WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A complete surprise was sprung on Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Noyes Saturday May 17th, when in response to invitations sent out by their children, a company gathered at their country home to help celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Some say that women cannot keep a secret but they surely did in this case as it was a complete surprise indeed. About one o'clock all sat down at two long tables and partook of a sumptuous dinner prepared and served by their three daughters, Mrs. Violet Stillwell, Mrs. Eula Finney and Miss Mable Noyes. A group picture was taken and all had a happy time throughout the afternoon. Several beautiful and valuable gifts were presented to the worthy couple in a touching way by Rev. Kuhlman. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Pangborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parnell and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Breeden, Rev. H. W. Kuhlman's family, Mrs. W. M. Heaston, Mr. Robt. Stillwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Finney, Mr. Cressel Mills and Bert Folks of Corvallis, Oregon. Several invited guests were unavoidably absent.

A SOCIAL EVENT.

A delightful event in the social life of the city took place at the home of Mrs. Webster Holmes last Friday when Mrs. Clough, Mrs. Groat and Mrs. Holmes were hostesses to fifty ladies. A profusion of carnations, narcissus and sweet peas throughout the rooms added a charm to the appointments of the occasion. Six tables of progressive whist were provided for those who wished to indulge in cards, other guests finding diversion in fancy work and conversation. Souvenirs of the afternoon were received by Mrs. Sarah and Mrs. Small. Refreshments in two courses were served at five o'clock, the Misses Allegra Mason, Pauline and Helen Beals and Ruth Holmes assisting the hostesses in serving. A beautiful solo "The Garden of Dreams", sung by Mrs. MacKenzie, Mrs. Christensen at the piano, completed an afternoon of rare enjoyment.
