It is to be mixed with water and therefore is less expensive than other fly killers.

FOR SALE AT

ALL GROCERS

P. A. Mosier of Portland is now en- gaged at Haltom's. He has charge of the dry goods and advertising depart- ment.

Rev. H. W. Kuhlman, returned from Portland Sunday evening and after the sermon by Rev. Hiram Gould of Forest Grove, who preached at the M. E. Church that evening, he made a state- ment in regard to his late trouble in Portland. On Monday evening Rev. Kuhlman continued his statement be- fore an executive session of the church membership. His statements were backed up by strong testimony by Rev. McDougal, Methodist district superin- tendent of the city of Portland; Dr. Tremble, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, and Rev. Hugh, editor of the Christian Advocate; all of whom heard all the testimony in the case and state that there was not one thing to show that Rev. Kuhlman had done any- thing wrong. He had violated a city ordinance which provides that a man is liable to arrest in Portland for even speaking to a woman after a certain hour at night. Rev. Kuhlman admitted having violated this ordinance, while endeavoring to study law enforcement and social conditions of the city, not knowing of the ordinance. According to the testimony of Rev. Kuhlman and the other above named gentlemen the Oregonian has seriously spread itself in regard to this matter. After asking Rev. Kuhl- man a number of questions and further considering the matter every member of the church present pressed forward and expressed their confidence in him by word and hearty hand shake. Mem- bers of the church had been in commun- ication with Portland parties during the day, and the opinion from Portland was to the effect that Rev. Kuhlman has been done a gross injustice. We have it from those who have known Rev. Kuhlman for years that this is the first time a shadow of suspicion has been raised against his character.
