LAND SEEKERS FROM PORTLAND

During the past week seven different parties have viewed the lands on the Miami and Hatch Creek with the intention of purchasing land. Several walked out as far as the Gatchett homestead but the poor roads in that direction soon turned them back. Mr. and Mrs. R. Stead of Portland wished to try dairying in Tillamook and they liked the dairy farms on the Miami but the lack of a county road on the east side of the Miami, where most of the dairy farms are situated, dissuaded them from purchasing. The idea of fording a river to get to a county road did not appeal strongly.

CITIZENS OF GARIBALDI PROTEST GIVING STREET TO S. P.

P. railroad company, one of her streets will be presented to the county court at the June term. Messrs. McMillan and Nelson who own property on the aforesaid street are circulating the petition.

It seems that many signers of a petition to close the street thought they were petitioning for a new depot in Garibaldi and have now also signed the remonstrance, which goes to prove that a person circulating a petition for almost any object can always get signers and the best element in the community at that.
