A delightful evening was spent Friday, January 23rd, at the home of H. Hansen in playing games and guessing contests. Miss Lucile Rowe and Cliff Kinnaman were awarded prizes in the latter. A special feature of the evening was some exquisite piano duets rendered by Miss Cecil Kinnaman and Geo. Hoskins. Refreshments were served by the hostess in a three course supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Honey, Carl Heisel, Miss Rowena Hansen, Cliff Kinnaman, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen, the Misses Lucile and Sylvia Rowe, Cecil Kinnaman, Earle White, Geo. Hoskins, Rev. Herbert Waits and Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaman.

The Sheets home was the center of a gay throng of young people last Saturday evening, the occasion being Nick Sheets' birthday.
There were about twenty people present.
Card and other parlor games were indulged in and at midnight a bounteous luncheon was served which was enjoyed by all.
At a late hour, after wishing Nick many more happy birthdays, the guests departed to their several homes.

MAY LOWER EXPRESS RATES
Commission Submits Plan for States of Oregon and Washington.
Portland, Ore.—Express rates in Oregon and Washington will be twice the first-class freight rates on the railroad lines in the same states, if a schedule submitted by the Oregon railroad commission to the several express carriers operating in the same states is adopted.

The commission submitted its proposal to the express officials, who will take it under advisement until January 23, when a meeting will be held in Portland at which railroad commissioners of Oregon, Washington and Idaho and all the express companies operating in the three states will be present.

Educational System Failure, Says Hill.
St. Paul.—"Our system of education is a dismal failure," was the indictment of James J. Hill, empire builder, who spoke at the 30th annual banquet of the Northwestern Yale Alumni association. "The public schools," Hill said, "are turning out pupils unfit for any use."

"Belle Stebrecht," a bright pink rose of a hardy variety, may be chosen as the "Albany rose."
Dallas National bank at Dallas has filed application to become member of the new banking system.
Congressional action looking toward election of United States senators in Oregon will be unnecessary, states Senator Chamberlain, who says the Oregon law on the case is legal.

The Coos County Good Roads association will renew its campaign for a county bond issue for building permanent, hard-surface roads in the near future.
Unemployed men who come to Portland to seek work and free food at the hands of the city may be sent to the rockpile, if the plans of the mayor are carried out. No imposters will be permitted.

During the year 1913 the supreme court handed down 354 written opinions on motions and four dissenting opinions. Since the court was increased to seven judges the court has averaged nearly 39 opinions a month.
In attempting to rearrange the star routes in Oregon the postoffice department has met with many protests from localities which are threatened with a curtailment of the service to which they have been accustomed.

Senator Chamberlain predicts that the country is on the eve of a great business awakening. He says that the tariff problems and the currency question, being out of the way, makes the future clear for commercial progress.
The increase of deposits for the Portland postal savings bank for December over November was $11,705, or an average of $400 a day. The total deposits December 31 were $906,631.

Colonel Charles H. Martin, U. S. A., retired, commander of the Third infantry, Oregon National Guard, held a New Year's reception to the officers under his command and the regiment, at the armory in Portland.
Congressman W. C. Hawley is trying to induce congress to follow out the suggestion of the Portland chamber of commerce to have an adequate Alaskan exhibit at the San Francisco exposition.

OPIE READ.
Opie Read, who is to appear here this season, is one of America's greatest authors as well as lecturers. His power to entertain and instruct an audience is marvelous, and his use of beautiful English is equally notable.
His American stories have made for themselves a secure place in the affections of the American people. It has been said that he received the highest prices for his writings of any author in America.
Opie Read is an original thinker. He is also a fine story teller and tells only his own stories. He tells them as none other can and has delighted thousands. A program by Mr. Read must needs sarily abound in entertainment. He is also a philosopher and wit.

OPIE READ.
His recital of the adventures of Lin Jucklin is the keenest arraignment of modern fraud and abuse extant. It is a strong and manly contribution to the work of social and political reform.
He has an interesting and powerful personality. He is tall and commanding. Resolution and courage are prominently announced in his look, and he has deep convictions.
Opie Read is a master painter of the things that stir men's souls. His recitals are keen and penetrating. He takes his audiences with him. They shed honest tears at his tender passages and laugh boisterously at his flashes of humor.

COUGH TWO YEARS OLD
Yields to Vinol. Read Why.
Strong vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.
Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run down condition again?
Mrs. D. A. McGee of Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a chronic cold and cough which kept me awake nights for two years and I felt tired all the time. Vinol cured my cough and I feel stronger in every way."
The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood building iron added.
Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.
You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say.
P. S.—For itching, burning skin try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.

Lameness
Sloan's Liniment is a speedy, reliable remedy for lameness in horses and farm stock. Here's proof.
Lameness Cures
"I had a horse sprain his shoulder by pulling, and he was so lame he could not carry foot at all. I got a bottle of your Liniment and put it on four times, and in three days he showed no lameness at all, and made a thirty mile trip besides."—Walter B. Alford, La Salle, Cal.
For Splint and Thrush
"I have used Sloan's Liniment on a fine mare for splint and cured her. This makes the third horse I've cured. Have recommended it to my neighbors for thrush and they say it is fine. I find it the best Liniment I ever used. I keep on hand your Sure Colic Cure for myself and neighbors, and I can certainly recommend it for Colic."—S. E. Smith, McDonough, Ga.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT is a quick, safe remedy for poultry roup, canker and bumble-foot. Try it.
For Roup and Canker
"Sloan's Liniment is the speediest and surest remedy for poultry roup and canker in all its forms, especially for canker in the windpipe."—L. P. Spaulding, Jeffrey, Ar. S.
