BRYAN ALMOST TASTES WINE

Wife Staffs Hand Bearing Drink of Champagne Upward.

New York—With a glass of champagne almost to his lips, Will in Jennings Bryan was prevented from drinking the wine by the quick action of his wife.

The incident took place at the first annual dinner given by the Authors' League of America. Four hundred attended and Winston Churchill presided.

In the course of his speech the guest of honor reached for a drink of water. Inadvertently he picked up a glass of champagne. Mrs. Bryan, seeing her husband's mistake, sprang from her place, two seats away from the secretary, and hurrying to him, put her hand over the glass just as it was to reach his lips. Mr. Bryan looked surprised for an instant, then laughingly picked up a glass of water.

Author of Tunnel Outrage is Caught.

El Paso, Tex.—Maximo Castillo, the Mexican lander charged with responsibility for the Cimarron tunnel disaster, in which ten Americans and 41 others lost their lives, was captured 35 miles south of Hachita, N. M., by American troops. With the bandit were six of his followers. According to a brief dispatch they surrendered without a fight.

2-Pounder 11 Weeks Old.

Tacoma—Florence Virginia Cole is a future veteran of Washington here who is attracting much attention because at the age of 11 weeks she weighs only two pounds. The nurses say she is perfectly normal in every way and has not been sick at all in the weeks of her existence in the basket surrounded by hot water bottles.

HEROES OF MAINE ARE REMEMBERED

Washington—Homage to the men of the battleship Maine, who lost their lives in the epoch-making catastrophe in Havana harbor 15 years ago, was paid Monday by the navy and high officials of the nation at Arlington national cemetery. Snow-covered graves decorated with floral tributes, and a stanch little vessel ploughed through the ice floes of the Potomac to strew sprigs of evergreen on the water.

Over the graves a detachment of bluejackets fired three volleys and a national salute, and a bugler sounded "raps."

Impressive exercises were held indoors at Fort Meyer, the blizzard making it impossible to carry out the programme planned at the cemetery. Hundreds had braved the freezing blasts, however, to participate in the ceremonies.

San Francisco—F. C. Mills, superintendent, James R. Smith, vice-president and general manager, and E. H. Mayer, warehouse officer and employee of the "Pacifi-Coke" company, were found guilty of attempting to defraud the government out of customs duties on imported coal. Edward J. Sweeney, checker, was acquitted.
