

HON. CALVIN R. WORRALL
Lawyer and General Business Counselor.

He has decided to make his home with us and has opened an office in Tillamook block, adjoining the Commercial Club rooms, where he invites all to call and get acquainted.

Mr. Worrall is also an expert accountant and will handle book-keeping, auditing books, collecting accounts, etc.

In his capacity as general counselor, his large experience in the business world and his ability will make him a valuable advisor to business men and corporations, also in systematizing advertising and enlarging any business, or in selling or buying a business; he has had charge as attorney, secretary and manager, also publicity and auditing for business firms, banks, wealthy men and corporations.

As a lawyer he will give special attention to examining and passing of real estate titles, as well as the titles and values of any business or property for sale or trade.

Mr. Worrall is of mature years and wide experience in the law and business world, after a collegiate education, he graduated in 1870 with class honors from the law department of Indiana University, he has certificates to practice law in the highest courts in Indiana, Iowa, California and Oregon. He spent many years in the law in Indiana, where he had a well earned reputation as a lawyer. Political and business man of large stature; some years ago he promoted a Bank and Trust Co. in New Mexico, and was its president and manager for two years, until his removal to California and later to Oregon.

Ased his reasons for locating in Tillamook, he stated that he recognized the wonderful future of this county and state, that he was tired of the shams, hypocrisy, immorality, graft and commercialism, the dollar above the man, of the large cities, that he loved the homes of smaller towns.

Knowing that Mr. Worrall had been located in office and otherwise, he asked him if he expected to seek political office or other honors here, his reply was "I come an honest you as a plain citizen, not to dictate or try to run things, not to assume leadership in any line, but to follow and to assist the other citizens here in developing the resources of your county and by word and action to aid others, who have been here longer, in building up and advertising your city and county. I do not claim superiority in any way, I have lived long enough to recognize that I am but a small atom on earth. I hope by my energy and whatever of ability, education and experience I may have, to merit the esteem and patronage of the citizens of your county, that I may be enabled to live and be of use to others to assist in every way in my humble manner, in making Tillamook County larger in population and wealth, and its citizenship better in its business, home, school and church life."

As a lawyer Mr. Worrall will specialize in a general advisory way, ever keeping in mind that old legal maxim "the best advice to a client is to keep out of court, but once in court to win." Contracts, the settling of estates, wills, deeds, guardianship, etc., will be given my best and most conscientious attention, always remembering to make only such reasonable charges as will not be a burden upon anyone rich or poor, and a square deal to all.

Mr. Worrall is a 32 Degree Mason, a member of the Grand Lodge of Elks and was formerly a Past Chancellor K. of P. Lodge and the I.O.O.F. and Red Men.

Amongst Mr. Worrall's many references we are permitted to quote from the following leading men of the nation:

Ex-President Taft: "He is a lawyer and business man of large experience."

Vice-President Marshall: "He is a man of excellent business ability and sterling character."

Ex-Governor of Indiana: "Any trust assigned him will be honestly and capably executed."

Champ Clark, Speaker of Congress: "He is a gentleman of great ability, experienced as a lawyer and banker and speaker of reputation."

U. S. Senator Kern: "I have a personal acquaintance of 25 years, he is a lawyer of ability, worthy of respect and confidence."

George Curry, former congressman and Governor of New Mexico: "He was prominent in business, political and banking circles in our state, an honorable, high minded gentleman."

President and Cashier, 1st National Bank of Bloomington Ind.: "He did business with us 20 years, his reputation A. 1, a live wire, a leading citizen and lawyer of ability, whom the public may safely trust."

Tom Taggart, leading wealthy citizen of Ind.: "After living in Indiana 25 years, he leaves with the respect and confidence of everyone who knew him."

Mr. Worrall has similar letters from many congressmen, U.S. senators, state officers, including two congressmen from California, where he last resided. Since coming to us he has had many friends, by his gentlemanly conduct and ability and we are certain the citizens of this county will join us in welcoming him and will encourage him by giving him a portion of our business.
