FRIDAY JULY 24, 1914

OUTRAGEOUS CAMPAIGN OF DEFAMATION.

From Philadelphia Record

Which we are called a conspiracy or not, there has been a campaign of defamation of the business conditions in the country connected solely in the hope of defeating Democratic candidates for Congress and securing a Republican House next fall. It is a disreputable campaign, and a dangerous one. Any participation in it is bad, to be regretted by the circulating of reports that he is embarrassed. The effort to convince the country that the state of business is very bad is a severe reflection to make it look that way is to progress. The pernicious propaganda would be glad to see us do. But we do not encourage the men to pass pessimistic opinions, and their eagerness to spend in electing any candidate or politician now on the Democratic party, while proving that they were very slender for the party of trust.

The effect of such is to express and of the disreputable press-controlled organs to collect and report and enlarge on every indication of dullness or trade, and to prolong such conditions in the hope it may be a method and deliberate effort to foster abroad a bad state of business in the hope of making political capital out of it. The bankers in Fort Wayne, who resented an address on the injurious effects of the Payne-Aldrich Tariff League, and left the League when he thought at its meeting was a partisan man who was trying to make business better, while the league is openly refusing to make it a issue in the hope in changing some votes in November. A Republican House could not change the tariff.

From Carlton Sentinel:

A strong organization has been formed of the growers and dealers in hops, prohibitionists but of course in reality backed by the brewers, who have become afraid enough to keep their active participation covered up. This organization has a publicity bureau that is securing all the free publicity possible through the press of the state and has begun a campaign of misrepresenting to defeat the pending prohibition amendment to the state constitution.

The organization does not hesitate to state things as facts that are absolutely false. Here, for instance, is an example: "The thousands of acres now devoted to raising hops are not adapted to raising other crops."

We have made inquiries in regard to this proposition. One hop grower told us that he had over nine hundred dollars worth of hops sent to his acre on hop land. He says six cents will pay the hops, that he had even an excellent crop of wheat follow hops. Prominent farmers have told us that the land now used for hops is good for any farm crop or fruit, and that a change is a good thing for the land.

Here is another statement from a recent circular from hop headquarters: "Your business man will be heard wondering why his sales are not what they have been."

A prominent Kansas newspaper man who did not profess to be a prohibitionist once said in our hearing that the grocerymen in his suburban neighborhood said that he could sell within a week when the "hid" had been cleaned down "tight" in Topeka by the increased amount of money flowing into his store. Along this line was the article in last week's Sentinel headed "His Best Territory," from Wm. Allen White's paper.

From remarks made to us by some hop growers in this vicinity, we think they will be glad to be out of the hop business and to devote their land to uses that are not even indirectly associated with making drunkards. We believe this strenuous fight in the name of the hop growers in favor of saving the saloons to Oregon is opening the eyes of growers of hops to the fact hop growing and soloon keeping are closely allied.

BAR VIEW NOTES.

At a regular meeting of the Bar View Progressive Club on last Monday evening, steps were taken to clear our beach of all rubbish, or refuse, or anything that would tend to make it unattractive or unsanitary. Our beach is one of the most beautiful and most attractive to be found on the coast, the pride of Bar View, its residents and thousands of admirers. People are coming to Bar View from the far east, daily, being largely attracted by the cool atmosphere, mild climate, beautiful scenery, its magnificent stretch of beach, and the glory and grandeur of a sunset on the Great Pacific. During the last week your correspondent has shaken hands with people from Kansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Montana California, Ohio and other states, and it is a great pleasure to introduce them to the beauties and grandeur of Oregon and her beaches. So it behooves every friend of Bar View, whether resident or nonresident, whether freeholder or not, to stand up for our beach with all the force that is in him. Let us all get buisy and boost. The interest of one should be the interest of us all. Don't knock your neighbor, your competitor, but talk, work, and boost for Bar View.

The Hon Calvin Worrall, secretary of the Tillamook Commercial Club was present at our push club last Monday evening and made a fine talk on civic improvement. His remarks were full of timely suggestions and good advice. Mr Worrall is a prominent attorney of the county seat, a man who has had much experience in the conduct of public affairs, a man of wide acquaintance, a pleasing conversationalist, and one whom it is a pleasure to meet. He is a booster for Oregon and the "Glad Hand" man of Tillamook County. Get acquainted with Mr Worrall.

Notices are being printed and will soon be posted in public places relating to the sanitary conditions at our beach, and stating the proper disposition to be made of all garbage and refuse. It is to be hoped that all residents, campers, and visitors will help in keeping our streets and beach clean, attractive and sanitary, for our own and others benefit.

The Bar View correspondent says our people were not much for the only Bryan boom in 1908 as the resident of Bar View should concentrate himself a committee of one to entertain Mr Bryan a dinner and a "Glad Hand" to show our guests and make them our friends.

ROCKAWAY AND ALONG THE BEACHES

Mr. Irving and sons, of Portland, have arrived and are preparing to build on their property in the Beach addition to Lake Lytle. Mrs. Irving and infant daughter are expected later.

Mrs. F. Sikes, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her uncle, W. E. Anderson.

The Mrs. Lowery and family, of Wash., are spending a few weeks vacation at the beach.

Mr. Marchell, a summer beacher of Bar View, is making arrangements to [illegible] and fish wagon along the beaches.

Mr. Maroney is building a sidewalk across his property, which will join Lake Lytle to Manhattan.

Campbell and Jacobs who have been conducting a livery stable here, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Campbell continues the business while Mr. Jacobs has returned to Kelso, Wash.

We are glad to note that Mr. F. P. Miller is able to be around the house again.

Considerable building is going on along the beaches.

I note what the Bar View correspondent says about Rockawayans hobbling people here by telling them of the class of men employed on the jetty, rather hard on us as some of our own men are working there.

Mrs. C. L. Wood, who has been suffering from tuberculosis for several years, passed away Sunday night, leaving a husband and one son. The remains were taken into the Valley for interment.

Mrs. Banks, who has been doing missionary work in South Africa is camping at Lake Lytle.

MARRIED

At the residence of Mr. Frederick Kebbe Sr., Mohler, father of the bride, Miss Rosalie Alfred Kebbe and Mr Clarence C Jackson, conductor on the motor, were united in marriage on Sunday evening July 19th. Rev. Donald Mackenzie of Tillamook read the marriage service of the Presbyterian Church. The interesting ceremony which took place in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, was followed by a sumptuous wedding supper, served by Mrs, Kebbe Sr and her lady friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are popular young people, and it is their intention to reside at Mohler in a large tent house.

REVIVAL AT RINK.

Rev. Dr. Bulgin assisted by his singer Mr. Rose are now conducting services at the rink. Dr. Bulgin was called to Portland this morning but will be back for the Sunday evening service.

Dr. Bulgin is considered by many to be one of the foremost preachers of the United States, and there is no question but that those who are missing his sermons are missing a great treat.

Mr. Rose is a fine soloist and is taking hold of the music with much zeal.

The rink ought to be packed every night. These men have drawn thousands in other places and they ought to do it here.
