FRIDAY MAY 22, 1914.

There is every evidence that there will be considerable stir in Tillamook City on clean-up day, which will be Thursday, June 11. If every one does their share of the work in hand we will be able to make a fine showing and put our little city in a presentable appearance for the coming of the old soldiers. The clean-up day idea is a good one and everyone should fall in line.

The question is often asked: How large a population has Tillamook City? There are many opinions in regard to the matter but no one knows what our population is. Outsiders who are interested in our town would like to know and many of our town people would like to know. It might be possible and advisable for the commercial club to take the matter up. The work of taking a census could be divided in such a way as not to be overburdensome, and it could be completed in a few days.

Those who have in charge the work of providing sleeping places and entertainment for the old soldiers during the encampment may meet with some obstacles. Our people should not be slow in opening their hearts and homes to the old veterans who may come here for a few days next month. We must not forget that we are deeply indebted to them, and what little trouble we may go to now in connection with their entertainment will be but a faint recognition of their past services. We trust the old soldier boys will leave Tillamook feeling that we have one of the finest cities in the state and that our people are the best, kindest and most hospitable.

RANCHER RESENTS ATTACK ON FARM VALUES

In last week's issue of the Nephalem Times was published an interview from Rudolph Zweifel of Mohler, in regard to the attack which the Headlight is making on Tillamook land values. The farmers of Tillamook county are very much wrought up over the Headlight's attitude, and Mr. Zweifel's ideas seem to be in accord with the opinions of farmers throughout the county in general.

Following is Mr. Zweifel's interview: "We are receiving a cent more per pound for our cheese this year than one year ago at this time," said Rudolph Zweifel, manager of the Mohler Creamery. "I can see nothing in the outlook of the market to warrant these willful assertions that the Tillamook County farmers are being injured by the reduction of tariff on cheese. The farmers so far this year are receiving more for their butter fat than at the same time a year ago.

"I am sorry to see any one attempt to knock the cheese industry of this country in this manner. It is unfortunate that we have a man in the responsible position of publishing a newspaper who is knocking the price the farmer has placed upon his land—a price that is justified by every principle by which land values can be attained. It is not so much that these jabs at the farmers and cheese makers effect us here at home, but these stories must, some of them, go outside of the county and they hurt.

"Supposing a man was investigating the country with the idea of investing in farm lands and was preparing to come here and work for us for the improvement of the county. What kind of an impression would these stories repeatedly published in the Headlight have upon his mind. There is no reasonable argument we can put up to overcome the false impression these newspaper articles produce. It makes no difference how convincing we prove to the man that we are giving him value for his money, he is lost at the very start.

"While other newspapers of the county are trying to work with the farmers and trying to advertise the county in a legitimate way, Mr. Baker is doing everything in his power to knock the farmers and we should resent it. It comes home personally to us. There is no other industry that deserves more encouragement, for it is the foundation upon which our cities and prosperity is built. When the farmer is undermined, the progress and prosperity of our county is endangered.

"I am sorry to see it."

OUR PRESIDENT

From Harper's Weekly: "How well he seems to have managed it—this whole sordid business of going to war; how fair he has been; how patient, how dignified, how infinitely gentle and kind. No bluster, no threats, no smicker of anticipation; no licking of the nation's chops—just a simple-souled, brave, soft-hearted, hard-headed man. It is sad enough to go into war of any kind at any time but it is less sad to go knowing that every honorable means has been taken to keep away from war. And this consolation President Wilson has given us by his wise, forbearing, Christian attitude before the provocation of a foe mad and desperate and foolish.

"The good God, who knows all and watches over all, and sees all, and directs all, war in our hearts deeper than we knew when as a nation we chose this great, serene soul to lead us."

This editorial by William Allen White, in the Emporia Gazette, was written 48 hours before the news of the acceptance of the A. B. C. offer of mediation. The western papers have understood better than those in the east the difficulties which the president has faced and his consummate ability in dealing with them. The eastern papers have, as a rule, been inadequate to the appreciation of Wilson's aims. They have prepared for the worst at each national crisis instead of expecting that a man who could adequately cope with one difficulty would, in all probability, stand a chance of coping well with the next. Only occasionally have the eastern papers risen to a proper appreciation of the place that Wilson takes in the nation, as in the New York Times for April 27, which said: "And herein is another evidence of the curious efficiency with which the Democratic principle manages, in times of confusion and doubt, to work itself out. An able and upright but experienced man in the office of president, with immense power, in a crisis of great gravity, succeeds, by the exercise of his best judgment and by the light of conscience, in shaping his policy so that it fairly embodies the best opinion and purpose of the nation, fixes high its standard of conduct, and rallies to his support the great mass of the right-minded and honest among his fellow-citizens."

BAY CITY ENTERTAINS BANDS

The Tillamook County Boosters' Band held their bi-monthly reunion at Bay City on Sunday May 17th. Their next get-together rehearsal and concert will be held at Nehalem Bay on May 31st, and on June 14th Cloverdale will be the place decided on for their entertainment.

Bay City and the county side turned out in large numbers for the Tillamook County Boosters' Band entertainment held there on last Sunday. It is hard to tell which were the entertainers, the band or the hospitable people of Bay City. Early in the morning the Cloverdale band accompanied by a number of people from the "south end" came rolling into town in their autos, and taking their breakfast in this city, proceeded on to Bay City. The Wheeler and Nehalem boys came down on the early motor car, and the Tillamook boys went down in the big auto truck of the City Transfer Company. A large number of Tillamook citizens following the band boys on the noon time motor car.

The Tillamook County Boosters' band held their rehearsal in the forenoon and at 1 o'clock were entertained at a banquet arranged by the band boys of Bay City and their ladies, who deserve much praise and credit for the bountiful spread. The ladies deserve special praise for the bounty of the spread and the excellence of the service. Those in charge were the Mesdames W. C. Trombley, W. H. Moon, Sarah Petess, E. B. Jacoby, J. W. Jennings, A. L. Nichols and A. D. Simmons, who were the lunch committee and the Misses Beatrice Clark, Maud Moon, Edith Jennings, Verna Sesten and Mrs. Harley Conyer who served.

W. C. Trombley conducted the afternoon concert on the Main street of the city with a 47-piece band, a large number of people being gathered together to hear the music. The Tillamook County Boosters' band organization was then introduced to the people by Rollie W. Watson, its purpose and aims explained, in connection with bringing the people of the both ends of the county together in social and business intercourse, the Booster excursion from this county being planned by the band boys to take in the San Francisco exposition next year, and the many advantages afforded by this live organization from the point of making our county better known the country over generally and the advertising feature principally afforded by the organization in placing Tillamook county to the front. It was also explained that the bands of Nehalem, Cloverdale, Wheeler, Bay City and Tillamook should receive the financial support and encouragement of the citizens of their various towns and of the county as a whole, to help the good work of the boys along, as they are deserving of special consideration. The citizens of Bay City done their selves proud and the band boys appreciate the hospitality shown on this occasion.
