"WHEN SMITH LEFT HOME"

In the name of the play the Dramatic Club is to offer to their many friends at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday, January 30th, and 31st. Everyone is wandering if it will be as good as their last play, and according to the reports we hear as the play progresses in practice, we are under the impression it will even be better. This play is intended to make you laugh, and laugh you will. There will be some new faces in the cast, as everyone is picked to fit the part they are to play. Mr. McCowell is now painting a complete new set of scenery for this play, and the usual new pictures will be run between the acts. If you want an evening of good fun, see this play.

OPIE READ.
 Opie Read, who is to appear here this season, is one of America's greatest authors as well as lecturers. His power to entertain and instruct an audience is marvelous, and his use of beautiful English is equally notable. His American stories have made for themselves a secure place in the affections of the American people. It has been said that he received the highest prices for his writings of any author in America.
 Opie Read is an original thinker. He is also a fine story teller and tells only his own stories. He tells them as none other can and has delighted thousands. A program by Mr. Read must needs serly abound in entertainment. He is also a philosopher and wit. His recital of the adventures of Lin Jucklin is the keenest arraignment of modern fraud and abuse extant. It is a strong and manly contribution to the work of social and political reform. He has an interesting and powerful personality. He is tall and commanding. Resolution and courage are prominently announced in his look, and he has deep convictions.

 Opie Read is a master painter of the things that stir men's souls. His recitals are keen and penetrating. He takes his audiences with him. They shed honest tears at his tender passages and laugh boisterously at his flashes of humor.

COUGH TWO YEARS OLD
 Yields to Vinol. Read Why.
 Strong vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.
 Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run down condition again?
 Mrs. D. A. McGee of Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a chronic cold and cough which kept me awake nights for two years and I felt tired all the time. Vinol cured my cough and I feel stronger in every way."
 The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood building from cods.
 Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.
 You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say.
 P. S.—For itching, burning skin try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.

Lameness
 Sloan's Liniment is a speedy, reliable remedy for lameness in horses and farm stock. Here's proof.
 "I had a horse sprain his shoulder by pulling, and he was so lame he could not carry foot at all. I got a bottle of your Liniment and put it on four times, and in three days he showed no lameness at all, and made a thirty mile trip besides."—Chas. E. Clough, Jr., La Salle, Cal.
 For Spleen and Thrush
 "I have used Sloan's Liniment on a fine mare for spleen and cured her. This makes the third horse I've cured. Have recommended it to my neighbors for thrush and they say it is fine. I find it the best Liniment I ever used. I keep on hand your Sure Cough Cure for myself and neighbors, and I can certainly recommend it for Cough."—S. E. Smith, McManis, Cal.
SLOAN'S LINIMENT is a quick, safe remedy for poultry rump, canker and hump-foot. Try it.
 For Roup and Canker
 "Sloan's Liniment is the speediest and surest remedy for poultry rump and canker in all its forms, especially for canker in the windpipe."—E. F. Spaulding, Jeffers, N. H.
