Louie Labowitch, proprietor of the Grand Leader, left on Monday morning for Portland where he has gone to look after some matters in connection with purchasing new goods for his store.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Worrall left on Monday for a trip outside. Mrs. Wor-rall will go on to Oklahoma on a business trip and P. J. will return to Tillamook in a few days.

The regular meeting of the Fire Company will be held Thursday evening at the City Hall. Several "stunts" have been arranged for the meeting and C. I. Clough has donated refreshments to be served.

We repair watches, clocks, jewelry and musical instruments. Jacob Grasen, European watch maker, next door to Gem Theatre. All work guaranteed.

Otto Pagel of Wheeler, was taken seriously ill with appendicitis last week and on Saturday he was brought to Dr. Hoala's hospital where he was operated on by the doctor. The patient is reported to be getting along fine.

E. N. Wagy and H. E. Bailey proprietors of the Crystal laundry will still call for work as usual. Their office will be at the City Transfer Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Painter of Pine Valley, Baker County, who visited their old friend John Whalin at Sand-lake, last week, took the train here Monday morning for home. They enjoyed their visit very much, and were very favorably impressed with the country.

The "B. B. Club," composed of high school girls, met at the home Allegra Mason on Monday evening. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Alice Todd. The officers of the club are: Allegra Mason, president; Mildred Ford, vice-president; Alice Todd, secretary and treasurer; Daisy Goodspeed, sergeant at arms.

Bob Irvine, a fisherman who resides near the Whitney ranch on the Wilson River, has been arrested on the charge of breaking into the residence of Mr.
 Grabel near Bayoccan and stealing a gun. Irvine is at present under the charge of Constable Dawson, pending further investigation. He declares that he did not steal the gun, but took it from another person, knowing the gun was stolen property, and sold it to buy food. We understand the case will be brought up for trial this afternoon. It is liable to go quite severely with the defendant.

BAY CITY NEWS ITEMS

From Examiner:

Chris Lesund, wife and two children, former residents of Bay City, sailed from New York on the 28th of October for Norway where they will make their future home. While here Mr. Lesund was considered one of the most successful fishermen on the bay and his absence will be noticed in Bay City's fishing industry.

Sunday being a perfect day a small party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hays, Walter Oliver, Milt Hamilton, Miss Lila Hamilton, Miss Irene Elliott, and Ed Meritt filled a big lunch bak-et with lots to eat and went to Bay-ocean Park across the bay for the farewell picnic of the season. They had a grand time searching for agates, gathering huckleberries, climbing the hills, and roaming the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Hays took the baby along and the little fellow seemed to enjoy the outing as much as did the rest.

Mr. N. C. Peterson, of the Bay City Ship yards, Thursday launched a power boat which is said to excel in workmanship and engine power all boats now on Tillamook Bay. The craft was built to the order of Mr. Chris Hansen and will be driven by a Standard horse power gasoline engine. Mr. Peterson claims the hull to be the best product ever turned out of his shipyard.

Left Sunday; married to Mrs. Andrew Williams at Vancouver, Washington Monday; returned to Bay City, Tuesday; is the exciting story told by Mr. W. B. Harris upon his return. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have many friends in this community and their marriage was a complete surprise to everyone here, not even Mr. English—his business associate—knowing his intentions.
 Mr. Harris is a Bay City property owner and he and his bride will be at home to friends as soon as they become settled in their new residence.

BIDS WANTED FOR

 County, Oregon, requests bids for the building of a school house, also for felling trees on acre of school grounds.
 Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. For full particulars address Mrs. Jennie A. Reeher, Clerk, Wilson River, Oregon.

Oregon Agricultural College FARMERS' WEEK
 December 8 to 13, 1913

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.
 Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

WINTER SHORT COURSE January 5 to 30, 1914

The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of course will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on FARMERS' CO-OPER-ATION, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tution. Accommodations reasonable.
 Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address

A seagoing dredge will be sent from the Atlantic coast for use in the Columbia river channel, just as soon as the Panama canal is opened, according to information received by Dr.
 Kinney, chairman of the Ports of Columbia committee.

Senator Lane, after a competitive examination, has appointed Wilson S.
 Zimmerman of Portland as midship-man at Annapolis Naval academy, naming Lawrence Schepky of Hood River as alternate. If Zimmerman fails to pass the entrance examination, Schepky will have a chance.

Governor West has written the editor of the Coos Bay Times of Marshfield for advice on suing the C. A.
 Smith Lumber company for school lands which may have been obtained by fraudulent means. The newspaper has been attacking the governor's policy.

Governor West has referred to United States District Attorney Reames of Portland for investigation, a letter received from C. A. Rold of Yountville, Cal. in which Rold says a company called the Farm and Home company of San Francisco, is representing to him that it will locate him on a 320-acre homestead in southern Oregon for a fee of $320.

Senator Chamberlain presented Miss Fern Hobbs, secretary to Governor West, to Assistant Secretary of the Interior Jones and to Land Commissioner Talman, in order that she might bring up questions of the Oregon indemnity school land selections on which patents have not yet been issued. Miss Hobbs and Secretary Chamberlain had a conference with Representative Hawley regarding the Chamberlain bill, providing for an exchange of school lands in forest reserves and the creation of a state forest reserve.
