Attorney General Crawford in the case Herman Schollmeyer vs the Nehalem Water Co., which has been up before the Supreme court. The case involves water rights and privileges on Bob's Creek near Nehalem City. Mr. Schollmeyer desires water rights for power purposes while Nehalem City desires rights for municipal purposes.

Latest advices from San Francisco bring the joyful news that John Smith left there last week and Monday was located on his way here, so we will soon be in position to announce the date on which he will be at the Star Theatre. There are two women here who claim to be the wife of John Smith. Is there a mistake or is John a Mormon? Dick Brown is coming with Smith. Dick is a jolly good fellow, he will teach you how to "square" a deal, and Dick is good, on the square.
Later telegram from Portland. "John Smith here; will leave for Tillamook at earliest convenience, treat him good for he's a jolly good fellow. So watch for date of his arrival. It will soon be announced.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies Guild the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. P. Groat; Vice-president, Mrs.
Fred C. Baker; Secretary, Mrs. E. M.
Balas; Treasurer, Mrs. Carl Haberlaich.

The first lecture on the general subject of Mexico was given in the Guild house last Wednesday evening, at which about 40 persons were present.
The specific topic taken up was the topography of Mexico, dealing in detail with its contour, mountains, rivers, plateaus, climatic features, and the staple and indigenous products of this wonderful land of contrasts. At the close of the lecture the ladies served coffee and cake, and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed by all.

Next Wednesday evening, 7:45 p. m., the subject, "The People of Mexico," will be discussed, dealing in detail with the aborigines, the creoles, the mestizos, the Spaniards and the system of slavery known as peonage.
These lectures are free to all, and at the close of the lecture the ladies will serve coffee and cake.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Last Tuesday night a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heisel gathered at their home to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise to the couple. All sorts of games were enjoyed by both old and young alike, after which a delicious lunch was served. About mid-night the party broke up, everyone wishing Mr. and Mrs. Heisel many more happy years.
