

BAR VIEW NOTES.

Friday morning the G. A. R. Special train, homeward bound from Tillamook stopped here two hours while two hundred old soldiers and their families enjoyed themselves on the beach.

Captain Farley with the lifesavers gave several drills which were greatly enjoyed by the visitors, many of whom had never seen the like before. In return the drum corps composed of old soldiers enlivened the crowd which had thronged the beach by their splendid rendition of war songs. Everyone enjoyed the short stay of the old soldiers. Among the passengers on the special were G. C. Morris, Asst. Supt. and W. H. Jenkin, Traveling Passenger Agent officials of the road.

Mrs. Weber, wife of Rev. Weber, pastor of the Methodist Church in Tillamook, is here with her four children and will enjoy the sea breezes in a cozy cottage for a month or so.

Mrs. Snelling, wife of Lawyer Snelling of Tillamook is here with her two children, digging clams and hunting crabs. They are enjoying themselves hugely.

Leonard Burke and John Imhalt of Clondale were in town Friday with a party of telephone officials consisting of Roy B. Walls, Manager, D. C. Brown and Edgar Munson who came up from Tillamook to repair some broken lines.

Early Friday morning the Elmore pickup boat conveying a line of fishboats from the Garibaldi cannery to Nehalem and when going out over the bar the fish boats in some manner got adrift and the larger boat had a lively time picking them all up before they got out of reach.

Thursday W. R. Conley, in the employ of the S. P. Co. installed the telegraph instruments in the office of Glebisch & Joplin at Miami.

A party consisting of County Surveyor U. G. Jackson and wife, Mrs. McGhee and her mother, Mrs. W. Wiley and Miss Drew came up from Tillamook Thursday in Mr. Jackson's auto and returned the same day.

Dr. B. F. Rambo and family of St. Johns, Oregon were here for a few days the first of the week.

J. H. Oliver is enjoying a visit from his mother who lives at Newberg. Mrs. Oliver is a member of the W. R. C. and came over with the G. A. R. train.

H. D. Jones, a Christian Science practitioner of Portland, was here over Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Jones was accompanied by his friend C. A. Armstrong of Denver.

Ed Minar and wife came in from Portland Saturday and are occupying the Jackson cottage on Main street. They were accompanied by Leon Jackson, a brother of Mrs. Minar. Leon has been attending school at Eugene the past year and will spend the summer at the beach.

The family of J. H. Smith are entertaining their friends Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones of St. Johns, Oregon.

Mrs. J. C. Williams of Banks, Oregon is here for a week or so. She is accompanied by her brother A. J. Palmer and wife of Wheatland, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Devine arrived from Portland Sunday and will occupy the Dr. Rambo cottage this summer.

Miss Irene Carter a teacher in the schools at Milwaukie, Or., arrived the first of the week and will spend the summer with her father E. P. Carter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Morgan of Cathlamet, Washington, are visiting their son Chas. Morgan and son at Garibaldi. They may remain all summer.

Hero Parsons of Tillamook will conduct a confectionery store and ice cream parlor here this summer.

R. E. Jackson is erecting a building on Main street which will be occupied by Edward Minar who expects to open a confectionery store.

Church, the candy man has returned. Barview will celebrate the Fourth of July with a Clean Baked, Drill by the Life Savers, Fireworks, Bonfire on the Beach and some other amusements. Look for the posters.

The music furnished by the orchestra is making a great hit. The dances are becoming more popular and Mr. Schnaufer and all the members in fact are to be congratulated.

A suit for damages has been filed in the Circuit Court at Tillamook by W. C. Dwight and Mr. Kiger against Glebisch and Joplin, jetty contractors here. The suit will be tried before Judge Holmes this week. In their complaint the plaintiffs allege a violation of contract.

ROCKAWAY AND ALONG THE BEACHES.

The rain of the past few days has been rather a hindrance to the Beachers who are busy getting every thing in readiness for summer traffic.

Mr. Archies little son came near having a serious accident while playing on the beach with some other children. They were digging sand from under a log when the log rolled on him. Only for timely aid from some men who were working near by he would have been crushed to death.

Mrs. G. A. Jones and son who have been spending the winter in Portland have arrived at the beach for the summer.

Considerable improvements have been going on along the beaches this summer.

The G. A. Jones Realty Co. have opened a new grocery store with meat market in connection.

W. E. Anderson has enlarged their place of business, and are now prepared to accommodate the public, both eating and sleeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gray have rented their Sea View House to some outside parties, and are now taking life easy.

Mr. Van Norrie, our popular barber has equipped his rooms for billiards, carom and bowling.

The opening dance of the season given by Stevens and Bergen, at Salt-str, on June 23, was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Miss Gladys Beck returned from Portland Tuesday and will assist U. C. Byers in her home during the busy season.

Mrs. Homer Davis and children returned Sunday from a visit with her mother at Oregon City.

The new cafe at the rear of the Elmore rooming house is now in full operation.

Mr. E. H. Wood has built an ice cream and confectionery room on the north of his studio.

Dr. Wood of Hillsboro spent a few days last week at his new cottage in Elmore.

The life line has again been anchored at Rockaway beach and many are enjoying a dip in the surf.

A Rockawayan.

BAYOCEAN NEWS NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Turner of Salem arrived Sunday and are occupying their cottage on High St.

Mrs. B. E. Hughson and children, accompanied by Mrs. Whitney and children of Portland, arrived on Saturday and are occupying the Hughson cottage for the summer. Mr. Hughson will join his family next Wednesday.

Mrs. H. Woodhouse, of Portland, and a party of friends arrived last week and will occupy the Wao house cottage for the season.

The Bayocean artificial natorium is fast nearing completion and will be open to the public July 4th.

The amusement pavilion which was formerly located in the tent city grounds has been removed to 12th Ave., opposite the natorium and a kitchen and tea room is being added.

The greater part of the bungalows being built to replace the tents in the tent city are completed and the remainder will be completed within a few days.

Mr. Reed, who will have charge of the natorium and hotel arrived from Portland Tuesday.

Pavement is being laid on High Terrace and Bay Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods arrived from Portland last week and will operate the tea room opposite the natorium on 12th ave.

H. I. King has moved to his property on Bay street, a house which he purchased of P. D. Hance. He will remodel and improve and will occupy it in future.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Admits Killing Babe.
Prineville—D. K. Sheldon, a young mill worker, arrested here on a charge of having slain his own day-old babe while its mother, in ignorance of what was transpiring, lay in the next room, made a dramatic confession.

Sheldon said he wanted to get the babe out of the way so that his wife could help him earn a living. He waited until his wife was asleep, he said, and then gave the babe a big dose of poison, later placing the little body by his wife's side.

Gila Monster Bites Man.
Medford.—James King, a carnival snake charmer, was bitten by a Gila monster in the presence of scores of women and children, dozens of whom fainted.

King became hysterical and fell in a collapse in the pit. Attaches tried the reptile's jaws apart and rushed King to Sacred Heart hospital. His life is despaired of.

Boundary Plan Proposed.
Albany.—A plan whereby all confusion over county boundaries owing to changes in river courses will be obliterated, is being developed here for presentation at the next session of the legislature. It is planned to cure the enactment of a law char all such boundaries now exist providing that in the future the boundary lines shall shift with the river.

JOSEPH B. FORAKER

Joseph B. Foraker, former United States senator from Ohio, who is seeking the senatorial nomination at the primaries.

Grief News of the Week

Seeding miners in Montana declare they will ignore the Western Federation and organize a new union.

The rebel gunboat Tampoco was sunk in battle with the federal gunboat Guerrero, and 20 men were killed and wounded.

The "Lulu Fardo" dance, which is of Portuguese origin, is the latest, says a New York dispatch. The dance is said to be really a lulu.

Chicago passed through the coldest day reported in June for many years, the thermometer registering 52 degrees.

Kansas sweltered at 105, and a number of prostrations in the wheat fields were reported because of the weather conditions.

Six established lines already have served notice upon the Panama canal management of their intention to make regular use of the waterway.

The progressive party in Oklahoma has decided to put a full state ticket in the field this fall, headed by John P. Hickam as candidate for governor.

Ardent suffragettes at Vancouver, B. C., are refusing to join in the singing of "God Save the King." They rise and turn their backs on the audience when the national anthem is struck up in the theatres frequently.

War to the knife against the federals with the formation of a third league in organized baseball as the first blow was practically decided on here when the national baseball commission met in conclave with more than a score of leaders in the organized camp.

The New Jersey progressive state committee and chairman of the county committees, at a conference, went on record as opposed to any amalgamation with the republicans or any other party in the coming primary and general election.

People in the News

Major Curtis of Portland, Me., won the democratic nomination for governor by a good margin.

President Wilson named Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, an original Wilson supporter, receiver of public moneys in San Francisco.

The British government has ordered a warship to Durazzo, Albania, to insure the safety of Prince William and his family. Other nations will send war vessels to the scene, it is declared.

John P. Weyerhaeuser, oldest son of the late timber magnate, was elected president of the company at the annual meeting held at Tacoma, Wash.

Admiral Fletcher, who has been in Mexican waters for more than a year, will return to Washington to confer with Secretary Daniels and the president.

Arrivals from Vera Cruz from Mexico City said President Huerta and Sir Lionel Garden, the retiring British minister, had quarreled. Huerta formerly tried to such of Sir Lionel's advice.

The estate of the late Adlai Stevenson, which is valued at $100,000, will be shared by the three children of the former vice-president of the United States.

The degree of doctor of laws has been conferred on General William Crawford Gorgas, chief sanitary officer of the Panama canal and Rumulo S. Nacion, Argentine ambassador to the United States and one of the "A. B. C." peace mediators.

The average of insane persons among each 100,000 is on the increase, according to the statement of Dr. A. J. Rusanoff, of New York. Massachusetts shows the highest average, it is declared.

Specialists are wondering at the feats of a child prodigy, Raphael Peters of Boston, who can read the most difficult literary productions and pronounce correctly almost every word in the English language. He is five years old.

SAMUEL GOMPERS

Samuel Gompers, the famous labor leader, who is said to be planning a school teachers' union.

JUROR SEIZED AS SLAYER

Investigation of Girl's Death Under Auto Has Dramatic Climax.

Toronto—The inquest over the death of Mary Mash, killed by being run down by a reckless motorist, came to dramatic termination by the arrest of John H. Whaley, foreman of the jury investigating the case on the charge of having killed the girl.

Whaley was traced by a piece of broken glass picked up on the scene which fitted perfectly the broken windshield on his automobile. The foreman was taken from the jury box to the prisoners' bar.

After the incident Whaley drove on at great speed and escaped detection, it is alleged. On leaving the garage he was seized with a summons to act on the coroner's jury and was elected foreman.

Man Feeding Lions Torn to Pieces.

Chicago—Ramon D. Dietrich, 26 years old, a graduate of Cornell university, was torn to shreds by five lions when he had entered to feed them. They voraciously ate him.

Dancing AT Barview
Every night except Monday Always a Good Time
Portland Music Management Schnaufer's Orchestra
Big All Night Dance July 4th

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Tillamook County.

Richard F. Ryan, plaintiff, vs. Defendants.

To the above named defendants, Richard F. Ryan, also all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, lien, interest or estate, in the real estate described in the complaint herein:

You and each of you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint as is herein required, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in plaintiff's complaint, to-wit: for a decree that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described real estate, situate in Tillamook County, Oregon, to-wit: The E 1/2 of the E 1/2 of Section twenty (20) in Township one (1) south of range seven (7) west of the Willamette Meridian containing 160 acres, in Tillamook County, Oregon; also the N. E. 1/4 of the N. E. 1/4 of section twenty-four (24), and the S. 1/2 of the S. E. 1/4 and the N. W. 1/4 of the S. E. 1/4 of section thirteen (13), in township one (1), north of range eight (8) west of the Willamette Meridian in Oregon, containing 170 acres; also lot seven (7) in block

Supreme Sodas
FREE Treat!! Collect 12 ends from six packages of "Supreme" baked crackers or cakes, and if your dealer can not supply you with a surprise box of "Supreme" Baked Soda, mail them direct to us and it will be sent at once by parcel post, absolutely free.

Tillamook County BEACHES AND FISHING STREAMS
Tillamook County beaches have been aptly called "Nature's Playground." Resorts where the "City of the Wild" and the Life Outdoors can be fully enjoyed now open for the Summer visitor. New hotels, new cottages, new camping grounds.

SEASON AND WEEK-END FARE
Low round-trip season and week-end fares from points on P. R. & N.; also between all P. R. & N. points.

FOUR TRAINS DAILY.
LEAVE TILLAMOOK 7:30 A.M. and 10:30 A.M.
LEAVE TILLAMOOK 4:45 P.M. and 5:45 P.M.

Parlor Observation Car on "Seashore Special." Good fishing in the Salmonberry and Nehalem Rivers. Unsurpassed fishing in the Salmonberry and Nehalem rivers, as well as other Tillamook County streams.

Call for our brand new folder, "Tillamook County Beaches."

P. R. & N. Ry
Folders and full information from any P. R. & N. Agent or from JOHN M. SCOTT, General Passenger Agent, Portland.

State Board of Fish Commissioners. By Floyd Blyden, R. E. Gray, H. Kelly, and M. J. Commissioners. Dated at Portland, Oregon, 1914.

Notice to Contractors. Sealed bids addressed to Court of Tillamook County for the proposed improvement across Killam Creek, in Tillamook County, Oregon, will be received by the Court of Tillamook County at its office in Tillamook, Oregon, on or before the 25th day of June, 1914, at 10 o'clock a.m. That time opened and read.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check made payable to the County of Tillamook, Oregon, in the amount of 5 per cent of the bid, which shall be held by the County, in case an award is made, and the bidder shall file a refusal for a period of ten days, which the award is made to a contract and file a bond to the Court as required by law.

The bids are to cover the building and grading of the County building a reinforced concrete building across Killam Creek, and the old wooden bridge, and plans and specifications on file in the office of the County Clerk. The County Court will reserve the right to reject any and all bids filed on or before the 25th day of June, 1914, and all bids filed after that time.

Department of the Interior U. S. LAND OFFICE at Portland, Oregon, June 15, 1914.

NOTICE is hereby given that George Freshour, of Beaver, Oregon, who, on November 25, 1908, made additional Homestead Entry, No. 0751, for E 1/2 NE 1/4 Section 34 and SW 1/4 NW 1/4 Section 35, Township 3 South, Range 9 West, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final five year Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before the County Clerk of Tillamook County, Oregon, at Tillamook, Oregon, on the 25th day of July, 1914.

Claimant names as witnesses: Reuben Y. Blahok, John Borba, Ell D. Kraske, and Ed D. Kraske, Junior, all of Beaver, Oregon. M. F. Higby, Register.

Notice. TO ALL TO WHOM THESE SPRESENT SHALL COME—GREETINGS.

Notice is hereby given by the State Board of Fish and Game Commissioners that, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5316 of Lord's Oregon Laws, that portion of Tillamook River, in Tillamook County, Oregon, above a point 100 feet below the lowermost portion of the mouth of Trask River, except that portion of Tillamook River within 100 feet from any portion of the mouth of Trask River, is hereby opened to salmon fishing, other than with hook and line, commonly called angling, from and after July 15, 1914, as approved by statute.

The bids are to cover the building and grading of the County building a reinforced concrete building across West Creek, according to plans and specifications on file in the office of the County Clerk. Said work to be completed before August 31st, 1914. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids, Dated this 1st of June, 1914. J. C. Holden, County Clerk. First publication, June 18th. Last publication July 9th.