FRIDAY JUNE 19, 1914.

ENCAMPMENT COMES TO A CLOSE.

The 33rd annual encampment of the G. A. R. Department of Oregon, finished its work on Thursday and on Friday morning the visitors left for their respective homes, one and all declaring most emphatically that they had had the time of their lives, and that Tillamook was truly the convention city of the state.

Receptions.

Two receptions were given to the ladies of the W. R. C. and the ladies of the G. A. R. at the Tillamook Commercial Club. The first of these was given by the ladies of the Club on Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday the ladies belonging to the Grange were the hostesses. Refreshments were served and the lady visitors appreciated these receptions.

Wednesday Evening's Entertainment.

On Wednesday evening the Christian Church was again packed, when the following program was rendered: Distant Climes. Ladies Trio. Reading (Benedict Arnold) Florence Chapman.

Song. Male Quartette. Recitation. Billie Stillwell. Whistling Solo. Lamontine Clark. Reading Drill. Little Folks. Flowering, Parody Betsey and I are out. J. H. Johnson. Flag Drill by young ladies.

Solo. Mrs. Trombley. Reading (Reverie in church). Mrs. Rhea Anthes. Solo (Good Bye, Tosti) Mrs. Mackenzie.

One pleasing feature of this gathering was the Woman's Relief Corps presenting the G. A. R. with $235.00.

The Veteran Quartette.

The Veteran quartette was composed of M. N. Morse, J. E. Hall, A. W. Mills and Z. M. Parvin, and at the meetings at the Christian Church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings they were loudly applauded and repeatedly encored, compliments the quartet certainly deserved.

G. A. R. Elections.

Next Meeting Place.

McMinnville was chosen as the next meeting place of the G. A. R. Encampment as mentioned, but the delegates from that city preferred to wait until another year before extending an invitation to visit that city.

Joint Installation.

A joint installation took place on Thursday morning in the skating rink, which was well attended, and this closed the business of the 33rd encampment.

Auto Trips.

On Thursday afternoon the visitors were taken in autos to visit the cheese factories and see the surrounding country. This proved to be highly pleasing to the visitors, over sixty autos were in the procession, and as there were not enough machines, some of them made two trips. A number went down to Bar View owing to the beach trip being cut out and stayed over night.

There might be a chance for the disappointed candidates in Mexico. They need some good men down there.

It is not always the best man that is nominated. The disappointed ones can get comfort from that thought.

A few good laws that the common people can understand without having to hire a lawyer to explain them is what we need.

"When the righteous rule a nation rejoiceth, but when the wicked rule a nation mourneth."—Solomon. Who ruled in putting the burden of high taxes on the people, was it a righteous legislature?

"He that stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor shall cry himself and shall not be heard."—Solomon. Rockefeller, Jr., should memorize this verse and bear the cry of the poor miners of Colorado.

If you vote for the eight hour law in November, next year when you go to put your hay in, if you work your hired man a half hour over the eight hours to save your hay, you will lay yourself liable for a criminal offense.

Everybody boost for the County Fair, Sept. 15 to 18. There are a lot of premiums for some one. Let everybody try and get some of them.

I think that there is not much doubt of Dr. Smith's election in November. When the Oregonian and Headlight oppose a man the people know he is alright. So you are voting for a good man when voting for Dr. Smith.

BARVIEW NEWS.

Gibisch and Joplin have erected two buildings, one at Miami and one at Bar View, to be used as telegraph offices for the operators who route the trains of stone over the main line of the P. R. & N. road.

Dr. W. A. Wise is improving his property here, and expects soon to erect a new residence.

The pile driver for the deep sea work has arrived and will be set up in a few days.

Bar View will soon have a good live push club. Preparatory steps were taken at a meeting held at the post office Tuesday evening.

The bowling alley, managed by R. E. and E. F. Jackson, is a popular place and is already doing a good business.

A party consisting of W. G. Dwight Albert Maroff and wife, Mr. Snelling, S. S. Johnson and wife and Oak Nolan came down from Tillamook last Sunday and spent the day on the beach.

A large crowd attended the opening dance on last Saturday night at this place. The fine music will bring the people.

J. H. Oliver and R. E. Jackson had business in Portland this week.

Vernon Bailey in company with his wife Florence Merfman Bailey are here from Washington D. C. Mr. Bailey is chief field naturalist of the biological survey at Washington. Mrs. Bailey is also a distinguished naturalist having made a life study of birds.

They are making a tour of the northwest in the study of birds and plants. Mr. Bailey is mapping out the country into life zones, and making a study of correlation of artificial with the native plants. Mrs. Bailey is gathering material for the fourth edition of her "Hand book of birds of the western United States." This is a valuable book and should be in all our homes. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will remain in Oregon two months after which they will go to California. They are very pleasant people to meet and expressed themselves as being perfectly delighted with their trip to Oregon.

W. G. Carroll chief engineer in company with Capt Robert Farley and others of the United States life saving station here made a survey of the bar at the mouth of the Nehalem river last week, and found a seven foot channel at low water.

Walter H. Kent arrived from Waldport last week and took the place in the life saving station which was made vacant by the resignation of Don C. Ellis. We are informed that Don will become a fisherman.

Fred Bingley of Portland postoffice is spending his annual vacation in this county. While in Tillamook City last week he conducted an examination for candidates for fourth class postmasters. This is Mr. Bingley's first visit to Tillamook and he was very favorably impressed with conditions here and the future outlook for this part of Oregon. While at Bar View he was the guest of his old time friend H. S. Brimball, who handled mail with him for several years in the Portland office.
