The Tillamook Herald

E. E. Crumley, Editor

Issued Twice a Week . . . Tuesday and Friday

Entered at second-class matter May 17, 1911, at the post office at Tillamook, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Advertising Rates

FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1919.

There is a good opportunity for some one to build a hotel at Wheeler. The town has a fine location and an industrial boom and should have a good hotel.

Tillamook county is rapidly becoming a dairy center and the creamery business is growing accordingly. Both the Tillamook and Nehalem creameries are doing a large business and are paying out much money to the farmers.

The Tillamook Commercial Club is getting busy and is planning to do some good work for the city and county. The club has a live membership and with the right kind of work can be made a power for good.

Tillamook county is rapidly coming to the front as a dairy county. The cheese factory is now running to its full capacity and the creameries are receiving more cream than ever before. The dairy cow is the mainstay of the farmer and the more cows he has the more money he will make.

President Wilson and members of the State Council of Defense in regard to the wearing of arms and insignia of fraternal and other societies, should be complied with at once and strictly.

One of our local papers recently published an argument advocating the Plumley Substitute and was entertained by the President of the Organization but the Superintendent of Public Schools was not. Perhaps the reason was because the people of Tillamook county realized the fact that the Plumley Substitute was a scheme to destroy the public schools and therefore they refused to have anything to do with it.

The Democrats of the state seem to be in a quandary as to what to do with Governor Withycombe. Some favor indorsing him, others favor nominating their own candidate, while a few favor indorsing Governor Withycombe. The Democrats do not seem to know what they want and are waiting for some one else to take the initiative