THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST

The Early History of California says:
 "In those strange days, people coming from— God knows where, joined forces in that far Western land and according to the rude custom of the camp, their very names were soon lost and unrecorded, and here they struggled, laughed, gambled, cursed, killed, loved and worked out their strange destinies in a manner incredible to us of today.
 Of one thing only we are sure—they lived." Such is the foundation on which the play "The Girl of the Golden West" is built. It is in Three Acts and each Act is better than the other—New Scenery and electric effects are being installed in the Star Theatre where the play will be presented Friday and Saturday Nights Dec. 19-20.
 Admission 35c Children 25c. No reserv-
