The many friends of A. G. Beals who is afflicted with the small pox, will be pleased to learn that he is getting along as well as can be expected, and seems to be on the mend. He had a fairly comfortable day Thursday and passed a restful night last night. The doctors have been kept busy this week vaccinating the people.
The farmers from all parts of the county are gathering in town today to take part in the discussion in regard to the county budget. A large delegation arrived from Nehalem yesterday evening among whom were: A. Anderson, Wm. and Henry Tohl, H. Tubbs-ing, Geo. Loehrpabel, Fred Zaddach, D. F. Thompson, Geo. McKimmens, Rudolph Zweifel and J. W. Thompson.
Attorney Huntington, representing The Warren Construction Co., was in the city Thursday, checking up some warrants which they have on the city.
They have a warrant of $16,000 against the city which was issued in payment of the sewers, which is now due, all the warrants ahead of this warrant having been paid but there is only $2000 on hand with which to pay the same. On account of there not being enough on hand to pay the whole amount Treasurer Gaylord does not feel safe in paying any unless the council so authorizes.

W. Grathwell of Pacific University.
Subject: "The Legs of the Beast" Mr. Grathwell is the winner of the Intercollegiate oratorical contest in the spring of 1913. He is a young man of exceptional platform ability. Though still a young man in college, he is a mighty leader for civic righteousness.
Come and hear him.
The special music will consist of a Violin duet by Miss Debar and Mr.
Koch, a solo by Mrs. MacKenzie, and

THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST.
The theatre going people of Tillamook are very much interested in the coming production of The Tillamook Dramatic Club. It will be a play of which we have read a great deal, but never had a chance to see here—"The Girl of the Golden West," under the direction of B. J. McCowell and a cast of people especially selected for the different parts. Later the date and Cast will be announced. A number of surprises await the people when they see this play.

GOVERNOR WOULD AID UNEMPLOYED
December 1, 1913.

To the Editor:
We wish to ask your kind co-operation in a movement to connect our unemployed with a job. There are undoubtedly many residents of your county who could use the services of a good hand this winter and there are many idle men in Portland and other cities in this state who would be glad to have a place.
If you will be kind enough to run this letter and attached information blank in a few issues of your paper our plan will be called to the attention of those needing a hand. Any requests for labor made to our office will at once be taken up with those who are hunting for employment.
Assuring you that your co-operation will be greatly appreciated, I am Yours very truly,
Oswald West,
Governor.
