

Long Beach

Choicest and Most Advantageously Situated of the New Additions to the Famous Bayocean Beach Resort

All lots are 20 to 50 feet above sea level, affording the most complete and beautiful view to be had along the entire beach, and are located right at the famous Bayocean sea caves and agate beds.

Some of these caves are quite large and can be explored at low tide. They are a source of never ending wonder, each new tide bringing in different specimens of ocean life, while the agate beds have a reputation all over the state for the beauty and variety of their offerings.

Razor clams, mussels, crabs, sea-fish, and all kinds of ocean food to be had in abundance right at your door, while the bay, just behind you, affords six different kinds of shell fish, as well as excellent salmon and trout fishing.

Good bear and deer hunting in the hills near by which also abound with smaller game.

Only a mile from the Cape Mears light.

And listen—the new Tillamook—Bayocean road, planned to be the very finest of its kind in the country, and which is to be built next summer, will come right through our property on its way to Bayocean.

Will this increase the value of our land, or won't it?

All lots are comparatively level, easily and cheaply cleared, have all kinds of the best water, and you don't have to pay $1,000 for one either.

Our finest ocean front lots are only $400 and we have them as cheap as $50.—A little down and a little a month will buy you one.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

A 9-year-old Eskimo girl has arrived at Astoria and will attend school there.

Police Chief Ed Shaw, of Oregon City, has ordered that the poundmaster kill all unlicensed dogs on sight.

A full grown porcupine was issued and killed by members of the night police force in the heart of Eugene.

War against the speeder will be waged by the Portland automobile club against violations in every part of Oregon.

Clatskanie residents have subscribed $500 toward the fund for the survey of the route of the proposed Columbia highway through Columbia county.

The state legislative committee named to investigate the power possibilities of Five Mile rapids of the Columbia river will meet in Portland soon to consider the proposition.

The first passenger train to be run over the new Eugene-Coos Bay railroad was an excursion from Eugene to Nott Sunday, in celebration of the arrival of the road to Nott.

Six persons were injured, one probably fatally, in a runaway near Wacanda. A party of 20 was going to a hayrack when the horses became frightened at a dog and ran away.

In a proclamation issued by Governor West the chief executive of the state officially placed his approval on the Made-in-Oregon day movement, and officially proclaimed Monday as that important day.

Ears of corn 12 to 14 inches long, completely filled with juicy kernels, testify as to the efficiency of dry farming in Malheur county. O. B. Johnson, a farmer of Bully creek, brought samples of the corn to Vale.

Five applications for the position of superintendent of the institution for feeble minded have been received by the state board of control. Frank E. Smith's resignation becomes effective October 1.

Returning after 10 years to finish his college course, C. C. Baker, for two years superintendent of city schools at Lebanon, arrived in Eugene with his son to enter the University of Oregon. Both father and son will attend college, the son as a freshman and the father as a senior.

Robert O. Graves, an attorney of Marshfield, has been ordered to appear before the state supreme court October 17 to show cause why he should not be disbarred for alleged activity in connection with deportation of J. W. Edgeworth and two other I. W. Ws. June 25.

The Port of Portland commission has offered to the government nearly half a million dollars in aid of work on the north jetty at the mouth of the Columbia river. It was the first unit of a program designed to cut the time necessary to completion of the jetty from six to three years, and to realize within a year such benefits to bar channel deepening as will permit free entrance to the larger vessels of the Panama canal fleets.

Twenty or more cities and towns are preparing to vote this fall on the question of abolishing the saloons under the home rule amendment. Places where the "drys" are going to endeavor to wrest the control from the "wets" include Salem, The Dalles, Oregon City, Springfield, Joseph, Heppner, Echo, Monument, Sutherlin, Gresham, Hillsboro, Marshfield, Bandon, Rainier, Harrisburg, Glendale, Dufur, Newport and Falls City.

The work of reforestation from 4900 to 500 acres of denuded mountain slopes in Oregon and Washington is about to be undertaken by the United States forest service. Both the direct seeding method, in which the tree seed is planted in spots, and the planting of nursery-grown trees will be employed, and something over 3000 pounds of seed and 800,000 plants will be used.

Co-operation between the state governments of Oregon and Washington and the war and interior departments of the federal government will be sought by the committee created by the Oregon legislature to determine the feasibility of, and to outline plans for, the construction of a publicly-owned hydro-electric power project on the Columbia river near the Big Eddy rapids.

In order that the men employed in the state printing office may be paid weekly, as was the case under the administration of the late state printer, W. S. Dunlway, and in all other printing offices, State Printer Harris has made arrangements with the Ladd & Bush bank to borrow about $300, or whatever amount is necessary, on his own note weekly to meet the payroll.

Every available member of the agricultural staff and experiment station force of the Oregon Agricultural college are out in the field judging at the county, school and grange fairs. The demand has been so great this year on the college force that it has been impossible to meet it, despite the fact that more than 40 people have been put into the service. The college is requested to send representatives to judge livestock, horticultural products, grains and grasses and other field crops, poultry, home economics exhibits and even the baby shows.

Brief News of the Week

The last lap has been reached in the construction of the Panama canal, and small vessels are expected to use the big ditch by October 10.
