TILLAMOOK HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Work on the Musicale to be given March 6th is progressing rapidly now, and the cutertainment promises to be well prepared by that date.

There were mysterious movements on the part of the students last week, the occasion for which was Prof. Buchanan's birthday anniversary. (The number of it, since it is not known. will be repressed.) The Faculty was startled one morning, when they were requested to leave the Assembly room for a few minutes; they may have feared mutiny or bookey and they may though they are found in many not have, at any rate they acceded to streams of smaller size on the east the request and departed.
