's Delicious Bacon Good bacon is the best of good foods, full of nourishment, not too solid, and easily digested. Frye's "Delicious" Bacon is not only "everything the name implies" but its preparation by the exclusive Frye process makes it unusually savory and mild flavored. It's splendid food for children, too—if they don't care for bacon they quickly change their minds if you try them with Frye's "Delicious" just once. Every side of Bacon stamped with the brand name "Delicious" is U. S. Government inspected for absolute purity and its choice goodness never varies because it comes only from carefully selected young grain-fed porkers. DELICIOUS BRAND
