Miss Brown was for many years Washington State President of the W. C. T. U. She has delivered these lectures in many churches, schools and colleges throughout the country. Her messages on these timely subjects have been highly appreciated wherever they have been given.

"Always moral education is greatly needed, and surely tremendously so in these days. We feel it exceedingly important that our young women have this course as a part of their preparation for Christian work. We very much appreciate the lessons given us in the Northwest Training school by Miss Brown, and pray God's blessing upon the work." Ruth A. Fogle, northwest training school.

"I am glad to give my testimony to the splendid work being done by Miss Brown. I feel that the lessons were of great value to our students in North Pacific Evangelistic Institute." Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, instructor in N. P. E. I. (Friends.)

"Miss Brown's presentation of the subject is delightful. Her clean, unimpeached interpretation makes this, once difficult subject, easy. To nurses, both graduate and undergraduate, to mother's clubs and teachers, I especially urge that you all avail yourselves of the opportunity to hear Miss Brown." Miss Florence Besley, American Red Cross representative.
